

STARRING IN WINSOME COMEDY

Clark Gable and Joan Crawford in "Love on the Run" which starts Sunday at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne.

As Hollywood Kisses So Does Rest of Nation

"Hollywood kisses are felt 'round the world." Director W. S. Van Dyke, who has been through every phase of movie kisses in the "Flaming Youth Ten Minute Kiss" to the new style of dreamy, romantic caresses, is authority for the statement that "As Hollywood kisses so does the rest of the nation." He had more recent experience with Joan Crawford and Clark Gable in "Love on the Run," opening tonight at the Torrance theatre.

In stop-watch timing the kisses of Joan Crawford and Clark Gable, Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck and William Powell and Myrna Loy, Van Dyke has definite ideas on the subject.

IT'S NO FAIR EAVESDROPPING

WONDER WHAT Rena Case is whispering that makes Jack Henderson look so impressed. Maybe she's telling him where to find the hidden treasure that causes all the rumpus in "Chimes of Normandy." Los Angeles Federal Music Project mystery musical, that has been called back to Figueroa Playhouse by popular demand.

Vienna Romance Is "Champagne Waltz" Theme

A brilliant mélange of music, wit, beauty and dancing, as of fervent as its title, and as charming as only a romance in gay Vienna could be, brings Fred MacMurray, Gladys Swarthout, Jack Oakie and a host of other noted screen players to the Torrance theatre Sunday in "Champagne Waltz."

With Fred MacMurray as the leader of an American "swing" orchestra, and Miss Swarthout as the granddaughter of the musical director in a Viennese waltz palace, the music in "Champagne Waltz" covers the entire gamut of light and popular music. Miss Swarthout's beautiful voice makes it a real treat to the musically inclined of all shades.

In addition there is some excellent dancing by America's premier ballroom team, Volor and Yolanda, singing by Frank Forest, side-splitting comedy in the Jack Oakie manner, and a really delightful love story between MacMurray and Miss Swarthout.

A chorus of 350 beautiful girls, the largest number ever assembled for a motion picture, sets a new high for group dancing in motion pictures. The romance concerns itself with the love of MacMurray, leader of a "swing" orchestra, and Miss Swarthout, granddaughter of the musical director of a Viennese waltz palace. MacMurray's music puts the grandfather's place out of business.

Reunion of a Grand Romantic Team

Clark Gable and Joan Crawford in "Love on the Run" which opens a three-day run tonight at the Torrance theatre.

'Brigade' Film Is Impressive

"The Charge of the Light Brigade," the Warner Bros. picture co-starring Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland, was shown on the screen of the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne for the first time locally yesterday to a large audience which was stirred to enthusiastic applause by the tremendous drama and humanity of the picture—the sincerity of the acting—and the picturesque beauty of the settings.

The soul-stirring spirit of Lord Tennyson's immortal poem "Charge of the Light Brigade" carries through the picture to the terrific climax—although the tragic love story of the two English brothers who love the same Scottish girl, makes up the real substance of the story. It is at an army post in India that the idyll of Captain Geoffrey Vickers and Eliza Campbell begins and ends. The ill-fated lovers are unfortunately portrayed by Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland.

Irene Franklin Is Starred In First Movie Venture

Irene Franklin, dear to the heart of every American dough-boy who fought in France, and known to a generation of theatre-goers as one of vaudeville's outstanding stars, plays her first important movie role in "Along Came Love," the brilliant comedy featuring Irene Hervey and Charles Starrett, which shows next Wednesday night at the Torrance theatre.

An actress since she was six months old, Miss Franklin has appeared on the stage, on the air and in bit parts on the screen for many years, earning international fame during the war when she appeared at every American camp in France to cheer the soldiers. She had planned to retire and devote her time to writing when she was called for "Along Came Love," in which she appears as Miss Hervey's mother, an ex-stage star, and now it seems there's a new career in store for her.

Mirth and Music In Gay Viennese Comedy

Gladys Swarthout and Fred MacMurray set the pace for "Champagne Waltz," opening Sunday at the Torrance theatre.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD FILM LOTS

HOLLYWOOD, (U.P.)—Betty Jones, 15-year-old songbird, is being touted as the equal of Deanna Durbin, whose spectacular rise to fame is increasingly painful to M-G-M because she was permitted to slip through the hands of Universal studios.

Joe E. Brown, as well as the Marx brothers, are building fancy horse breeding farms in the San Fernando valley.

Jean Arthur is planning an around the world trip. Technicolor and Mickey Mouse are hooked up for another year.

Don Ameche and Ann Sothern got so tired of caviar and artichoke when forced to consume them wholesale in a picture that they have sworn off the delicacies for life.

Warner Baxter is roadmapping on a projected trip to Mexico City. William Powell may go along if film work permits.

Tyrone Power and Loretta Power feasted on $2 a box strawberries because film moguls wanted the scene to look realistic. The berries were shipped from Florida by air-mail.

Gloria Swanson will blossom out in song in her come-back picture, "Mazie Kenyon."

In New Role

Lou Gehrig, baseball's highest-priced player, is shown receiving instructions from a motion picture director on how to act—act for the movies, that is, not how to behave around first base, where he is an expert.
