day and announced he would attempt to build up the local parish to its full Catholic strength.

Father Fitzgerald, who succeeded Father Thomas F. Kennedy when the popular pastor left two weeks ago to serve the new Belmont Shore parish, was born in County Waterford, Ireland. Last year he returned there to visit relatives and friends whom he had not seen for many years.

Accomplished Speaker

He was pastor of the Sacred Heart church in Covina for three and one-half years and accomplished a great deal there in advancing the faith and building up the parish. Father Fitzgerald is an accomplished speaker and made many appearances before service clubs and civic organizations while in Covina.

This week, like all other priests of the diocese, he is in retreat. He plans to continue the regular order of services at the Church of the Nativity that have been customary for several years with mass celebrated Sundays at 7:30 and 9:30 a. m. Sunday school at 10:30 and benediction at 7:30 p. m.
