

Dr. Bingham Coming home

Word was received here today that Dr. R. A. Bingham, who suffered a broken neck in an automobile accident last February 91 miles west of Las Vegas, has made a steady improvement and is expected to return home tomorrow.

Dr. Bingham has been confined at the Good Samaritan hospital ever since the accident, which also injured four other Torrance folk including his wife who was found to be suffering from a cracked vertebrae several weeks after the crash.

The local dentist is still strapped in a special harness to assist his recovery. He expects to resume active practice of his profession in about two months and will occupy a new suite of offices on the second floor of Dr. C. L. Ingold's building at 1427 Marcelina avenue.

Toy Loan Library In Second Year

The Toy Loan library held open house days last week, celebrating its first birthday. There was a large attendance of adults and each child was given a free toy.

Mayor Colfax Bell of Redondo Beach was one of the many visitors. Miss Mae June Crowell, librarian, was assisted in showing the visitors about by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slover. Slover is field worker for the toy loan.

Open Two Days Each Week
The variety of toys keep the children contented at home, off the street and from wandering over to the neighbor's yard. Any parent who overlooks the Toy Loan library service is missing a helpful experience and their children are missing much happiness.

It is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. and is located in the Girl Scouts' clubhouse in the 1500 block on El Prado.

Home Economist Has Absorbing Programs Planned for Herald's Cooking School Here Next Week

Jap Boy Dies Here Following Bike-Car Crash

Enroute to his home in Redondo Beach after visiting with his Sunday school teacher, Kei Tsunada, 15, was rounding a corner at Elena and Vincent street at the beach city, going at a high rate of speed on his bicycle when he crashed head-on into a machine driven by A. J. Sinner of Redondo last Sunday morning.

The motorist rushed the unconscious lad to Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital where he passed away at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. He was identified by Dr. Hondo Moneta physician, a few minutes before the end came. The Japanese boy was injured internally but only had two small cuts on his head and left knee.

When he did not return home, his parents, brother and sister started hunting for him. They did not learn of his death, however until late Sunday evening.

A coroner's jury cleared the motorist of all blame for the fatality following an inquest held here yesterday afternoon.

The big, free all-electric cooking school, sponsored by The Herald will open next Thursday in the Civic Auditorium promptly at 2 o'clock, and while duties may be somewhat slighted that day and Friday in hundreds of homes, it will be because the women in these homes wish to learn better methods of performing these duties, thru attending one of the finest cooking schools ever presented in Torrance.

Miss Nancy Baker, who will arrive here next Tuesday in order to supervise personally all details in connection with the school, has notified The Herald that because of the unusual amount of research work with foods during the past year, her program is one of the most interesting and useful she has ever been able to offer to her audience. For instance, she will discuss new methods of cooking meats which provide better flavor with less shrinkage during the cooking, recipes for the use of less expensive cuts, and left-overs, together with the place of meat in the diet.

Meat cookery, however, is only one of the many interesting topics on the program for the all-electric cooking school. There will be delightful recipes for new desserts, hot breads, vegetables, and helpful suggestions for every meal of the day; there will be ideas for entertaining that will be welcomed by all women who are planning parties during the summer months.

Indeed, Miss Baker will have so much to say of interest and value to every woman, that it is hoped no one who has an opportunity to attend will miss a minute of any of the sessions. And in addition to the delightful program, there will be many attractive gifts, and many surprises not to be announced ahead of time.
