

DETOUR

By BETSY BYRNES

"The time has come," the Walrus said,
To talk of many things.
Of shoes, of ships, and sealing wax,
Of cabbages and kings,
And why the sea is boiling hot,
And whether pigs have wings."
Nonsense? Yes, but we all enjoy it from time to time, don't we?

QUESTIONS

The verse above is widely quoted. Who wrote it?
Yosemite National Park is gorgeous in the springtime. What does Yosemite mean?
See if you rate 100 percent on the pronunciation of the following words: version, jocular, ignoramus.

TODAY'S PROVERB

"He who has a thousand friends,
Has not a friend to spare:
He who has one enemy,
Shall meet him everywhere."

ANSWERS

The verse at the top of the column is a part of a most delightfully crazy poem, entitled "The Walrus and the Carpenter," written by Lewis Carroll, and appears in his "Alice in Wonderland." It is recited by Tweedledee, and begins—
"The sun was shining on the sea,
Shining with all his might;
He did his very best to make
The billows smooth and bright—
And this was odd, because
It was
The middle of the night."
There are 18 verses!
Yosemite is an Indian name, meaning "little grizzly bear."
Version is pronounced ver-shun. Jocular is always pronounced jo-gu-lar, not ju-gu-lar. An ignoramus is an ignorant person, not a person who knows nothing.

ADIOS

"Touched by a light that hath no name,
A glory never sung,
Aloft on sky and mountain
wall
Are God's great pictures hung."
—Whittier.

Hospital Staff Honored by Physician

Six members of the staff of Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital celebrated that institution's 12th anniversary as guests of Dr. William J. Eckert of Wilmington Sunday at a dinner at the Victor Hugo restaurant in Beverly Hills and theatre party. The guests found corsages and small cut-glass pocket vials of perfume at their places.
Those attending the enjoyable party were Miss Esther Z. Maxwell, superintendent, Mrs. William M. Brooks, Miss Ethelyn Niles, Miss Elsie Hammerstrom, Miss Agnes Thompson and Miss Goldie Goodman.
Dr. Eckert, the host, is leaving May 29 for New York and will sail June 2 on the S. S. Washington for the University of Vienna. He will study there for four months to get his "zeugnis" certificate of post-graduation in medicine.

MWD Film Seen By Large Crowd Here Last Night

A near-capacity audience, many of them children, attended the Torrance preview showing of the Metropolitan Water District's sound film, "Empire of the West" last night at the Civic Auditorium. The production proved to be one of the most interesting educational motion pictures ever to be screened in this city.
All parts of the great aqueduct system which is to link Torrance and 12 other Southern cities to an inexhaustible water supply—from the Colorado River—were shown and explained. The prologue to this picture, featuring Leo Carrillo, was particularly interesting because it linked the Southern California of the days of the dons with the present.

Police Get Sunshades SINGAPORE (U.P.)—Chairs for traffic policemen in Singapore's latest step toward easing the burden of duty under the tropic sun.

Coon Colony Flourishes ROCHESTER, N. Y. (U.P.)—Two years ago Martin Rebolz bought two raccoons for pets. Now he has nearly 100 coons.

Killer Takes Christian Vows

In one of the most unusual baptismal ceremonies on record, Encheli Kato, 40-year-old Japanese held in the King County Jail in Seattle on a charge of slaying his wife and four children, renounces Buddhism and takes up the Christian faith two days before going on trial in Superior Court. A plain jail table was his altar as members of St. Peter's Episcopal Mission performed the rites.

More Liberal Loans by FHA Said Assured

Granting of more liberal loan commitments is the answer of local lending institutions as well as of the Federal Housing Administration to the problem brought about by recent increases in building material prices and labor costs.
This was disclosed during the past week by a survey of lending policies throughout the Southland made under the direction of F. W. Marlow, Southern California district director of the FHA, in response to queries to the effect of rising construction costs on residential building activities hereabouts.
Under provisions of Title Two of the National Housing Act, of the maximum which can be loaned is 80 percent of the combined valuation of site and building, there being no question of over or under improvement, Marlow stated.

Shortage Still Acute Consequently, when the cost of construction increases, the actual amount of the loan, logically, also can be increased, he explains, although the appraised valuation of the site may not have increased similarly. FHA commitments are made on the basis of the total investment in land and building, when homes are in conformity with neighborhood standards, and not on either factor separately, he points out.
"While the rise in construction costs may have deterred home building slightly in recent months it is the opinion of observers generally that building of residential accommodations will continue in view of the more liberal lending policies which came into being as the direct response to the price increases," Marlow declared. "The housing shortage is still acute, people still are purchasing homesites in greater lending volume than for many years past, and there is no reason to believe that the trend toward home ownership will be lessened in the slightest degree."

Local Residents Share in $89,000 Estate, Report

Major portion of the $89,000 estate left by George Arthur Henderson of Santa Monica when he died there May 5 will be divided among his nieces and nephews, including Marlon and Leo Henderson of Torrance. The will listing real estate, trust deeds, stocks, bonds and cash with estimated annual income of more than $5,000 was on file for probate this week in Los Angeles superior court.

Maria K. Henderson, the widow, of Santa Monica, was bequeathed nothing in the will, which stated that she was amply provided for in a property settlement agreement prior to the death of Henderson. The probate will be heard in court May 26.

Coronation Radioast Heard Perfectly

Many a local resident listened in from 1 a. m. to 4 a. m. Wednesday morning to hear the broadcast of the coronation pageant and ceremonies in London. The reception was unusually good and later in the morning King Edward's address was heard equally well.

Buggy Revival Only Stunt NORWALK, O. (U.P.)—Old-timers smiled happily when a procession of three horse-drawn buggies moved through the streets. Then they discovered it was a stunt.

Cleveland Police Ban "Bingo" CLEVELAND (U.P.)—Police have begun raiding "bingo" games. Safety Director Elliot Ness has banned "bingo" except when it is played for charity.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon "Mortals and Immortals" on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The Golden Text is from Paul's epistle to the Romans: "They that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you."
A Scriptural selection in the Lesson-Sermon includes these verses from John: "They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. . . . Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them."
One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "The opposite and false views of the people hid from their sense Christ's sonship with God. . . . Their thoughts were filled with mortal error, instead of with God's spiritual idea as presented by Christ Jesus."

Christian Science reading room at 1208 El Prado. Public welcome.
