4,000 Women are Participating in Sessions That Close Friday

—Photos by Haig & Haig.

Torrance has an active interest in the 38th annual convention of California Congress of Parents and Teachers, which opened in Pasadena Tuesday and will close with a post-convention board meeting Friday afternoon. Some 4,000 women attending the meetings have heard the convention theme "Peace Through Understanding" emphasized in brilliant addresses, forums, symposiums and conferences. Mrs. B. C. Clark of Sutter Creek, state president, arrived in Pasadena Sunday and conducted the pre-convention session Monday, which was attended by 100.

Mrs. W. R. Goddard, president of Tenth District, who with district officers and association members has headquarters at Huntington hotel states: "A Parent Teacher convention is a school of instruction where council officers and association members apply themselves diligently to the study of present day child training in home, school and community."

Dr. Rufus B. Von Kleinsmidt, president of the University of Southern California, addressed the convention Tuesday morning on the subject "What Is Peace?" Florence Barnard of Brookline, Massachusetts, famed for her money management program, addressed the convention at this morning's session on "Education For Living." This was followed by a panel discussion on the subject of "Money Management" which was led by Dr. Audrey A. Douglas, chief of secondary education, State Department of Education.

B. J. DEAN ATTENDS P. C. E. A. CONVENTION

To the Pacific Coast Electrical Association convention last Thursday and Friday, went Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dean. Mr. Dean is employed by the Edison company and works at the Torrance sub-station on Western avenue. An interesting feature of the convention was a television demonstration, held Friday at the receiving station of KJH in Los Angeles. The festivities culminated Friday night in a formal banquet and ball. The Huntington Hotel in Pasadena was convention headquarters and housed delegates from all of the Pacific Coast and Hawaii.

MOOSE CARD PARTY TOMORROW EVENING

The Women of the Moose, Torrance Chapter No. 44, don the Loyal Order of the Moose, No. 785, extend a public invitation to a card party Friday evening, May 28, at the Moose Hall, 1551 Carson street. Bridge, 500, and pinocle tables start at 8 p. m. Three prizes will be given in each division and a large hamper of linens will be given as a door prize. The Meglin Kiddies are scheduled to provide entertainment. Members are requested to be in the hall at 7 p. m. for the purpose of nominating officers. The committee in charge of the card party is composed of Ruth Kidd, Emma Mackey, Mildred King, Elsie Smith, Augusta Barnett and Blanche Harshaw. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from members.

PASADENA CHAPEL WEDDING SETTING

Miss Alice Galt of Torrance entered the Pasadena Wedding Chapel at four o'clock in the afternoon, on May 16. When she came out she was Mrs. Robert Taber. Her dress was a lovely soft shade of blue, and the maid of honor wore coral. The bridesmaids' dresses were harmonizing pastels. Many friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony in the beautiful fern and flower setting of the chapel. Pauline Ray of this city was maid of honor. Another Torrance girl, Mary Batsch served as a bridesmaid. After a brief Laguna honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Taber will return to the groom's home in Pasadena.

SAN FRANCISCO WEEK-END GOAL

Among those who will take advantage of the three-day holiday next week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quaggin. The Quaggin's will leave Friday afternoon for San Francisco and return Tuesday morning. Mrs. William Priest of Long Beach will accompany them on the trip. As former residents of the bay district, these three anticipate a gay time visiting friends and relatives.
