TORRANCE NEWCOMERS

Finding possibilities in Torrance that warrant their establishing businesses here are the following firms, who this week either bought out existing locations or started new ones:

WALTER G. LINCH

Walt Linch, well known Redondo Beach dealer of Dodge cars and trucks and used cars, rented this week the used car lot vacated some months ago by Chet Rodgers of San Pedro. The lot is located at 1416 Cabrillo and Linch already has it full of used car bargains. He will sell new Dodge cars and trucks also and has placed Dan Compton in charge.

CLAUDIA ADAMS

Miss Adams, sister of Jimmie Adams, former ad manager of the Redondo Daily Breeze, has purchased the stock and fixtures of the former Lenae Dress Shoppe, 1279 Sartori. Miss Adams was with Herman's women's store in Redondo Beach for two years, has been in California five years whence she came from North Carolina. She speaks with a soft southern drawl, seems to know her business.

G. G. KNOLL

Mr. Knoll, with his father P. G. Knoll, recently bought out A. S. Moser of the Torrance Tire and Retreading Co., 1618 Cravens. G. G. also operates another retreading business in Torrance where he has been very successful. P. G. is G. G.'s father, helps out in both places.

SLATTERY & WALSH

When two Irishmen get together there's usually considerable excitement and when two Irishmen like Mr. Slattery and Mr. Walsh become partners then you can be sure there'll be plenty of activity.

And that's what the two gentlemen above hope to stimulate in Torrance in the automobile business. They recently took over the Pontiac agency left by Earl Forbes. They have been the car racket for many years in Los Angeles and are now operating a Willys agency in that city.

By next week they hope to have operations running smoothly at the Cravens address and will make a formal announcement next week in the Herald.

WALTER ROBINSON

From San Diego comes Walter Robinson who last week purchased the shoe repair shop formerly operated by M. L. Fenwick. To the former we wish every success and to Mr. Fenwick, who leaves because of his health, our regrets.

GUTTENFELDER'S GOAT GETTER

Harvel Guttenfelder pulls this one:

Take any number between 200 and 999, add two zeros (00), subtract from this the original number, then add the figures ACROSS. If the total ACROSS is 18, for example, turn to page 18 of the Los Angeles telephone directory, and count down 18 names and Harvel will tell you the correct telephone number and correct PREFIX listed there.

THOMPSON'S FROLIC

All set and ready is Ed Thompson, Chevrolet dealer, for the big blow-out in the Civic Auditorium next Saturday night. The hall has been rented, tickets sent out (admission by ticket only, available at Ed's garage), Fanchon & Marco, radio and screen stars have their cues, the dance orchestra has been signed and six reels of sound movies have been contracted for.

BLANKET BOOM

Hillman Lee, manager of J. C. Penny's store, staged an advance blanket sale last week and literally sold out. The response was beautiful to behold and Hillman bought new stock, again advertising blankets this week knowing that many cold-blooded Torrance folk will need 'em piled higher come next cold snap.

Building Permits Slow This Week

City Engineer Frank Leonard reported a vast falling off in the business of building permits in his department this week as compared with the huge total reported a week ago. Three permits were issued, adding up to $1,300 of which one was issued to Cecil Smith for a frame dwelling at 1608 Hickory street, $1,000; Carl Stiles, a fish market at 23007 Narbonne avenue, $100; and A. M. Teel, stucco garage in Waverly, $200.

POPULAR HIT WRITER DIRECTS SHOW

Evening of Mirth and Melody

With costumes arriving, rehearsals in full swing and the cast rounding to perfection in their lines, the musical comedy "Love's in the Air" sponsored by the Torrance Woman's Club promises to be the outstanding attraction in the city next week. Tickets are now on sale for the musical extravaganza which will be given next Thursday and Friday night, July 22-23 at the Civic Auditorium, and interest is becoming feverish as the date approaches when the beauty and talent of Torrance, assisted by two high class professionals, will be seen and heard.

Professional Singers
"Love's in the Air," is the show, for which the lyrics and music have been written by one of the most successful composers of light opera and musical hits, Lucien Danni, who is directing the piece. Romance of the heart-throb variety is intermingled with sparkling dialogue, rib-tickling situations and swinging tuneful melodies.

Conrad Gray, baritone, and Doris Roche, soprano, both well known on the professional stage and screen, are cast in the leading parts of Jack Van Dyke, the boy, and Kay Brewster, the girl. Other important parts are taken by Douglas York as Steve Gardner the playboy; Phyllis Sears, as Babs Brewster the girl; Don Mitchell as James Brewster the father; Emma Quaglin as Laura Brewster the mother; Kenneth Hull, Kay's college brother; Lillian Barrington, her aunt; Jean Daniels, as Jerry the daughter of Boss Whalen; Leonard Harris, the traveling detective; Sally Rowell, the housekeeper; Midge Higgins, the housekeeper's chorus girl daughter; Fan Wilkes as Rose LeDoux, grand opera singer; Ray Brooks, as Aunt Jessie's faithful shadow; Jack Barrington, owner of Sea-port Gardens; Dulcie Brooks as Lady Goldsborough and James Wilkes as Lord Goldsborough.

Lovely Chorus Girls

Sure Fire Song Writer
Lucien Danni, native of Nancy, France is a composer whose popular successes are almost too numerous to mention. His first song hit "Oceana Roll" swept the country like a tidal wave about 20 years ago, and was followed in quick succession by such other well known favorites as "Starlight Love," "Memory's Garden" introduced by Frances Alda; "You're Just a Flower From an Old Bouquet" introduced by Elsie Janis in "Puzzles of 1929" which ran in New York for a year; and many other songs, more than 200 in number, some of which had a tremendous vogue and all of them were of more-than-passing popularity.

Directs for Ziegfeld
Danni wrote a number of musical comedies which were presented on the New York Stage, such as "Mile Juliette," "Petticoat Lane," "Happy-go-Lucky" which ran for a year at the Liberty theatre in New York and "Oh Judge" featuring Randolph Scott and Peggy Cornell. He has been musical director for Keith's Broadway theatre in New York, for Victor Herbert's "The Only Girl," for Ziegfeld's Follies and for A. L. Erlanger.

The production "Love's in the Air" which will be staged by the Woman's club had its premier two years ago in Los Angeles, featuring Charles Bruin, Michael Sorenson, Carla Laemmle, niece of the famous motion picture producer, and Gloria Blondell.

In addition to his plays and popular song hits, Mr. Danni has written numerous skits for vaudeville and radio acts, as well as material for screen musical shows.

C.I.O. Welfare Group Formed By Women Here

A welfare organization to work in conjunction with members of the C. I. O. Lodge No. 1414 (Columbia Steel and International Derick and Equipment) was launched last week, it became known Friday. An executive board, consisting of Mrs. Harry Minor, chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Bates, Mrs. Walter Dietrich, Mrs. George Ryan and Mrs. Selden Osborn, secretary-treasurer, was elected. Other officers are to be chosen in the near future and these with the executive group, will serve for two months. Then an election will be held to pick officers for a year term.

According to Mrs. Minor, the purpose of the organization is to provide aid to employees and their families of Columbia Steel and Ideco in cases of emergency which need immediate attention or which are not taken care of by any of the present city agencies. It is felt that such an organization would effectively aid employees in some of their problems and result in other benefits by working in cooperation with existing agencies.

Plan Play Benefit
An attempt is being made to secure an attorney from whom expert legal advice can be had thru the organization and to make arrangements with a hospital so that hospitalization and medical service can be had at a reasonable cost. It was also decided that the group would form a study section where discussions, lectures and debates regarding labor problems would be considered.

Arrangements are being made for a public meeting where those interested can become acquainted with the aims of the welfare group. A play is to be staged for the purpose of raising funds. Ken Hunter, C. I. O. organizer, is said to have volunteered his support in engaging the interests of a Los Angeles theatrical union and of the Los Angeles Theatre Project in this venture.
