Extra Safe

COLLECTING LIQUID RUBBER ON FIRESTONE PLANTATIONS IN LIBERIA

An ever-increasing supply of rubber comes from these plantations. Savings made by controlling raw materials and by more efficient manufacturing and distribution make extra values possible at no extra cost.

BECAUSE in Firestone Standard Tires —

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process. By this process every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber. This counteracts internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because under the tread are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE because of the extra tough, long-wearing tread.

Before leaving on your vacation trip, join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES DO YOU KNOW
THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children?
THAT a million more were injured?
THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to unsafe tires?

At right is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire, with no skid protection worn off. Tires in this condition are liable to blowouts, skidding and skidding.

At left is section cut from a new Firestone Tire. Note the thick, skid protection against skidding, blowouts and skidding. Come on and see a demonstration.

Congressman Colder at the Capitol

By CHARLES J. COLDER
WASHINGTON, July 15, (Special to The Herald)—The death of Senator Joseph T. Robinson, the Democratic Floor Leader of the Senate, has demoralized Congress.

Joe Robinson was the outstanding leader in the battle for the Supreme Court Reform Bill. I listened to a part of his opening speech. He displayed deep feeling as he struggled in his efforts and it was clearly to be seen that he was a tired and over-worked man. He was the most militant speaker in behalf of the President's program. The opponents proceeded to heckle and harass him, but he displayed unusual patience under the circumstances.

Senator Robinson was devoted to public service. He could have earned five to ten times his salary in the service of big corporations, but he turned aside from the temptations of money and gave his life, as truly as a soldier on the battle field, in behalf of his country.

It is said that the ambition of his life was to be a member of the Supreme Court, but like the story of Moses, in the Biblical pages, he viewed the Promised Land but was denied the honor of entering it. It has been the current opinion in Washington for some months that Senator Robinson would be appointed to this position by President Roosevelt. He has stood consistently by the President during the hectic battles of this administration.

The bitter battle in the Senate continues. It has drifted into partisanship and personalities. At the present, more heat than light is being turned on this great issue. At the same time, the weather man is pouring on his hottest rays. Life in Washington these days is harried and heated. It makes one long for the cool breezes of the Pacific.

I attended a dinner one evening this week at which John L. Lewis, the C. I. O. leader, was the guest of honor. Lewis spoke for two hours, about half of the time in answering pointed questions. He is a powerful looking man and he is calm and deliberate in his discussion of the labor question. He said nothing that could be construed as Communism; in fact declared himself against extremists and took a position for Americanism.

Lewis boldly declared that the C. I. O. had two objectives: (1) That labor should have a greater participation in the earnings and profits from corporations. (2) That the machine makes it important that weeks and days be shortened in order that the employment of labor be spread.

So far as I can see, there is nothing revolutionary in this statement and it is the most practical route away from our present economic difficulties.

Casserole Dishes for Summer Meals

In summer time it is a relief to be able to slip the entire main course for dinner into the oven and forget about it until it is done, with no watching and no bother at all. The casserole dish of meat and vegetables makes a good all-in-one dish for this kind of oven meal.

Casserole of Lamb, Vegetables
2 pounds diced lamb shoulder
Flour for dredging
Lard for browning
4 carrots
4 potatoes
1 bunch celery
4 onions
Salt and pepper

Dredge, dice lamb with flour and brown in hot lard. Dice the vegetables and place in a greased casserole dish. Place meat on top. Season with salt and pepper. Rinse pan in which lamb was browned with hot water and pour over the meat and vegetables. Add water to half fill the casserole dish. Cover and cook in a moderate oven (350° F.) until both meat and vegetables are done. Serve with a crisp salad.

Baked Corn Beef
4 pounds corned beef
Whole cloves
1 cup brown sugar, maple syrup or strained honey

Put corned beef into a kettle with cold water to cover. Bring rapidly to the boiling point; skim; immediately reduce the heat and let simmer slowly until the meat is tender. Remove from water, place on a rack in an oven roasting pan. Rub brown sugar over corned beef or pour over it maple syrup or strained honey. Stick with whole cloves in diagonal rows and place in a moderate oven (300°-350° F.) until the surface is nicely browned.

TOAST NESTS FOR BREAKFAST
Take thick slices of stale bread about three inches square, cut off the corners and scoop out center. (Use waste bread to roll and dry for other things.) Toast nice and brown in the oven. Before taking out of oven, butter generously, drop a whole egg in and cook for a few minutes.
