Santa Monica Prepares for Swim Event

With 400 entry blanks in the hands of swimming coaches and officials of the Southern Pacific Association, A. A. U., Santa Monica today pressed activities and completed plans for the Southern California swim championships, last week awarded to the beach city.

The championships, expected to draw an outstanding field of performers, will be held in the municipal ocean pool, where the city is installing necessary turning boards and diving platforms. In addition to the A. A. U. events, Santa Monica's first annual water sports carnival will feature life guard team races, dory contests and paddleboard race. The carnival is to open Sunday morning, Sept. 12, with Boy Scout and Girl Scout troop races. Championship events begin at 2 p. m., followed by dory and paddleboard event in the evening. The harbor is to be illuminated for the occasion with yachtsmen cooperating to the fullest extent.

Labor Day Lallapaloos

By BETTY BARCLAY

Here are some tips for Labor Day. The salad is an easy-to-serve fall luncheon dish that you will find particularly pleasing. Use only high quality macaroni and you will be assured of a wholesome, nutritious and economical dish. As for the holiday suggests—they are just the thing for the picnic lunch, to slip in the pocket for that watch-the-parade nibble, or to serve in the evening for a before-bed bite. The candies? If you don't know what to do with them, ask the children.

Macaroni Boiled Egg Salad
1 1/2 lb. elbow macaroni
1 cup celery, cut fine
1 dozen olives, cut fine
4 hard-boiled eggs
1/2 sweet pepper
1 sweet pickle, cut fine
Boil macaroni in salted, rapidly boiling water, till tender. Drain and thoroughly chill. Add other ingredients, except the eggs. Spread mixture on lettuce leaves on a platter and garnish with sliced hard-boiled eggs. Makes 4 generous portions.

Holiday Nuggets
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
2 eggs, well beaten
1/2 cup sugar

Social Ice Melters
A sure fire recipe for melting social ice is to play games, whether your guests are teenagers or staid grownups. Games in every smart hostess' repertoire include S. S. Van Dine's Philo Vance detective game and Jury Box, another parlor crime hit. And of course every experienced hostess knows that Monopoly is a game favorite that always puts the crowd in a hilarious spirit.

Railroad Shanty Man Believes in Advertising
PEABODY, Mass. (U.P.)—Crossing tender Gilbert E. Lame believes in advertising his employer's business. When the Boston & Maine Railroad gave him the shanty a new coat of paint, Lame took the opportunity to paint some signs of his own. They read:
"Glad to see you on the go. Have a good time. Next time try my railroad. Cheaper, cooler than your automobile."
"Crazy driver just passed. With those fellows on the road you are safer on my railroad."

Labor Shortage Faces Agriculture

California canneries and agricultural employers are facing a shortage of harvest season labor despite the thousands of migrant workers flocking into this state from the midwest and southwest and the additional thousands of residents on relief.
The California state employment service revealed the need, attributed primarily to a bumper crop year and overlapping of crops ripened by a recent heat wave.
