

Narbonne Paper Staff Chosen

Betsy Anne Hunt was re-elected editor of Narbonne's school paper the Green and Gold. She is vice-president of the Los Angeles press association, sports editor of last year's school yearbook, El Eco, and president of the G. A. A.

Dorothy Hall, who was associate editor of the Green and Gold last term, has also been re-elected. The positions of feature editor and circulation manager are held by Isaline Billaud, and June Lindgren. Kiyoto Nakakawa and Wayne Cox, are sports editors.

This year the staff, under the sponsorship of Miss McGarry, journalism instructor, plans to put out a weekly paper instead of one every two weeks. New type which has been purchased by the associated student body will be used in the near future for streamlining the paper.

S. P. PLAYS REDONDO

San Pedro high school's Pirates will play Redondo Beach high tomorrow afternoon on the beach school's field.

BEES PLAY TODAY

Bonito Running; Eager for Bait

Bonito staged a run this week here reports Capt. J. M. Andersen, skipper of the Olympic fishing barge, anchored two miles off the Hermosa Pier. The bonito were of a very hungry nature and bit at anything, live bait and dead bait, both meeting with favor. Salmon groopers, sculpin and halibut lead the bottom fishing list.

Sportsmen Lose to L. A. Team; Need Players

Because some of his players failed to show up for the game, Joe Sandland's Torrance Sportsmen took a 6 to 3 defeat last Sunday at the hands of Bob's Market nine of Los Angeles at the Harvard Playground. The Market men ran over four runs in the first inning to gain a lead that the local team was unable to overcome. Roy Willes pitched and Dale Merritt caught for the Sportsmen.

"I could use a couple more good outfielders and an infielder," Sandland said, "and any fellow who wants to try out for the team and a chance to wear one of the new uniforms we are getting thru the courtesy of several Torrance merchants should see me at once at 927 Arlington avenue."

Narbonne Vigilantes Gain Members

Russell Biegel, LaVerne Jones, and Warren Lang, Sterling Seckler, Bill Mertz, and George Key were chosen to be members of the Vigilantes boys honor and service club at Narbonne high school in place of the boys lost by graduation last term.

New Leagues Start Bowling at Local Alleys

Two new leagues got under way this week at the Torrance Bowling Academy on Carson Street while the Major and Commercial divisions continued their barrage of the palpitating pins. The Southern California Gas company circuit comprises teams from Downey, Compton, Redondo and Hermosa Beaches. The eight teams in the league started their drive toward a title Monday night and the results of their standings, which were not available today, will be published next week.

The second circuit to commence operations at the local bowling center was the Torrance Merchants' league with six teams who got under way Tuesday night. The Torrance Plumbing company, Civic Center Produce market, Colburn's market, J. C. Penney company, Torrance Billiards and the U. S. S. Vestal are enrolled in this league. Their standings will be announced next Thursday.

Art Turner, formerly houseman at the Torrance Alleys, Premier Alleys of Long Beach and the Compton Alleys, has returned to take up his duties at the local bowling center again. He will be glad to see all his old friends and assist patrons in enjoying the facilities of the Academy.

Here is the standings for the Major league:

Team	Won	Lost
Alaska Inn	10	6
Torrance Chamber	10	6
Schwartz Clothiers	7	5
Torrance Academy	4	4
Eastside Beer	8	8
Torrance Electric	8	8
Howard's Jewelers	4	8
Dave's Market	5	11
Ray Sleppey (Torrance Electric)	won	individual high series last week with 635 and Tommy Tomich, (Alaska Inn) took high game for the evening with a 255. The Torrance Electric team held high team series, 2820, and the Alaska Inners shot high game for the evening, a 947. Schwartz Clothiers still hold high game series for the season, 984.

Commercial league standings are:

Team	Won	Lost
Sequoia Redmen	11	1
Marine Terminal	8	4
Supreme Egg	7	5
National Supply	6	6
Ritz Cafe	5	7
Union Ice	5	7
Log Cabin Cafe	4	8
Haymakers Redmen	2	10

High team series for the evening (Sept. 29) went to the Sequoia Redmen who totaled 2512 and also won high game series with a 906. J. Osti (Supreme Egg) was high man for the series with 544 and S. Ross (Haymakers) won high game—231.

Tartars Play Poly Here Friday at 3

Contrary to the general opinion of spectators there was no penalty called by the referee as the kick started the play. Jordan players downed Herlett behind the goal and the safety was allowed. Johnny Schmidt looked very good in the play until he suffered a leg injury and had to be taken out. As result of this casualty, Schmidt won't see any action and the Narbonne league opener, Cochran said yesterday.

Tomorrow's game with Poly may see either Herlett or Goetz getting the call for the speed man in Cochran's tricky backfield maneuvering. Jack Kent also has a chance of being assigned Schmidt's post. Coach Cochran said yesterday that the opening line-up for the Poly game may be something like this: Max Coast and Al Winkler, ends; J. D. Radford and Harris, tackles; Rossett and Grubb, guards; Richhart, center; Madore, Tanouye, Kent and Herlett or Goetz, backs.

Pistol Challenge Taken; Match Set

Answering a challenge flung to Southland pistol clubs several months ago, the 975th Coast Artillery, Anti-Aircraft marksmen have scheduled a match with the Torrance Pistol club for Oct. 24 on the local range. President John Stroh received a letter yesterday from a member of the Coast Artillery group asking if the challenge was still open. It was and the match is on. Those who will represent the local club in the contest are Gene DeBra, Henry March, Hugh Eckersley, Percy Bennett and Marion Freeman.

LOCAL BOYS WIN SOAP BOX DERBY

(Continued from Page 5-B) high ramp which Ted Ramsay of Lomita built for the finals. The Landsdowne car, built low, nosed off the incline to be stopped when it touched the pavement. Consequently, the young racer was unable to show his car's ability in its best light and he failed to place.

Police Chief G. M. Calder and Sergeant John Stroh won many compliments for the police department for keeping the crowd back at the start. Residents from other cities witnessing the races were heard to declare that the Harbor District Derby was the best-handled event of its kind they had ever seen. Likewise Judge Robert Lessing, general chairman of the event, received merited praise for his leadership in directing the junior sports attraction. W. K. Adolph of Walteria again served as chief starter and he sent the boys away fast and in rapid order. Robert Lowellen was clerk-of-the-course and he kept tab on the place winners as they crossed the finish line. A number of Torrance American League men assisted splendidly in serving as judges, starters and general aides to the race.

GAME SCHEDULED

The Torrance Sportsmen will play the Compton Cubs at diamond No. 1 on the Manchester playground next Sunday afternoon.
