Casaba Season Opens Dec. 5

Basketball season for Marine league teams will get under way Dec. 3, according to Coach Bert Merrill, who will direct the varsity and Class B teams at Torrance high school for the second year. Five teams will be entered in the cage race with El Segundo, out of the Marine grid schedule, returning for action.

Coach Roy Cochran will have charge of the Class C and D teams, assisted by Jimmy Herlett, whose application for the job as D mentor was accepted by Cochran Monday. Young Herlett will try his hand at coaching if he does not return to work at the Torrance National bank.

Varsity and B candidates are working out now but there will be no regular practice and practice-game schedule until after football has marched out of the sports spotlight at Torrance high.

SUSPENSION IS PENALTY

The state board of equalization has agreed that board policy henceforth shall demand a minimum penalty of at least 10 days license suspension for all violators of the law prohibiting sale of liquor to minors.

Plays Like This Upset California

Here is Capt. Fritz Waskowitz, the University of Washington's great halfback, as he ploughed into the line of scrimmage for one of his numerous gains against California's hitherto impregnable forward wall. Waskowitz starred in the game last weekend which ended in an upset scoreless tie and broke California's winning streak.

B Grid Team Ends Victory-less Season

The Torrance B football team which opened its season by playing a scoreless tie with Jordan for a practice game, failed to win a Marine league game like their big brothers on the varsity squad but they made 13 points against opponents to the Tartar heavies' seven.

The B results were: Banning, 7-0; San Pedro, 27-6; Narbonne, 7-7, and last Thursday afternoon the local midgets lost to Gardena, 7-0. They played a post-season practice game against Banning high's B's here Monday afternoon.

Pacific League All Knotted Up

As result of Banning and South Gate's scoreless tie game last Friday, the Pacific league race ended in a four-way tie for top spot. The Pacific leaguers are scheduled to play the Marine division's teams in interlocking playoffs.
