

Griffith Park Site Urged for 1940 Fair

Site of the permanent trade exposition to be established in Los Angeles in 1940 and the 1942 world's fair commemorating the 400th anniversary of Cabrillo's discovery of California will be the northeast corner of Griffith Park, on land now owned by the public, if the committee in charge follows the advice of Fred H. Howard, veteran Los Angeles horticulturist and landscape expert.

The $1,500,000 tentatively earmarked site would go a long way towards the construction of the building, Howard said, if the site he suggested was used.

About a score of proposed sites have been submitted to the committee by realtors and property owners, and decision is expected to be announced soon. Old Machado Lake, a marshy area east of Torrance has been advocated by one civic organization which points out that the land can be acquired at low cost, drained and thus turned into a desirable area for adjoining residences.

Here's a Grand New Dessert For Bridge or Buffet Supper

This Pineapple Parfait Cake is light and velvety, with a delicate fruit flavor

Pineapple Parfait Cake

Fine and velvety—with a delicate blend of fruit flavors

1/2 cup Spry (now triple-creamed shortening)
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 egg yolk
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 cups sifted flour
(cake flour preferred)
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup canned pineapple juice
1/2 cup water
4 egg whites

Combine Spry, salt, lemon rind and egg yolk and blend. Add sugar gradually and cream until light and fluffy. Take but a jiffy with triple-creamed Spry. Sift flour and baking powder together 3 times. Add small amounts of flour to creamed mixture, alternately with combined pineapple juice and water, beating after each addition until smooth. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry and fold carefully into mixture until well blended. No wonder Spry cakes are a dream, with fine, fluffy batter like this! Pour batter into two deep 9-inch layer pans greased with Spry. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Spread Pineapple Parfait Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake.

Pineapple Parfait Frosting

2 egg whites, unbeaten
1 1/2 cups sugar
6 tablespoons pineapple juice
1 teaspoon light corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Combine egg whites, sugar, pineapple juice and corn syrup in top of double boiler and mix thoroughly. Place over rapidly boiling water and beat constantly with rotary egg beater until mixture holds up in peaks (about 7 minutes). Remove from fire, add lemon rind, and beat until cool and thick enough to spread.

*Are you tired of the same old cakes? Of the frostings you've made for years? Then you'll want to try the delicious Pineapple Parfait Cake shown in the photograph.

This delicate white cake is a dream—it's so light and feathery! Its exquisite texture makes you think of a velvety parfait. And its flavor is new and distinctive—a combination of pineapple juice with fresh lemon rind. The frosting has the same delicate, fruity flavor. And it's so light and fluffy, you'll agree it's simply perfect for this dainty dessert.

Try Pineapple Parfait Cake for your next buffet supper or for Sunday tea. And serve it on a colored cloth, for this snowy-white cake looks striking against pastel shades or bright colors—against blue, pink or yellow.

But there's just one thing to remember—a snowy-white cake with a delicate flavor like this, demands a pure white, ALL-vegetable shortening like Spry. It will save time, too, for Spry is so smooth and creamy it blends with other ingredients in half the time, and costs less to use. You won't need anything else to top off the meal, for Pineapple Parfait Cake is a grand climax, a complete dessert for any buffet supper!

Mural Artist Visits T. H. S.

Miss Kathryn Skeele, artist who painted the mural "Home Life in Old Taos" in the Torrance high school library, visited the school Monday, accompanied by a group of eight artist friends. The visit marked the first time Miss Skeele saw her work since it was hung at the library. She was seriously ill when it was placed.

The group examined the painting and then was entertained at tea by Miss Ada Chase, art instructor, at her home on Carson street.

RAIN TOTAL 3.41

Yesterday's rainfall amounted to .15 of an inch, bringing the season's total to 3.41 inches. Last Saturday's rain was the heaviest yet of the season, .58 of an inch falling here, according to reports received by The Herald.

Peace Officers to Honor Stroh

A large number of local residents are expected to attend the ladies' night dinner-show at Frank Sebastian's Cotton Club in Culver City Jan. 31 when the Peace Officers' Civil Service Association of California will hold its installation party. The reason for the local interest is that Capt. John H. Stroh of the Torrance police department will be inducted as president of the association at this event.

Dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Edna Stone, 1508 Post, were Dr. Minnie Proctor and her mother, Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber, of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Charles Woodcock, 1218 Amapola avenue, attended the Parent Teachers health conference held in Chamber of Commerce Building, Los Angeles, this morning.
