Film Highlight

Irene Dunne scores mightily in the year's choicest comedy role as Lucy Warriner in "The Awful Truth," which opens Saturday at the Torrance theatre. This gay, madcap story of the Warriners, played by Miss Dunne as Lucy and Cary Grant as Jerry, is so uproariously funny it should make the annual ten best list in a walk. The fun starts when Jerry and Lucy decide to separate with the only bone of contention the custody of Mr. Smith, their wire-hair terrier.

The court allows Mr. Smith to Lucy but permits Jerry to visit the dog. Thus many of the film's outstanding comedy scenes arise out of Jerry's visits to Lucy's apartment while she is entertaining impatient suitors.

Le Affaire Warriner takes its most ludicrous turn, however, when Jerry announces his engagement to a flighty young thing with a social register background. Lucy, determined to win Jerry back at all costs, attends the sumptuous engagement party, posing as Jerry's sister, and by actions totally unbecoming a lady, manages to have herself and her "brother" thrown out on their collective ear.

Irene Dunne

Scores Again in Comedy

Irene Dunne, who unceremoniously cut loose from a career of stately roles to indulge cinematically in wild whimsies and hysterical insanities in "Theodora Goes Wild," will again be seen in an all-comedy role in Columbia's "The Awful Truth," which opens Saturday at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne theatre. Cary Grant this time serves as Miss Dunne's screen cohort with such favorites in support as Ralph Bellamy, Cecil Cunningham, Alexander D'Arcy, Robert Allen, Joyce Compton and Esther Dale.

In "The Awful Truth" Miss Dunne is seen as the prim, staid wife of Cary Grant, a bouncer of sorts who simply can't get used to marriage ties. He takes an innocent vacation in the guise of a business trip and returns to find his wife has been out all night with a romantic foreign vocal teacher. The car, she explains, broke down and they were forced to spend a night in an inn. Accusations and recriminations fill the air before Mr. and Mrs. decide to separate. In court the only bone of contention proves to be Mr. Smith, the prolific wire-hair terrier, Asta, of "The Thin Man" series. Irene wins custody of the pup but the court allows Cary to visit the dog once a month.

Affairs take their merry course until Cary expresses his intentions of marrying a pretty young thing with a social register background as soon as the divorce is final. Irene then puts Theodora's wild forays to shame with her actions in the climactic scene wherein she tries to impress on Park Avenue that young Cary is not the sort to be marrying wealthy, pretty young things.

Special Mexico

Tour Arranged

Marked with an unusually well balanced itinerary, the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce's 17-day tour to Old Mexico has aroused interest through the Southland area, and nearly three score tentative reservations have been made.

Attention of those residing in nearby communities is invited to the tour by the Tour committee, and all who are interested are invited to join the party, which will leave Long Beach Feb. 26 and return on March 15.

The group will travel on a special air conditioned train. The first stop will be made at Nogales, and from there the party will proceed to Hermosillo, Mazatlan, Tepic, Guadalajara and thence to Mexico City high point of the tour.

In the nine and one-half days spent in Mexico City as headquarters, many sightseeing trips will be made. Arrangements in special that the party will receive special attention at stopping places en route, and the all-expense feature relieves the traveler from all inconvenience. First class hotels of international repute will be sent to all interested by the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, or Wm. Bratton, local Southern Pacific and Pacific Electric agent.

Plans for F.D.R. Birthday Ball

President Earl Conner of the Kiwanis club gave an informative talk on service club work and objectives and plans for the President's Birthday Ball, to be held Saturday, Jan. 29, at the Hollywood Riviera club-house, were reviewed.

Arrangements were made to have local Boy Scouts start selling "Fight Infantile Paralysis" badges here, the dimes for these to go to the National Foundation. Roy McKeon was program chairman. The club members also discussed a proposed civilian fingerprinting project to be carried out here in the near future.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?"
All English speaking people know and love that old song!

QUESTIONS
Who wrote the words of "Auld Lang Syne?"
Our friend who has a geographical complex asked us this next one, so we pass it on to you: Which one of the United States is farthest south?

Here's an easy one for you—what is a proverb?
TODAY'S PROVERB
"Make yourself an honest man, and then you may be sure there is one less rascal in the world."

—Carlyle.
No beating around the bush about that proverb, is there?

ANSWERS
Robert Burns wrote the "Auld Lang Syne" words which we use. He based them on other, earlier versions of the old Scotch folk song. The oldest one we know of was published in 1716 and goes:
"Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never thought upon,
The flames of love extinguished,
And freely past and gone?"
The state which is farthest south is Florida. Maybe you knew that one, but we admit, we had to get out our map.

Air is a mixture of uncombined oxygen, uncombined nitrogen and a small amount of other gases.
ADIOS
"Man comes into the world naked and bare;
He goes through the world with trouble and care;
When he dies, he goes the Lord knows where;
But if he does well here, he does well there."

—Hindu.
