A. L. A. Ladies to Be Hostess Group at District Party

Torrance Civic Auditorium will furnish the setting for the largest card party ever to be held in this city on Wednesday, April 13. Never before has the Bert S. Crossland Unit, 170 American Legion Auxiliary been privileged to play hostess at the annual child welfare bridge in which all 22 units of the 19th district combine their efforts in making a final donation to the state welfare fund.

Each of the units furnish at least one prize for the affair, dainty refreshments are served and splendid entertainment provided.

Lucille Lewellen and Fan Wilkes in charge of arrangements announce that attendance will exceed the 200 mark and extend a cordial invitation to all Torrance ladies to attend. Secure tickets from Mrs. Wilkes or at the entrance.

DOINGS OF W. O. T. M.

Women of the Moose Thimble club will hold a dessert bridge party at the home of Augusta Barnett, 2007 Andree avenue, Tuesday, April 5. They invite the public.

Mmes. Augusta Barnett and Marie Benson attended a spaghetti luncheon and card party at the San Pedro hall Monday.

Regular business meeting of Women of the Moose will be held in their hall, 1526 Cravens avenue, Friday evening.

PINOCHLE PARTY AT MOORE HOME

Honoring Mrs. Margaret Fordice a party was given at the J. O. Moore home, 1923 Granercy avenue, last Thursday evening. Pinochle furnished diversion and prizes were awarded Mmes. Fordice, Mary Lewis and J. F. Dalton. Others included were Mmes. Sally West, Elizabeth Brod, Anna McFarland and Persia Fess.

Start 51st Year Together

MR. and MRS. HENRY M. COLBURN
... their friends span U. S. continent

This week scores of congratulations were received by Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Colburn of this city from old-time friends in their former home-town of Corry, Pa. The messages let the Colburns know that their acquaintances across the continent still hold them in high esteem and wished them many more years of happiness together.

The Colburns, who came here from the Pennsylvania town about four years ago, celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary last week on March 22. They now live at 705 Sartori avenue. The congratulatory messages earned the good wishes of many Torrance residents who learned of the Colburns' anniversary last week.

They were married at the home of Mrs. Colburn's parents at Durkoveville, Pa. Colburn was employed for many years at the Ajax Iron works plant and a feed-mill in Corry for many years and while he was a resident of that city, Colburn was active in the Woodmen of the World and Knights of Pythias lodges. He marked his 73rd birthday March 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Colburn have two sons and three daughters, three of the children still living in Corry. George Colburn and Mrs. Ray Smith reside in Torrance, while Mrs. Glen Gates, Mrs. Paul Quinisk and Oscar Colburn are in Pennsylvania.

N. B. P. W. TO MEET MONDAY

Torrance Club National Business and Professional Women will meet for pot-luck dinner and regular business meeting at the home of their first vice president, Bettina Miller, 1217 Cota avenue, Monday evening at 6:30 p. m.

Delegates to the Los Angeles district convention to be held in Long Beach, April 9, will be elected.

Woman's Club to Hold Primary Election Wednesday

Wednesday, April 5, is prospectively day at Torrance Woman's club. Primary election will be held and 15 district officers will be special guests.

Mrs. M. H. Jourdan district program chairman will be luncheon speaker. Mrs. R. A. Robinet will serve as chairman.

The afternoon session will include a lecture by Orion L. Stivers on "The Art of Paper Decorations" and solos by Mrs. R. B. Pettijohn, district radio chairman.

Members wishing to attend will please make reservations for luncheon with Mrs. Ba Gilbert, phone 240.

Attending the Los Angeles county federation convention at Long Beach today are Mmes. H. C. Barrington, Raymond Rogers and E. A. Miles.

TORRANCE FOLK ATTEND CONCERT

Torrance people who attended a delightful musical event in Los Angeles Sunday were Mrs. Kathryn Buffington, Mrs. Ed Schwartz, Miss Dorothea Hillman, Eric Bell, John Delano and Howard Hopkins. The feature of the affair was the performance of Richard Buhlig, piano soloist with the Philharmonic orchestra, who played two Brahms concertos. Following the concert Mr. Buhlig entertained his students, of whom Mrs. Buffington is one, at a luncheon at his home.

Students In Benefit P. T. A. Performance

Friday (tomorrow evening) at 8:00 o'clock in the elementary school auditorium students of Torrance high school will present Hollywood Review, a vaudeville show filled with laughter, music and dancing in conjunction with a one-act play, "A Wedding."

The affair sponsored by Torrance high school Parent Teachers Association will be presented to a full house if advance ticket sales form a barometer from which to judge.

In the cast of characters will be Dick Miller, master of ceremonies, band leader and auctioneer, Charles Schultz, announcer, Margaret Kibbe, Donna Jo McCutcheon and Mary Walls, as soloists, Weston Leach, jazz whistler, Margie Rusk, Helen Thompson and Jeannette Barckdull, trio with piano accompaniment by Hazel Burckett.

The one-act play will be presented under the direction of Miss Mills. Leading character parts will be taken by Wilbur Franklin, student body president, Mary Moore, Jack Kent, Addison Smith, Norma Seematter, John Schmidt and Madeline Pinkham.

LOMITA AMARANTHS ELECT OFFICERS

Installation of new officers of the Lomita Amaranth lodge will be held April 8 at Artisans hall. Mrs. Adella McCann was elected royal matron last week to succeed Mrs. Martha Gasser.

Other officers chosen were Florence Lakso, associate matron; Arminia Kaighin, conductress; Stella McCullough, associate conductress; Bessie West, treasurer; Frances Hathaway, secretary; and Mrs. Gasser and Arthur Colwell to serve with Madeline Powers as trustees. The lodge held a dessert-bridge party yesterday afternoon.

QUEEN ESTHERS TO SERVE DINNER TONIGHT

Members of the Queen Esther Society, organized three months ago have the responsibility of serving a dinner to the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church this evening. The dinner will be served in the church parlors starting at 5 o'clock. Officers of the Queen Esther group, installed last Sunday are Jo Lane, dowd, president; Clara Brewster, vice president; Margaret Boggs, secretary; Rudella Bays, treasurer; Dorothy Treloar, press reporter. Membership in the society is open to girls 12 years of age and over who are members of the Methodist church congregation, or who have no church affiliations.

JOHN MILLER AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

The birthday of John Miller furnished the incentive for a surprise party at the family home, 1217 Cota avenue, Saturday evening.

Kid games furnished entertainment. Guests presented Mr. Miller with a fountain pen. Included were Messrs. and Mmes. B. Woods, Ed Holloway, Ray Meade, Roy McCloud, Harris Gotham, Gasto Aren, Robert Clark, Mrs. Vera Potteroff, Messrs. W. R. Borden, Claude Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their son Dick.

ATTEND LEGION DINNER AT LONG BEACH

Attending the 19th District American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary dinner held in Memorial Hall, Long Beach, Saturday evening were Messrs. and Mmes. R. L. Lewellen, J. R. Wilkes, D. A. Murphy, Otto Modglin, L. C. Doan, Harry Higgins, Tom Watson, Herbert Robinson and Gertrude Ralston. In charge of the affair was Chris Aelco of San Pedro.
