Pension Meeting at H. S. Friday

A free mass meeting will be held tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock in the Torrance high school to promote the "California Pension Plan." According to its sponsors, this plan has been "worked out by a group of California businessmen to restore the seemingly lost purchasing power of thousands of California citizens. It is claimed that the plan is founded upon sound economic principles and does not resort to increased taxation for its payment to beneficiaries."

PENSIONER ARRESTED
Sam Floyd, a 67-year-old pensioner of a state old age pension who resides at 1311 Arlington, was arrested Sunday afternoon and charged with being drunk on a city street. He was fined $5 which he agreed to pay June 2.

Speak Your PIECE!

Have you anything on your mind in the way of a constructive criticism, comment on municipal or neighborhood activities, cheers or jeers at local institutions? The Herald invites you to "Speak Your Piece" but insists all communications be signed. A pen name will be published if desired. "Pieces" should be short, not libelous and of general interest.

A POOR PROMISE?
The Torrance Herald made a statement some time ago that when the school builds the Torrance high school auditorium the contractor would employ Torrance men first. The way it is going now, I don't see any Torrance men there at all.

In a case I know of, a union carpenter of Torrance went to the contractor and asked for a job and also said he was a Torrance man. The contractor said he could not get on there. This contractor does not, in my opinion, care much for Torrance labor.

Elementary Track Meet Runs Like Clock-Work

More than 170 boys were entered in the annual Torrance Elementary school track meet held on the high school field last Friday and the 25 races, including 10 relays were run off in the record time of an hour and five minutes, an average of about two and one-half minutes per race. The Blues won, 210, to the Reds' 182.

The meet, as may be seen from those figures, was a complete success. It culminated many weeks of strenuous training. Miss Volney Henderson, who organized, managed the event and served as referee, deserved the credit she received for the manner in which the contests were conducted.

Every runner, from the tiniest midget to the largest Speedy Student, knew what to do, where to go and when to leave the field and thus eliminated the usual congestion at meets of such kind. Officials were Mrs. Juliet Young, scorer; Miss Bernice Lloyd, clerk; Mrs. Ruth Pipkin, Louis Mills and M. H. Hayward, judges; Principal Merle Helbach, starter.

Townsend Club Activities

By BETH PAIGE
Last week's assembly at Townsend Club rooms featured discussion of many plans for our forth-coming national convention opening June 19 at the Coliseum, tickets for which are in charge of Mrs. Shields at Dole Drug store.

So far, no young people have enrolled from Torrance in the huge chorus proposed here two weeks ago, but a number of other singers have done so. Boys and girls to enroll should use a penny postcard giving name and address and age to 103 Arlington.

TO MAINTAIN SIGNS
An appropriation of $100 to maintain state highway signs in Torrance was voted by the city council Tuesday night.
