

Kersey and Conrad Speak at Final Session Held by High School P.T.A.

Paris Styles

by ... MARY FENTRESS

PARIS (U.P.)—If you are looking for a quick and easy method of rejuvenating your summer wardrobe, here are a few suggestions gleaned from the field of Paris fashions:

Choose sky blue handkerchief linen for a tailored single-breasted jacket to wear over wool or cotton.

Border a white organdy bow with a band of gold sequins and place it high on the neck of a black wool dress with a jacket bolero of matching wool.

Make gloves of polka-dotted silk surah to match the blouse of a tailored suit.

Fasten a bunch of gay blue bachelorette buttons at the waist of a black and white printed pique with a knee-high circular skirt.

Sew sequins at irregular distances on a square of pastel-colored handkerchief linen, and toss the handkerchief nonchalantly over your head for an evening suit.

Slit your pockets vertically instead of crosswise. And place as many as eight of these neat invisible pockets on a single tailored jacket.

Tuck a red rose in the belt of a stiff black taffeta evening dress—whose circular skirt ends in a wide ruche.

Cut maple leaves out of black patent leather and apply them loosely on a two-inch white kid belt.

Applique or embroider your initials on the band of your hat. Substitute a long, tight sleeve for the ordinary short sleeve in lace boleros. Patou makes the tight-sleeved bolero in heavy black lace for a black crepe dinner dress.

Contrast a lavender printed silk blouse with a pale yellow wool suit which has buttons made of porcelain in the form of wheat sheaves.

Wear emerald green satin gauntlets with an ultra-blue evening dress.

TODAY'S FASHION TIP
Summer wardrobes may be rejuvenated in a variety of ways.

SHOWER HONORS SUNDAY BRIDE

Mrs. Maxine Smith and Miss Jane Roberts were co-hostesses when they entertained at a miscellaneous shower Thursday honoring Olive Belle Huber, who on Sunday became the bride of John Schroeder.

The affair held in the Smith home, 2226 El Prado, was attended by Misses Marjorie Huber, V. Laine Flint, Susie Bell, Pat Carlin, Jean Kresse, Mildred Holland, Pal Marie Henry, Betty Stevenson, Norene Schroeder, Margaret Kibbe, Mmes. Mildred Drury, Ethel Derouin, Mary Ann Bradford, R. A. Unit Receives Praise for Its Outstanding Accomplishments

Vierling Kersey, superintendent of Los Angeles city schools and Warren C. Conrad, assistant superintendent were honored guests at the luncheon for members of the high school faculty and the high school Parent Teachers Association, held in the school cafeteria Monday. The session completed the season for the P.T.A. unit.

Kersey spoke of vital issues confronting the world today and listed as the most important the problem of placing into gainful employment the millions of young people, who are leaving schools and colleges throughout the country this spring. He outlined the duties of adults, communities and government in assisting in a youth program.

Principal Thomas H. Elson, as toastmaster, introduced the speakers. He praised the P.T.A. for the co-operative spirit manifested in the past two years and commended its programs as being instrumental in leading adults to a better understanding of their children.

New Officers Presented
Mrs. R. S. Sleeth closed the year's work as association president by turning over to the new president, Mrs. Charles Woodcock, the awards received for outstanding work during the past year. Among these was a certificate for outstanding service to youth to which was attached seven seals listed as follows: Standard association, two magazine seals, two membership seals, program and chorus as well as a certificate of merit for programs.

Mrs. Woodcock gave a splendid report of the state convention, which she recently attended and introduced her officers and chairmen for the new season as follows: Miss Elizabeth Parks, first vice president; Mrs. J. W. Post, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Prowten, recording secretary; Mrs. W. H. Tolson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jack Keefe, auditor; Mrs. J. J. MacDonald, historian; Mrs. R. S. Sleeth, parliamentarian and membership chairman; Mrs. J. O. Bishop, budget and finance; Mrs. Paul Watson, child welfare; Mrs. L. G. Barkdull, parent education and Elizabeth Parks, program.

Mrs. Marcus Edwards, hospitality; Mrs. Mable C. Banks, founders' day; Mrs. Ed Hatter, magazine and emblem; Mrs. J. E. Hitchcock, association standards; Mrs. Marjorie Eischen, music; Miss Ada Chase, art; Mrs. E. A. Miles, motion pictures; Mrs. Dean L. Sears, health; Mrs. Raymond Rogers, home service; Frances Barrow, public service; Miss Grace Morse, student welfare; Mrs. A. M. Dowell, publicity and George Powell, father's forum.

BIRTHDAY PARTY HONORS MISS JENSEN

One of the week's nicest parties was that arranged by Mrs. Harold Jensen, 1605 Amapola avenue, as a surprise for her daughter, Miss Dorothy Jensen on her birthday Monday. Those present included Misses Joy Fossum, Margaret Floyd, Esther Terry, Betty Jane Rous, Helen and Mary Jane Smith, Maxine Steele, Alice Burger, Mrs. Ira Wolfelt of Long Beach the honoree and hostess.

Schroeder-Huber Wedding is Climax of High School Romance

Before an improvised altar of palms and white blossoms built in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Kee of Long Beach, Olive Belle Huber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Huber, 1444 Post avenue, became the bride of John Burdette Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Schroeder, 803 Sartori avenue, Sunday afternoon.

Rev. George Taubman, pastor of First Christian church of Long Beach, read the service in the presence of 100 guests. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in gown of white net over tulle. Her fingertip veil of tulle was held with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible on which rested several white gardenias and sprays of lily-of-the-valley.

Lillian Marjorie Huber, as maid-of-honor for her sister, was given in pale pink lace and carried an arm bouquet of delphinium. Miss Jeanne Kresse as bridesmaid was gowned in blue lace and carried pink sweet peas.

Rudolph Kee Huber, brother of the bride, served as best man. Mrs. Baker Smith played the wedding march and accompanied Miss Margaret Kibbe, soloist. After the ceremony the couple left on a northern honeymoon. When they return they will go to their new home in Long Beach, the wedding gift of the bride's parents and grandparents.

The wedding culminates a romance which started in the local high school. Both young people graduated with the summer class of '35. Schroeder is employed at the Rubbercraft company.

FORMER TORRANCE GIRL GIVEN HONOR AWARD
Betty Irwin, who received her elementary and first year high school training in Torrance was last week awarded the David Starr Jordan award when she graduated from Jordan high school, Long Beach.

The David Starr Jordan award is given by the 20-30 club of Long Beach to the senior from Jordan high who rates highest in character, personality and leadership. Miss Irwin received a scholarship at University of California in Los Angeles, where she will resume her studies next September.
