

H. S. Alumni Dance is Saturday; Job's Daughters Install New Officers

Mrs. Smith Heads P. T. A. Group For Second Term

Using the impressive floral ceremony and likening each officer to a colored blossom Mrs. C. Rous, past president of the Torrance Parent Teachers Association installed officers of the group at their meeting held at the school auditorium Tuesday.

Mrs. Harold Smith was seated president for a second term; Mrs. W. H. Tolson, first vice president; Mrs. Helbach, second vice president; Mrs. D. W. Bigley, recording secretary; Mrs. J. Edwards, corresponding secretary; Mrs. N. D. Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Albert Isen, parliamentarian; Mrs. T. E. Watson, treasurer and Mrs. W. Galbreath, auditor.

As each officer was seated she was given a different colored ribbon, these when placed in bouquet represented harmony which the installing officer intended to as the key to accomplishment.

Mrs. Smith gave her report for the year and reported on the state convention, which she recently attended.

She brought to the association merit award for programs and publicity book, also a certificate on the state for outstanding achievement during the year, which were attached seals for the program, membership and orator.

Mrs. Tom Watson, Mrs. George Roos and Mrs. Marcus Edwards were appointed as financial officers for the year, which opens in September.

A luncheon for old and new members of the association was held prior to the meeting.

WEDDING IN M. E. ARSONAGE MONDAY

The parsonage of the First Methodist church, 1620 Manuel avenue, furnished the setting for a pretty appointed home wedding, Monday afternoon, when Miss Mary Benedict of Wasco, California, became the bride of Henry Schwartz, of Chablis, Washington. Rev. B. C. Brewster, uncle of the bride, read the service in the presence of members of the Brewster family and Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeMott of Hollywood.

The bride wore a travel suit of tan with blouse of tan chiffon, saddle tan accessories and corsage of gardenias.

After a short trip to Mexico the couple will reside in Chablis, where the groom is in business.

CLUB WOMEN HAVE BUSY SESSION

Thirty members of Torrance Woman's Club met at the city park Monday for potluck luncheon and to discuss plans for the coming year. The group voted to repair the clubhouse, invite the District Council to meet in Torrance in September and to have a year book. Mrs. M. J. Beale as chairman for the year book announced that those wishing their names to appear in the book must have their dues paid Sept. 1. Members of the club will serve the luncheons at the clubhouse and thus eliminate the expense of a caterer.

MRS. SCOTTON HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. J. B. Scotton, 1438 El Prado, entertained members of her bridge club at breakfast in the garden of her home Thursday. Covers were placed for Mrs. Michael Strasser, J. R. Wilkes, R. L. Lewellen, Herman Mitchell, D. A. Murphy, Dean L. Sears, R. S. Sleeth and the hostess. Prizes in bridge were awarded Mrs. Strasser and Mrs. Mitchell.

P. E. CARD PARTY SATURDAY EVENING

Pacific Electric Auxiliary will hold their monthly card party in their meeting hall on Dominguez street, Saturday, June 25. Mrs. May Howe and Mrs. Winifred Barnard will serve as hostesses.

Doris Kresse and Staff 600 Old Grads Due Honored at Ceremonies at Auditorium Event

Carrying out the theme of "The Old Wishing Well," officers of Torrance Bethel No. 50 Order of Job's Daughters were installed at public rites in the Masonic temple Saturday evening with some 200 in attendance. Miss Doris Kresse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kresse, 1443 El Prado, was seated as honored queen. White robes were worn by all officers and others taking part in the ceremony. Miss Kresse wore a cape of white satin over her robe, carrying it at the altar, to don her purple robe and crown after being obligated.

Incoming line officers carried old fashioned bouquets. Programs for the affair were in the form of booklets, of off white printed in purple and tied with purple ribbon.

Parents Assist Rites

Miss Shirley Johnson, the retiring queen, was installing officer assisted by Jane Johnston, guide; Mary Ann Bradford, marshal; Mary Peckham, senior custodian; Vivian Knudsen, recorder; Bette Elliott, chaplain; Joy Fossum, musician, and Lorenz Ulrich, soloist.

O. A. Kresse presented his daughter with his gavel and Mrs. C. M. Johnson, retiring guardian of the temple, presented her daughter, the retiring queen, with her jewel. C. M. Johnson escorted his daughter to the east where presentation was made.

Mrs. Jean Mosher, worthy matron of Torrance chapter, Order of Eastern Star, served as mistress of ceremonies and gave the address of welcome. Program numbers were solos by Robert Sleeth, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Maxine Smith.

Miss Kresse presided at her first meeting of the Bethel Tuesday evening. A social hour after the business session honored the newly installed guardian, Mrs. Margaret Gutfenfelder and guardian secretary, Lillian Weir.

MRS. BODLEY HONORED AT STORK SHOWER

Mrs. Lucille Harris Bodley was pleasantly surprised Friday evening when Mrs. W. H. Burgener, 1630 Beech avenue, entertained for her at a shower in the Burgener home.

Games heralding the coming of the stork, baby rattles for favors, table decorations and menu in keeping furnished a jolly evening. Guests included: Misses Nora Bodley, May Harris, Mary Kohler, Martha Colburn, Kay Shelton, Virginia Rugg, Nona Pierpont, Mary Jones, Alice Beck, Frances Snodgrass, Marie Morgan, Misses Micky Hunter, Doris Pullman and Lita Harris.

RELIEF CORPS MEETING FRIDAY

Members of the Woman's Relief Corps will hold a potluck luncheon in the Torrance City park Friday (tomorrow) at noon. Plans for entertaining department officers in Torrance July 14 will be discussed.

CARD PARTY AT JAVENS HOME

Mrs. Olive Javens, 2367 Sonoma avenue, will open her home to Women of the Moose for a card party Wednesday, June 29, at noon. Dessert will be served and prizes awarded. Tickets may be secured from members of the Thimble club.

The Herald—50c for three months.

Plans for entertaining 600 at the first annual Torrance high school alumni dance in the Civic Auditorium, Saturday evening, June 25, are now complete. Dancing will start promptly at 9 o'clock with Johnnie Hughes and his 12-piece orchestra furnishing the snappy dances and an occasional number to revive old memories. Featured soloists will be Miss June Human, Mike Connis, Eddie Connis and Hughes.

The committee in charge of decorations promises to create the atmosphere of a perfect June night. Cherry blossoms, colored lights and streamers, stars and a low moon will do the trick. One of the features of the evening will be the balloon dance. When the orchestra strikes the tune of "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" 1,000 balloons will shower onto the dance floor.

The committee in charge of arrangements consists of 100 former high school grads. The host and hostess group includes Jane Roberts, Ellen Sleppy, Margaret Tiffany, Marie Smith, Veronica Tepper, Jane Burkert, Georgia Tappin, Marie Evans, Mary McNeil, Janet Mikelson, Virginia McNally, Lucille Trudgian, Celina McNeil, Frances Hicks, Helen Rogers, Hazel Foster, Mary Jane Smith, Florence Buchanan, Jean Kresse, Helen Smith, Dorothy Jensen, Dorothy Shaw, Marjorie Huber, Mary Vonderahe, Bette Elliott, Robert Leving, Elmer Riley, Marvin Howard, Albert Isen, Dick Clutter, Walter Zuer, Louis Murray, Dick Watson, Al Pennington, Joe McNeil, Bob Sleeth, Johnnie Rogers, Ray Sleppy, Thomas McNeil and Eugene Stegelmeyer.

DOINGS OF THE ROYAL NEIGHBORS

Louise Walker and Marie Benson attended Calver City camp of the Royal Neighbors Tuesday evening when that organization observed courtesy night. Louise Walker served as guest flag-bearer at the meeting.

Torrance camp Royal Neighbors will hold a card party to which they invite the public Tuesday evening, June 28, at 8:00 p. m. in the hall at 1526 Cravens avenue.

NEWLYWEDS FETED AT STEAKBAKE

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, 2368 Torrance boulevard, were hosts when they entertained at a steak bake and miscellaneous shower Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers, Jr.

Those attending the affair were Messrs. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers, Jr., Sam Neely, Jack Quigley, E. A. Miles, C. D. Lowen, E. L. Patterson, Otis Putnam, Leo York, Norm Barrington, Larry Finlayson of Los Angeles and William Beck of Long Beach.

Mrs. Bishop Installs Officers of Fern Avenue P.T.A.

Mrs. W. J. Bowers assumed leadership of Fern Avenue Parent Teachers Association for a second year at a meeting held in the school kindergarten room Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. O. Bishop, first vice president of Gateway Council P.T.A., installed the officers in impressive manner. Seated at the meeting were Mrs. Ethel Moore, first vice president, Mrs. Oda Vans, second vice president; Mrs. William Jolley, secretary; Mrs. C. W. Stevens, treasurer; Mrs. L. D. Haarer, historian and Mrs. Cecil Smith, auditor.

Mrs. Bowers conducted the business session and gave a detailed report of the state convention. Mrs. Ethel Moore reported on the district meeting. A delightful program presented by Mrs. Vans included solos by Mrs. E. J. Hatter, accompanied by her husband, a group of songs by the school glee club, Fifth grade pupils told the story of the Bee in novel manner, selections by school harmonica band and orchestra.

WOMEN OF MOOSE SEAT OFFICERS

Mrs. Ruth Kidd, past regent of Torrance Women of the Moose, served as grand installing officer at their ceremonies held in their hall, 1526 Cravens avenue, last Friday evening. She was assisted by Augusta Barnett, installing grand chaplain; Edna Johnson of Whittier grand guide and members of Whittier drill team.

Mrs. Opal Williams was seated as senior regent, Mrs. Elsie Smith, past regent; Katherine Gossiaux, junior regent; Annie Woodbourne, chaplain; Marie Benson, recorder; Anna Wilken, treasurer; Ruth Kidd, guide; Zoe Deithers, assistant guide; Lillian Gossiaux, sentinel; Bertha Stevenson, argus and Theresa Murray, musician.

Honored guests were Bessie J. Lovitt, district deputy and Henry Williams, dictator of Torrance Loyal Order of Moose, who addressed the assembly.

P.T.A. COUNCIL TEA HELD IN BISHOP HOME

Mrs. Jack Lowry, president of Gateway Council Parent Teachers and Mrs. J. O. Bishop, vice president, entertained for officers of the council at a tea in the J. O. Bishop home, 2021 Carson street, Thursday. Assisting the hostesses in serving the 35 attending were Mrs. J. Patterson of Gardena and Mrs. W. J. Schroeder of Lomita.

As a surprise to Mrs. Lowry members of the council presented her with a basket of handkerchiefs. Ladies from Narbonne, Gardena, Wilmington, San Pedro and Richard Dana, W. C. Conrad, third vice-president of the council and assistant superintendent of Los Angeles schools, T. H. Elson, principal of Torrance high school, Mrs. Chas. Woodcock, and Mrs. R. S. Sleeth attended.

GERM-FREE CLEANING

is to CLOTHES WHAT SUMMER SUNSHINE IS TO THE BODY

The Seal That Safeguards Your Health!

Doctors advise the health benefits derived from the penetrating rays of OLD SOL ... taken in moderation, of course. It vitalizes the body and kills germs.

So do doctors agree that GERM-FREE CLEANING is an advancement over old methods. The heated, controlled air of this process destroys deadly germs in clothing. And, too, GERM-FREE CLEANING freshens the clothes and renders them odorless.
