Cowcatcher Saves Cow
REGINA, Sask. (U.P.)—A red shorthorn cow walked leisurely down the railroad track, ignoring warning blasts from the whistle of an oncoming engine.
The outcome—the cow turned a double summersault in the afr, rolled over several times as she hit the ground, got up, and walked away.

Retail Census Returns Due Before July 15

Retailers and wholesalers in Torrance and vicinity who have been called on by the Bureau of the Census to furnish pertinent facts concerning their operations during the year 1937 and the first two quarters of 1938 are urged to cooperate fully by filling out, immediately, the questionnaires which have been supplied for this purpose. The schedule form is simple, and furnishing the information will not entail a great deal of work on the part of the reporting establishments.

It is of particular importance that retailers and wholesalers fill out the questionnaires immediately and mail them in sufficient time to reach the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, office on or before July 15 where arrangements have been made to tabulate and publish the results immediately. This Survey is of a current character and the early publication of the results is essential in order to be of maximum value.

There should be no hesitancy about furnishing the data as the
