N. B. P. W. Club
Picnic at City
Park Monday

Choosing an all Hawaiian motif for their picnic dinner party National Business and Professional Women of Torrance and guests who joined in the party at the city park Monday evening were seated at long tables decorated with large pineapples and plenty of flowers and were served bowls of hot burgo, French rolls, ambrosia and cake. Forty attended.

Miss Frances Thomas of Gardena, entertained, with steel guitar and Hawaiian songs while the dinner was served and later accompanied the entire group, when they sang.

Committee in charge of arrangements was Bea Hughes, Sabina Abramson and Ruby Brown.

Regular business meeting of the club will be held at the home of Miss Edna Mullin, 1323 Cota avenue, Monday, August 1, at 7:30 p. m.

TOY LOAN TO BE OPEN FIVE DAYS
Maude E. Messner has been named toyarian of the local Toy Loan on El Prado.

For the past few weeks the organization has been open just two days each week. Miss Messner announces that in future the Toy Loan will be open five days, Monday through Friday, from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Those having toys are asked to return them at once.

ALTA WEST BECOMES BRIDE SUNDAY
Three hundred guests witnessed the marriage Sunday, July 17, of Miss Alta Lucille West to George Herbert West of Pasadena, in an impressive service at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Monrovia. Miss West is a former resident of Torrance, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. West, who moved to Monrovia about three years ago. She attended Torrance high school until her Junior year, graduated from Monrovia high the following year and later from the Pasadena junior college.

For the wedding ceremony the bride was attired in a silver mousseline de soie, with finger-tip veil held in place by a halo trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a white Bible on which rested a single orchid.

Attendants were Mrs. William Gleason Miller, sister of the bride as matron of honor, Miss June Knudsen and Miss Elizabeth Williams, bridesmaids. Edwin James was best man. Canon E. B. Smith, rector of St. Luke's read the marriage lines.

Mr. and Mrs. West left after an informal reception at the church for an honeymoon at San Francisco, Yosemite, and Catalina Island.

Guests from Torrance were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller, 1317 Beech avenue, Miss Ruth Colburn and George Colburn.

DESSERT BRIDGE AT LOWEN HOME
Mrs. C. D. Lowen, 904 Beech avenue, is entertaining at a desert bridge in her home today for Mmes. Dorothy Wade, Ruth Fischer, Jean Patterson, Ruth Ingold, Evelyn Fernley, Agnes Babbitt and Ann Gallucci of Whittier.
