County Recorder Logan's Death Makes Examination Necessary

Local Student On Honor List At U. S. C.

One resident of Torrance was among 324 University of Southern California students to be included in the select list of students with grades of all "B" or better for second semester of the 1937-38 school year.

Announced yesterday by Registrar Theron Clark, the grade lists included the name of Alice Burger of 1104 Cedar avenue, a senior student.

Bradys Welcome First Girl in Two Generations

The arrival of six-pound, nine-ounce Leta Inez Brady at a Hawthorne hospital last Thursday morning was a big event in the Basil Brady family living at 1880 Plaza del Amo. She is said to be the only girl in two generations of the Brady and Wilson clans. Father Brady is employed by The Shell Oil company.

Grandmother Mrs. Annie Wilson is a local playground worker and Grandfather H. B. Brady lives at Sepulveda and Normandie. The Basil Bradys have two sons.

Applicants for the office of county recorder, for a permanent successor to the late Charles L. Logan, today were awaiting action of the county civil service commission and the board of supervisors to set the qualifications for the examination.

Robert L. Hazen, appointed last Friday by the supervisors following Logan's death Thursday night, is well in his 70's and is not expected to take the examination; it was learned, as he now is eligible for retirement.

If the examination for Logan's successor is to be open competitive or county-wide, it would mean the veteran's preference of 10 percent on the examination would aid many candidates considerably. If on the other hand the examination is made inter-departmental, it would give certain other candidates an advantage.

The position held by Logan pays $7,200 a year. The offices of county recorder and county clerk are two of the smoothest running offices in the county government. The Los Angeles office does more business in 30 minutes than San Francisco does in a week, and it is one of the largest offices of its kind in the United States.

$30 Pension Plan Meeting Here Aug. 2
The public is cordially invited to a meeting of California Pension ($30-a-week) Plan supporters at the Civic Auditorium next Tuesday night, Aug. 2, at 8 o'clock. Well-informed speakers will discuss the benefits of the plan which will be voted on in November as a state measure.
