Around Hollywood Film Lots

HOLLYWOOD (U.P.)—Hollywood is a hamburger town.
Other cities may be famous for their seafoods, steaks, and fowl, but the movie city is the haven of the hamburger.

It is true that hamburgers are served in other towns, but nowhere does the hamburger reach the high social level that it does in Hollywood.

A new way of fixing hamburger even brought a measure of social success to Margaret Carlsile, Continental opera singer, upon her arrival in the movie city.

But let Miss Carlsile tell it:
"My friends met me at the train when I arrived here recently and rushed me off to a drive-in stand for a round of hamburgers. I was hungry and wondered why we didn't eat at the station. They explained we couldn't eat there—it was one of the few places in town that did not sell hamburgers. That makes it an outlaw among the hamburger fans."

"That night, we attended an open-air barbecue at the home of the James Ellisons. As I half-suspected, there next to the grill stood a stack of neatly-pressed hamburgers ready to be cooked."

As Miss Carlsile had just returned from a season of opera at the Covent Gardens in London and a tour of other European cities, she was the guest of the evening.

"You ought to know a new way to fix hamburgers," challenged her friends.

"Until that day, I hadn't seen a hamburger in five years," she said. "They just don't have them in Europe. I culled my memory for some foreign touch for hamburgers, and in desperation mentioned that a paprika sauce might be tasty."

Under her direction, the amateur barbecue cooks mixed the paprika sauce, and it made a hit. Several persons even copied the recipe. It calls for a sauce of cooking oil and flour heated until brown and then flavored with paprika until it begins to turn red.

The hamburger trimmings enjoyed by film celebrities are widely varied. Basil Rathbone takes his on a bun with Worcestershire sauce; Don Terry prefers chili; Anita Louise likes her's toasted with a layer of melted cheese; Pat O'Brien smothers his with mustard and pickles; Glenda Farrell goes for "nutburgers," a mixture of ground round steak and ground nuts with a special mayonnaise;

Richard Arlen likes his rare and Wendy Barrie likes her's broiled.

While Gene Raymond prefers hamburger with chopped chive.

Friends of Miss Carlsile also have promised to introduce her to the "size," a dish that starts with a layer of hamburger upon which is added chili beans, chili sauce and raw onions.

Police Become Magicians

ORILLIA, Ont. (U.P.)—Police stolen, but the police recovered 43.

LOOKS LIKE LOVE COMES IN SIXES

Loretta Young and Joel McCrea are starred in "Three Blind Mice," which opens Sunday at the Torrance theatre.
Featured with them are Pauline Moore, David Niven, Stuart Erwin and Marjorie Weaver.

GAYER THAN A MARDI GRAS!

She's got oo-la-la! She's got joie de vie! She's got what it takes! Simone Simon (center) must be very clever.
She must think faster than Don Ameche (left) and run faster than Robert Young... but not too much faster!
The delightful trio is starred in "Josette," now at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne.

Barrymore Uses Pirate Models

Lionel Barrymore's makeup as Billy Bones, famous old buccaneer of "Treasure Island," Robert Louis Stevenson's classic filmed recently, should have been just about perfect, because he studied a painting of the character for more than five years!

The star revealed his intimate acquaintance with the pirate during the first day of filming of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film opening Sunday at the Torrance theatre with Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper in co-starring roles.

"I happened to be browsing around book stores in New York City one winter, when I noticed a collection of pirate paintings and sketches in a window."

Barrymore related. "I went inside and was told they had just been used to illustrate a new edition of 'Treasure Island' and were by an artist named N. C.
Weyth.

"Impressed with the effective color combinations and powerful rendition of figures I bought six or seven of them. At home I examined them at my leisure and the one that impressed me most was an old buccaneer with a heavily scarred face and desperate expression.

"Some time later while going through a copy of the book I discovered that my fierce pirate was none other than Billy Bones, the toughest of them all. The picture occupied a prominent place in my study and I looked at it daily for years.

"Now I am to portray him on the screen. When they put on my makeup in front of a mirror it was like seeing an old friend!"

Other famous characters in the story are played by such notable stars as Wallace Beery as Long John Silver, Jackie Cooper as Jim Hawkins, boy adventurer; Otto Kruger, Lewis Stone and dozens of others in supporting roles.

Loretta Young In '3 Blind Mice'

"Three Blind Mice," the new Darryl Zanuck romantic hit, comes to the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne starting Sunday as a distinct innovation in motion picture production.

Assurance of a maximum of romantic beauty has been established by the selection of Loretta Young and Joel McCrea as co-stars.

"Three Blind Mice" also adds a brilliant cast which includes David Niven, Stuart Erwin, Marjorie Weaver, Pauline Moore, Binnie Barnes and Jane Dar-well.

Miss Young, Miss Weaver and Miss Moore form the trio of mid-Western girls who gamble their entire inheritance on the theory that it "is just as easy to fall in love with a rich man as a poor one."

The picture marks the reunion of gorgeous Loretta and marvelous Marjorie—a notable event, since it was in their first appearance together. ("Second Honeymoon") that young Miss Weaver got her first break in the films, and immediately captured the hearts of the fans.

Scenes on a Kansas chicken farm; life in a millionaire play boy colony; pleasure sailing craft crashing at sea; gay fiesta scenes and three delightful love stories going on simultaneously form the principal highlights of the picture.
