Ed Thompson, Chevrolet Dealer, Expands; Is Named Agent for Eight Communities

Today marks the start of Ed Thompson's entry into the select field of major automobile dealers covering large slices of territory.

The genial Chevrolet dealer here for more than four years has been appointed authorized Chevrolet agent for Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes Estates, Waverly, Rolling Hills, Lomita and El Nido in addition to his local field.

The appointment, effective today, came from the Chevrolet division of General Motors Sales corporation.

In Redondo Beach, Thompson replaces Wallace Halverson and will operate at 129 North Catalina. In Hermosa he takes over the South Bay Chevrolet company on Pacific near Pier.

Headquarters Here He plans to operate his two major branches with the same attention to courtesy and service that has marked his business career in Torrance. Thompson, whose integrity has been

Mrs. Harriett Leech, local tourist and city treasurer, who has been confined at Torrance Memorial hospital since July 15, is reported greatly improved following an operation and she is expected to return to her home shortly.

Shirley Allen, aged seven, daughter of L. W. Allen of the Home Furniture Mart, was the first customer at the T. R. Munson Barber Shop that opened on El Prado avenue, last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Murrin and son Bobby have returned to their home in Sterling, Colorado, after visiting for the past two weeks with the former's sister Mrs. Elizabeth Hough of Park Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billini, 1304 Portola avenue, have as their house guest until August 30, the former's sister, Miss Mary Billini of Winsted, Conn.

UNION SERVICES IN AUGUST AT AUDITORIUM SCHEDULED

The Torrance Ministerial Union has made plans for the usual union meetings at the Civic Auditorium during the month of August and including the first Sunday of September which is normally related to Labor Day. The plan for the several participating churches and the date of the respective preachers and musical leadership is as follows:

Aug. 7—Rev. Harry G. Banks, pastor of the Methodist church, preacher; presiding chairman and music in charge of the Evangelical church;

Aug. 14—Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the Christian church, will preach; music and chairman of the service by the Baptist church.

Aug. 21—Rev. E. W. Matz, pastor of the Evangelical church, preacher; the music and leadership provided by the Christian church;

Aug. 28—Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor of the Baptist church, will preach; music and chairman from the St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

Sept. 4—Speaker has not been selected, but an effort is being made to provide an outstanding leadership; music and chairmanship provided by the Methodist church. Rev. Nichols of the Four Square church will assist in the song service and will co-operate in the general plans.
