Couple Will Make Home in El Centro

One of early Autumn's loveliest weddings was that in which Miss Vivian Knudsen became the bride of Charles W. Montague, Saturday afternoon, in St. Andrew's Episcopal church. Rev. Thomas R. Marshall read the service in the presence of more than 100 guests.

The bride was lovely in princess gown of white moire with circular train, her finger tip veil held in place with coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids, gardenias and lily-of-the-valley and was given in marriage by her father, Fred Knudsen.

Mrs. Rosemary Quarles, as matron of honor, was gown in powder blue net over taffeta and carried an arm bouquet of white larkspur, delphinium and rapture roses. Miss Emma Erickson, maid of honor, wore a gown of pale pink net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of rapture roses and pink sweetpeas. William Loftus served as best man for Montague.

Garden Reception
Mme. Teala Bellini played the wedding march and accompanied Lorene Ulrich who sang three numbers. Jack Harris and George Bradford served as ushers.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Gwendolyn Knudsen, was charming in

Blanche Lukes Becomes Mrs. Riley

Honeymooning at Lake Tahoe are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riley, nee Blanche Lukes, who were married at the home of Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter, 1311 218th street, last Friday morning.

For her wedding ensemble Mrs. Riley chose a blue tailored suit with Mandelay accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Mildred Lukes as her sister's only attendant wore a tailored suit of Mandelay with matching accessories and corsage of gardenias. Joe McNeil served as best man for Mr. Riley.

The newlyweds have a host of friends in this city. Both graduated from Torrance high school with the class of '32. Riley owns and operates the Tansey Barber shop and has for the past few years taken an active interest in civic affairs. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lukes, 1015 Portola avenue, and has for the past few years been employed in the offices of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company at Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley will be at home on Arlington avenue, after September 20.
