The words of the Psalmist: "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever the scepter of thy kingdom is a right scepter," constitute the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Reality" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

Among the Bible citations in the Lesson-Sermon are these verses from Luke: "And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, he beheld a man full of leprosy; who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man; but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him; and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities."

A passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, includes the statement: "The record of every name and nature be heard no more, and let the harmonious and true sense of Life and being take possession of human consciousness."

Herald Souvenir Edition Wins High Praise

10 cents each. They can be had either wrapped, ready for mailing, or flat.

The Herald has received many compliments on its souvenir edition. Typical of the letters sent Publisher Grover C. Whyte from fellow-publishers throughout the Southland is this one:

From Publisher Lewis T. Guild, Jr., of the Gardena Valley News: "Permit me to congratulate you upon your splendid special edition 'Torrance-On-the-Air.' The typography is excellent, the content most interesting and timely and all in all, the edition would be a credit to a city several times as large as Torrance. Every citizen of Torrance should feel proud of its splendid newspaper."

And from Harry Hammond Beall, prominent Los Angeles publicist: "Dear Grover—Just saw your magnificent KNX-CBS edition. My compliments to your city ed, also for the wonderful job he did. Kindest regards always—Harry H. Beall."

But newspaper men and women in other cities have not been the only ones to recognize the merits of the "Torrance-On-the-Air" edition. Hundreds of local residents have expressed their pleasure over the design of the issue, its coverage of the Torrance scene, its excellent pictures, its color pages and general appearance. Business and professional men, industrial executives, pastors, working men and women, educators and students—all have been most kind in their comments about The Herald's major publication efforts of its 24 years' existence.

This newspaper sincerely appreciates these compliments. It hopes that the souvenir edition will be a means of making Torrance better acquainted with itself, its resources, its people and their organizations, its unsurpassed facilities for home-life, education, church affiliation and general enjoyment of the many civic benefits here.

He said it had a black body and showed tremendous speed in swimming away from him as he approached. The monster usually appears between 6 and 7 o'clock each evening. Seals are unknown in
