Union Services to Continue Here On Sunday Evenings

"The Christian Church and World Democracy" will be discussed by Rev. Harry G. Banks at the Evangelical church, Sunday, Oct. 23, at 7:30 p. m. The choir of the home church will render a special anthem and another instrumental number will be given.

Last Sunday the message was given by Rev. Thomas Marshall, vicar of St. Andrew's Episcopal church. This concerned the historical background of the modern problems the church meets. There is a growing conviction among Christian world leaders that the practice of brotherhood among races will be the only solution to the restlessness in the world, he pointed out.

Co. Coordinators to Confer Oct. 25

What the Los Angeles County Coordinating Councils have done for the betterment of this community will be discussed at their seventh annual conference, Oct. 25, at the First Methodist Episcopal church in Los Angeles.

Home-Builder to Show South Seas Collection Here

Mrs. Grace Eberly of Torrance Heights, her subdivision in the Keystone district, has two hobbies. One is building homes on half-acre plots—her latest five-room ranch dwelling scheduled to be opened for public inspection at 653 214th street on Oct. 30—and the other is her South Sea Island collection.

Part of this interesting display will be on view during the Factory Frolic, Oct. 28 and 29, at 1601 Gramercy avenue where Fay L. Parks will present a Hobby Show. Mrs. Eberly's collection consists of several hundred tapa cloths, floor mats, baskets, fans, kava bowls and other Polynesian gear.

Bad Luck Strikes Twice SAN FRANCISCO (U.P.)—Louis Canonica, 58, leaving the hospital where he had recovered from a broken leg, stopped in front of an automobile and had both legs broken.

Council, which is currently sponsoring the first annual Factory Frolic here Oct. 28 and 29, will send delegates to the county conference.

OBITUARY

MRS. MINNIE L. DAVIS—beloved wife of William R. Davis of 3501 Torrance boulevard, succumbed Saturday at the Colburn Rest home at 2698 West Carson street following a lingering illness. The funeral service was held yesterday morning at Stone and Myers' mortuary with Rev. Frank T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. Interment was at Roosevelt Memorial park.

Mrs. Davis, who was 56 years of age, had lived here for 12 years. She was a native of Nebraska. In addition to her husband, she was survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Gibbons of San Pedro and Mrs. Edith Jones of Pensacola, Florida.

FRED ALDRIDGE, who died by his own hand Oct. 5 after slaying Mrs. Charlotte Lena Cowger in a car parked on Lomita boulevard near the Hydril plant, had no funeral service here. The body was prepared by Stone and Myers' mortuary for shipment to Johnson City, Tenn., and from there it will be taken by hearse to Boon, North Carolina where services will be held. J. R. Aldridge, a brother, accompanied the body to North Carolina where Aldridge's divorced wife and children reside.

ROBERT CURLER—brother of the late Al Curler of this city who passed away May 12, succumbed at his Montebello home Monday. A dairyman with a wife and daughter, Mr. Curler had many friends in this city. His death was due to a throat cancer, the same ailment which caused his brother's death here May 12. The funeral service was held today at El Monte. Mr. Curler is also survived by his father, who lives in Los Angeles and who recently suffered a broken hip in a fall, and his mother, who resides in San Francisco.

Newspapers First With Oldsmobile Dealers, Factory

The story of the three new Oldsmobile lines for 1939 will be carried to the motoring public largely through the advertising columns of American newspapers, according to V. C. Havens, advertising manager.

"We have booked a comprehensive advertising schedule of course in the key weekly and monthly magazines," Havens said, "but as in the past, we are placing our principal reliance for advertising coverage upon the daily and weekly newspapers."

"According to present plans, Oldsmobile advertising will appear in 3,300 American newspapers during the 1939 model year. This is approximately the same number of newspapers as was used by Oldsmobile during the 1938 model year just ended. We have given particular attention during the past six months to the selection of advertising media—taking into consideration both our own findings and those of our dealers. As a result, we have decided again on newspapers as the backbone of news dissemination in America today."
