Women of Moose to Hear Grand Regent Tonight

MRS. ADELE OUST knows her Mooseheart

Opal Williams, senior regent, has asked the Torrance Chapter No. 44 of the Women of the Moose to attend the meeting at Whittier Chapter tonight when Mrs. Adele Oust of Visalia, fourth Grand Regent of the College of Regents, will be guest of honor. Arrangements for transportation of the local group have been made.

Mrs. Oust holds an outstanding record of achievement in the Women of the Moose. She has visited Mooseheart, Ill., the "child city," eight times and is most enthusiastic over the opportunities granted children there.

The visiting official will speak on the work accomplished by the child research laboratory, sponsored and maintained by the Women of the Moose, and the new foods laboratory.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. MEETING MONDAY

Couple Will Make Home On Cabrillo

St. James' Catholic church in Redondo Beach furnished the setting for one of the season's loveliest weddings Saturday morning when Marie Jane Batsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Batsch of 1888 Plaza Del Amo, became the bride of Thomas Joseph Bezich of San Pedro. Rev. Mons. George Donahue conducted the nuptial mass in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in princess gown of ivory satin made with V neck, long-sleeved and circular train. Her long tulle veil was held with a halo trimmed in seed pearls and orange blossoms. She wore a cross of gold and carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids and cyclamen.

A long full skirted gown of raisin quilted taffeta with bolero and velvet halo to match was worn by the groom's sister, Joanne Bezich, who served as maid of honor. Miss Bezich carried an arm bouquet of cyclamen shading from pink to burgundy and bouvardia.

Fellerman Is Solist

Bridesmaids Mary Bezich, sister of the groom, and Katherine Karmelich wore full skirted long gown of Indes blue quilted taffeta with bolero and halo hats to match. They carried arm bouquets of cyclamen shading from pink to rose with bouvardia.

Joseph Lynch served as best man for Bezich. Charles Clever and Gerald Batsch were ushers. Miss Mary Scallen played the wedding march and accompanied Jess Fellerman who sang Gounod's "Ave Maria" and Franck's "Pavane Angelique."

The bride's mother was gowned in crushed wine satin with coat and hat to match. Her accessories were black and she wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

Motoring North

After the wedding a breakfast was served to members of the bridal party at the Batsch home where hundreds of lovely wedding gifts were on display. A buffet supper was served to 250 at the American Legion hall Sunday evening. At a separate table decorated in silver and white was a four tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom. This was cut by the bride.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Bezich left for a month's honeymoon, planning to motor as far north as Canada. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at 2413 Cabrillo avenue.

For her going away costume Mrs. Bezich chose a suit of dark green trimmed in red fox. Her accessories were in mandarin and she wore a corsage of white orchids. The groom's gift to his bride was a gray squirrel coat.

FERN AVENUE P.T.A. ACTIVITIES NOTED

The Parent-Teachers Association, sponsored by the Fern Avenue P.T.A., will meet next Monday in the teachers' room at 1 o'clock. Mesdames W. J. Bower, Irene Davis, L. W. Andrews, A. C. Turner, William Jolley and Howard R. Moore represented the unit at the 10th District meeting in Los Angeles last Thursday evening.

The executive board of the unit held a regular meeting last Wednesday. Mrs. Kendall's and Miss Mowry's rooms won the prizes in the recent membership drive. It was announced Mrs. C. W. Stevens and Mrs. Jolley were in charge of the hot dog and cup cake sale held at the school on "Play Day" last Wednesday.

MARY BLAIR WALLACE LECTURE TONIGHT

Mrs. Mary Blair Wallace, noted educator will speak this evening at 7:30 p. m. in the auditorium of San Pedro high school on the topic "Emotional Stability a Necessity."

Her lecture is sponsored by Parent Teacher groups of the Harbor area and tickets for the lecture may be purchased from local P.T.A. people.

A second lecture "Thinking Straight on Love and Marriage" will be presented Nov. 17.

MRS. BRADFORD FETED AT STORK SHOW

Mary Ann Taylor Bradford was guest of honor at one of the week's loveliest parties, when Olive Belle Schroeder entertained at the Schroeder home in Long Beach, with a stork shower last Wednesday.

Guests included Mesdames Frank Steinhilber, R. A. Huber, O. A. Kresse, Mildred McMullin Drury, Misses Martha Greaves, Bette Elliot, Shirley May Johnson and Mary Ann.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS BEZICH... honeymoon tour extending to Canada

PATSY MCCALL HOSTESS AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Patsy McCall, diminutive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCall, 2114 Arlington avenue, celebrated her "seventh birthday" by inviting a number of playmates to her home to share the happy occasion.

Games furnished plenty of fun after which party refreshments were served to Ann Gallimore, Juanita Ritchie, Joan Summers, Betty Lou Summers, Nancy Ann Whyte, Nell Hocott, JoAnn Theinhouse, Marlene Quaglin, Elyone Thomas, Patsy and Nancy Jessum, Patricia Findley, Shirley and Lois Severns, Little Tomiko and Patsy.

P.T.A. PEOPLE ATTEND DISTRICT MEET

"Why Dads" was the topic of the panel discussion given at the night meeting of Tenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers held in Virgil Junior high school, Los Angeles, last Thursday evening. At a separate table decorated in silver and white was a four tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom. This was cut by the bride.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Bezich left for a month's honeymoon, planning to motor as far north as Canada. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at 2413 Cabrillo avenue.

For her going away costume Mrs. Bezich chose a suit of dark green trimmed in red fox. Her accessories were in mandarin and she wore a corsage of white orchids. The groom's gift to his bride was a gray squirrel coat.

IDLERS HOLD ANNUAL PARTY

"The Idlers" held their annual party Friday evening at the Little Bit of Sweden in Los Angeles. Later they attended the theatre. Included were Mesdames Fulke and Trull of Los Angeles, Mitchell, C. W. Andrews, Leonard of Redondo Beach, Mrs. Martin of Culver City, Mesdames Allen, Diesel, Law, Warburton, Mosher and Sandstrom of Torrance.

EASTERNERS FETED AT DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Speheger, 1807 Portola avenue, entertained at dinner in their home Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Riethmiller and Charles Riethmiller of Erie, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Vorhe and Mr. Aldis Fritz of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Riethmiller, Mrs. Vorhe and Mr. Fritz are cousins of Mr. Speheger.

MARTHA GREAVES TO WED NOV. 17

November 15 is the date chosen by Martha Greaves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Greaves of Redondo Beach, for her wedding to Harry Payne of Hermosa Beach. The Greaves are former residents of this city.

LOMITA-SAN PEDRO COUNCIL NOV. 17

Due to Thanksgiving holiday the regular meeting of Lomita-San Pedro Council P.T.A. will be held one week earlier on Nov. 17 at the Leland Street school in San Pedro. Book week will be observed.

HOEVERS HOSTS AT EVENING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoover, 1424 Acacia avenue, entertained in their home Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ives of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pinkerton of Redondo Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDonald of Hawthorne.

Bride-Elect Feted at Novel Shower Friday

Balloons hung from the ceiling of the McCormack home at 1928 Andro avenue furnished instructions for the bride-elect, Edith Riley to proceed with a treasure hunt at the party given in her honor last Friday evening. Hostesses were Norma McCormack, Veronica McNeil Pepper and Lorraine Stone.

As each balloon was broken a note fell to the floor and revealed the hiding place of a gift. These Miss Riley was obliged to bring to the center of the living room and open.

Miss Riley, whose wedding to Carl Quayle will occur Nov. 23 was kept busy most of the evening opening packages and saying thank-yous to Mrs. Dale Riley, Mrs. Effie Quayle, Mrs. D. A. McCormack, Ethel Derouin, Mildred Lucas, Blanche Riley, Fay Marshall, Mary Haig, Dorothy Columbus, Betty Stephenson, Bette, Elliott, Julia Quayle, and the hostesses, all of Torrance, Dorothy Fortner, Bonnie Hurst and Louise Chapin of Los Angeles.

Miss Marion Crittenden, teacher in the Elementary school, gave a talk on her recent visit thru Norway, Sweden, France, England and Scotland.

Miss Mary Nady was elected to club membership. Plans for the dinner meeting to be held November 21 in McDonald hall, 1951 Carson street, were completed. Julia McManus is chairman for the dinner-meeting.

ATTEND COUNCIL MEETING MONDAY

Mrs. J. O. Bishop, Mrs. Paul Watson, Mrs. Wm. Ross and Mrs. Charles Woodcock represented Torrance high school P.T.A. at the meeting of Gateway Council held in Gardena, Monday.

Woman Attorney Talks to Kiwanians

Miss Mildred Gilmore, attorney and former county probation officer, gave an exceptionally interesting talk on the operation of the Juvenile court and probation work at the dinner-meeting of the Kiwanis club Monday night. She was presented by City Attorney John E. McCall. Miss Gilmore was accompanied to the meeting by Miss Jessie Torrance (no kin to the family of Jared Sidney Torrance, founder of this city), who is also an attorney in Los Angeles.

CHANGE IN TRADITIONS

Monday apparently is losing its place as the traditional wash day. Many women find it more convenient to gather and sort clothes on Monday and wash on Tuesday.

EASIER WHIPPING

Lemon juice added to cream makes it easier to whip. Use a half-teaspoonful of lemon juice to a pint of cream.

MOTHERS CLUB MEETS AT SPEHEGER HOME

Mrs. Henry Wertalla and Mrs. Fred Speheger were co-hostesses Monday, when they entertained members of Job's Daughters Mothers club at the latter's home, 1307 Portola avenue.

Plans for the annual bazaar and apron sale to be held in Central Evangelical Guild hall December 2 were completed.

GUILD MEETING WEDNESDAY

St. Cecilia Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church held their regular business meeting in the guild hall Wednesday. A picnic luncheon was enjoyed by 20. Plans for serving a dinner Nov. 21 were discussed as were plans for serving tea at the Harriett Leech annual birthday party.
