Students Symposium and Play Feature Interesting Session

Students presented an interesting and varied program at the meeting of Torrance high school Parent Teachers Association in the high school music room on Tuesday attended by 75 members, teachers and friends. A symposium in which Joan Tschickill as chairman outlined the program of better understanding between student and instructor was presented with the following speakers: Agnes Sopchinsky, "Fair Play"; Jeanyne Barkdull, "Clubs and Extra-Curricular Activities"; and Shirley Guitendler on "Vocational Guidance."

A Spanish play, "La Camisiera de Rodriguez," presented under the direction of Mrs. Mable Boynton was presented by the following cast of characters: Donald Hitchcock, Richard Miller, O. B. Huber, Fred Lincoln, Charles Marek, Ruth Norman, Patty Post, Agnes Sopchinsky, Marian Speigler and Georgina Tiffany.

Clyde Anderson gave a brief review of the play in English and presented the players. Robert Mowry and Howard Locke served as stage hands. Florence Carter Haffner, music instructor, presented members of the Treble Clef club in a group of numbers announced by Barbara Woodcock, president of the club.

Authority to Speak Dec. 9
 Principal Thomas H. Elson announced a tubercular test to be made at the school during the month and advised parents in this regard. He asked their cooperation but stated "it is not compulsory for students to take the test."

Miss Elizabeth Parks, vice-principal and girls' counselor, announced a girls' play at the high school Dec. 9, with Mary Blair Wallace, noted authority on human relations, as speaker. Adults wishing to attend this lecture may secure tickets from members of the high school P. T. A.

Mrs. C. E. Carstens, accompanied at the piano by George Laddick, sang two numbers. Mrs. Charles Woodcock presided at the meeting. A report on membership showed that 121 members have enrolled to date.

O.E.S. MEETS THIS EVENING
 Regular meeting of Torrance chapter Order of Eastern Star will be held in the Masonic temple this evening. Following the meeting a party will be given in the banquet hall with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mosher as hosts.

Martha Greaves Changes Name to Mrs. Harry Payne

St. James Catholic church, at Redondo Beach, furnished the setting for one of the season's loveliest weddings last Saturday morning, when Martha Louise Greaves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Greaves of Redondo Beach, became the bride of Harry Edward Payne, son of Mrs. Lydia Payne of Hermosa Beach. Rev. Father Thomas Kennedy of Belmont Shore officiated.

The bride lovely in princess gown of slipper satin trimmed in rose point lace, was given in marriage by her father. She wore the conventional long veil of illusion tulle held with halo of seed pearls and carried a white prayer book in which rested a single quail and sprays of lily-of-the-valley.

Mary Frances Greaves, sister of the bride as matron of honor, gown in long dress of aquamarine French marquisette with salmon pink trim. Hat and sandals were of salmon pink and she carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses. Dismittive Virginia Benzinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Benzinger of Hermosa Beach, served as flower girl. David Shattuck of Hermosa Beach, served as best man for Mr. Payne.

Lloyd Payne, Robert Nichols, Walter Shell and Louis Benzinger served as ushers.

During the ceremony Raymond Chase sang "Ave Maria" and "Sanctus Angelus." He was accompanied by Mrs. John Murray of this city, who also played the wedding march. The children's choir of St. James church, of which the bride's sister Patty is a member, accompanied by Father Buechner sang several selections.

Immediately following the wedding breakfast was served to the bride party at the home of the bride's parents 500 South Camino Real, after which the young couple left by train for Flint, Michigan.

For her going away costume the bride chose a tailored suit with long fitted coat with black pony collar and wineberry accessories. Mrs. Payne is a graduate of the local high school. Mr. Payne is a graduate of Redondo Beach Union high school. He later attended University of California at Los Angeles. He is connected with Technicolor Studios in Hollywood.

MRS. RITCHIE HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY
 Honoring Mrs. Mollie Ritchie, who leaves shortly with her daughter, Juanita, on an extended trip to Florida, Mrs. James Corbett, 1755 Arlington avenue, entertained at a party in the Corbett home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Ritchie was presented with a lovely purse. Guests included Rose J. Gallimore, Constance McCall, Clara McCormack, Lola Hoover, Della Page, Blanche McVicar, Mrs. J. S. S. Lescalle, the hostess and honoree.

NEWLYWEDS HONORED AT CAN SHOWER
 Mr. and Mrs. George White of Westwood Hills honored Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merle Coulson Tuesday evening with a dessert "can shower." The "cans" were minus their labels so that it will be much harder for the bride of three weeks to plan her meals. One thing, she can count on beans!

The guests bringing donations included Messrs. and Mrs. Rodney Jackson Graham, Anthony L. Blon, John Baner, Robert Dutton, Miss Thelma McAuliffe, Messrs. John W. Egan and Anthony Allen.
