

Tartars-Pirates Repeat 1937 Deadlock; Local Line Work is Most Impressive

COACH BARR'S EFFORTS GIVE TORRANCE CHANCE AT TITLE

MARINE TITLE ALL BALLED UP IN KNOT

Despite a 19 to 0 kicking at the hands of the Banning Pilots last Thursday, Gardena still rests at the top of the Marine League standings and a victory over Coach Bill Sloan's Narbonne Gauchos tomorrow will give the title to the Mohicans. However (now take this easy), if Narbonne wins and Banning beats San Pedro, then Torrance, Narbonne and Banning will wind up in a three-way tie for the title. Or, if Narbonne wins and Banning loses, then Torrance and Narbonne will be tied for the championship. It's all very involved.

Ripping into San Pedro's Pirates with the same power that contributed to Narbonne's defeat six days previous, the Torrance Tartars proved a threat all last Thursday afternoon but had to be content with a scoreless tie at San Pedro's Navy Field. Last year the same pointless deadlock was played. Torrance won the 1936 game 7 to 0.

The Pirates, minus their star back Bannish, who was on the sidelines with an injured shoulder, were in command of the game most of the time but were unable to punch over scores when the Tartar line put on two stonewall exhibitions in the fourth quarter. That line's work was outstanding and the pictures of All-Marine berths cannot fail to take note of the splendid work of Ray Richhart at center, the Grubb brothers, Snyder and Rossi at the wings, Frank Carr and John Gansley at tackle.

Altho the Pirates ran up five of their seven downs on the opening half, they could not penetrate beyond the Torrance 20-yard stripe and then the Tartars would punt out of danger. Early in the last period, San Pedro set the Tartars back to their own 12-yard line and then Kenny Perkins' kick slid off his foot in the return. San Pedro took the ball on the Torrance 25-yard line.

Best Back in League

This was the Pirates' first real scoring opportunity but the Torrance line dug in and finally held on their 14-yard marker. A few seconds later and San Pedro was back again but the Tartar forward wall again buckled down and repelled the attack on its own 10-yard line.

Marvin Goettsch made a number of his spectacular end runs and in the second quarter was off to the Pedro goal line when he was knocked out of bounds. Kenny Pufkopf was a thorn in the Pirates' collective sides all afternoon and with Akkie Shimizu contributed some nice gains deep into Pedro territory.

Unless the 13-year eligibility rule is amended, the game at San Pedro was Goettsch's last in high school. He is a junior and if the age limit is returned to its previous 20 years, he would get another year of playing in 1939. Fast, elusive and possessed of a knowledge of open field running that makes his dashes look like a jackrabbit hot-footing it for cover, Goettsch is the best halfback in the Marine League.

Credit to Coach Barr

Kenny Perkins' kicks were effective in the game and he averaged better than 35 yards per boot. Torrance wound up its Marine League schedule with the Pedro game, finishing with two wins, one loss and a tie. As result of Gardena's lazing by Banning, the Tartars stand better than an even chance of getting a share of the league title.

Most of the credit for the local team's showing this year must go to Coach Robert Barr. A veteran of the U.C.L.A. line, Barr drilled his squad all year on the prime fundamentals of blocking with the result that Torrance fans saw the finest forward wall in the history of the school every minute of the four league games played. Next year, under Barr's tutelage, the Tartars should be the "big threat" in the Marine division.

The opening lineups for the Pedro game were:

San Pedro (6) Burns, LG Snyder, Providence, LG Carr, Taylor, LG G. Grubb, Smith, C Richhart, DiMeglio, RG Smith, Glickson, RE Gansley, Onstott, RE Rose, Pavlov, Q Perkins, Mardesich, LH Goettsch, Crockery, RH Pufkopf, Nakagawa, P Shimizu.

Torrance substitutions: Trevis, Figueroa, Peckham, Gilbert and Smith; San Pedro substitutions: Traylor, Rippe, Musso, Roberts and Planisch.

Sons of Legion Elect Barkdull

Because he found he needed to give more time to his school work, Gerald Grubb resigned this week as captain of the Sons of Legion and was succeeded by Dean Barkdull, who was acting as first lieutenant of the group. Young Grubb will take the lieutenantcy post.

Banning Upsets Gardena 19-0

Banning high school's Pilots, trimmed 7 to 0 by Torrance and Gardena, 19 to 0 by Narbonne, rose up and in the biggest upset of the Marine League season to date, whipped the unbeaten, untied Gardena, Mohicans, 19 to 0 at Gardena last Thursday afternoon.

The Banning victory tossed the league standings into an upheaval at that may result in a three-way tie for the championship—with Torrance holding one of the strings to the title. Gardena's powerful offense stopped cold in the second half by a dazzling attack that resulted in two touchdowns in the third period and another in the last quarter.

Banning and San Pedro are clashing tomorrow afternoon at San Pedro's Navy Field in one of the final games. Gardena and Narbonne will end their seasons by clashing on the Gardena field. Torrance has drawn a bye in the league schedule for this weekend.

Pirate Pee-Wees Crush Torrance Class Bees 67-0

Scoring their third straight win of the season by defeating the Torrance lightweights 67 to 0 last week, the San Pedro Class B grid squad is playing the Banning Bees this afternoon for the Marine League championship. Torrance, with only a few reserves, offered little competition to the Pee-Wee Pirates. The San Pedrans scored their first touchdown in the first 20 seconds of play.

Putting over two touchdowns in the second period, the Banning Class B team defeated Gardena's lights 13 to 0 at Gardena. The win was the third straight victory for the Bannings and put them on an even basis with the San Pedro Bees for the title tilt.

Claymen Beat City Ball Club

One of the worst beatings ever administered to the Torrance-Lomita Merchants was delivered Sunday afternoon by the Pacific Clay Products nine to the lot of 10 to 3. The game was a tournament tilt played at the city park diamond.

Willis started on the mound for the T-L squad but was relieved in the sixth by Riley Hamilton after giving up four runs and six hits. Hamilton was nicked for six runs and nine more hits. Homer Cheek and Ralph Mann shared hitting honors for the local team, each getting a double and a single.

Manager Walt Morris announced that the T-L club will take up the Sunset Gas nine at the city park next Sunday afternoon.

Merchants Lose Armistice Game

With only four of the regulars out for the special game, Torrance-Lomita Merchants were defeated by the Teamsters' baseball team, 3 to 2, at the city park diamond on Armistice Day. Ambrose Palica allowed the Merchants but five scattered hits during the well-played contest.

By spacing the bingles, Palica was never in danger and after his mates spotted him to a one-run lead, hurried airtight ball to hold it.

Luffy McConn and Riley Hamilton divided the pitching for the local squad.

Torrance Eleven Will Play in Coliseum Grid Carnival Nov. 23

Because of their splendid showing on Marine League gridiron this season, the Torrance high school Tartars have been invited to participate in the sixth annual P.T.A. Football Carnival in the Los Angeles Coliseum Wednesday, Nov. 23. The Tartar team will be one of the 12 representative high school elevens, the cream of the Los Angeles city high school leagues, to perform in the big bowl.

Torrance will be among the "Southern" squads which will play "Northern" teams. There will be six teams in each division and six 20-minute periods will be played, with no time out, assuring spectators of fast and continuous play. Coach Robert Barr of the local eleven has been trying to find out what team will be the Tartars' opponents but he has been unable to get this information so far.

Barr also attempted to obtain a practice game for his eleven for tomorrow afternoon but all teams were booked up for that day. The winner of Gardena-Narbonne game tomorrow will also be invited to participate in the Grid Carnival.

Other "Southern" teams invited are Fremont, Jordan, Roosevelt, and the winner of the Manual Arts-Jefferson game tomorrow. The "Northern" division will be composed of Franklin, Los Angeles, Fairfax, Eagle Rock, Jacob Rills and the winner of the North Hollywood-San Fernando game this week.

Casaba Schedule Starts Dec. 2

With a squad of 11 players to develop into a Class A team, Coach Pete Zamperini is now concentrating on building a fast, tricky basketball quintet to enter the Marine League contests which start Dec. 2. The new basketball mentor is also working on a Class B team, but is hampered because of an even smaller turnout of players. Only eight boys have appeared regularly for practice.

Zamperini said this week that he will probably combine his Class C and D casaba material into a Class C group that will free-lance for games in December and January. No boy who has been out for football can play on the basketball team, according to league ruling.

The first Marine League game will be played at Banning. Then the schedule will continue in this order: Dec. 9—Narbonne at Torrance; Dec. 16—San Pedro at Torrance; Dec. 20—El Segundo at Gardena; Jan. 10—Gardena at Gardena; Jan. 13—Banning at Torrance; Jan. 17—Narbonne at Narbonne; Jan. 24—San Pedro at San Pedro; Jan. 24—El Segundo at Torrance; and Jan. 27—Gardena at Torrance.

Race Discrimination At Race Track Is Basis of Suit

Whether members of the negro race may be excluded from clubhouses at horse racing tracks is expected to be decided in a suit soon to go on trial in Los Angeles county superior court. The Hollywood Turf Club of Inglewood is being sued by a total of $5,000 damages by Rupert H. Lucas, negro employee of the postoffice department, because he was refused admission to the clubhouse, regarded as the exclusive section of the plant.

Nov. 23 has been set for pre-trial of the suit. Lucas stated he was invited to be a guest by a radio commentator, as he was adjudged the winner of tickets in letter-writing contest on the subject of the scheduled race between Dauber and Lawrin, which was not run. Lucas was admitted to the grandstand, however, he admits.
