

Benj. W. Johnson Speaker at Club Meeting Monday

Benjamin W. Johnson, principal of Frank Wiggins Trade school, speaker at the meeting of National Business and Professional Women held in McDonald hall, 1881 Carson street, Monday evening, gave a brief history of the school, cited the training it had to offer to women and told of interesting personalities who had received special assistance from the school.

Mr. Johnson stated that 3,450 students were placed in gainful employment during the past year for which the Frank Wiggins Trade school had prepared them. The trade school is a free institution being a part of the Los Angeles school district. The slogan of the school is "Give Light and the people will find their way."

Table decorations for the dinner were turkeys made of pine cones, pine cleaners and colored papers and were placed in rows at table ends. The floral centerpiece was of gold and brown chrysanthemums. Plurim men and women served as favors.

Bettina Miller, president of the club returned unexpectedly from an eastern vacation and conducted the meeting.

Hostesses for the evening were Dorothy Kenyon, Dolly Hoxie and Julia McManus.

FATHERS MEETING HELD AT ELEMENTARY P.T.A.

Torrance Elementary Auditorium was filled to capacity Tuesday evening, when the Elementary Parent Teachers Association held their annual Father's meeting.

Paul F. Shaffer gave a stirring address on the subject "Democracy in Our Schools." Louis Mills, member of the school faculty, was in charge of the student program. Numbers by the school orchestra were well received as were songs by the girls and boys glee club.

Mrs. Harold Smith presided at the meeting. Merle Helbach, principal of the school, welcomed the parents and urged their support at the school carnival to be held on the first floor of the school building Friday, December 9.
