SWEATER SUSPENSE... Since last week's column, I've had many conflicting statements from the Senior Bees about their sweaters. It was rumored that they were to have dubonnet and white, but all of them are "quite secretive about it. Up to the present, all of the colors of the rainbow are said to be official. One student said that he was in favor of a polka dot sweater to match his freckles.

COLLEGE TALKS... Tuesday and Wednesday the Vocational Guidance committee presented and calls which were attended by all Seniors who plan to go to college. The first speaker was Mr. Martin of Compton, J. C., who spoke on "Who Should Go to College?" On Wednesday the assembly was addressed by Miss Esterly of Scripps College, who spoke on privileges and opportunities of going to college.

SHOWING COLORS... This week is Color Week at Torrance high school. All of the students and teachers are wearing red and gray pennants to remind everyone that Torrance plays Rile here tomorrow (Friday) in the playoffs. OLD-AGE AID TOTALS
Los Angeles county had 50,459 individuals receiving old age assistance during the month of October for an average of $32.39 each.

ing on between merchants & city, etc. which as yet has produced no decorations of any kind, nor is it to do so. Coming in for a hearty back slap is Oscar Butterfield, city electrical inspector, whose job it has been to string up the Christmas lights, buy new globes, see that all is in working condition. A fine job Oscar has done of this and his red & green light standard covers (new this year) are mighty nice looking, though they do cut out considerable illumination.

The council and Chamber, too, deserve congrats for the manner in which they have cooperated in the matter of dough for these lights.

All in all our decorations are as good or better than those to be found in ANY town. Contrasts, too, to Gaston Arcey and George Frohman of the Merchant's Assn. for the light stand and decorations. They add considerably to the whole.

FASHION PREVIEWS

YOU must be as pretty as a picture this season and by being the daguerreotype of 1890, you prove yourself a young modern, extremely knowing, of 1938. As Victorian as a tuffed sofa, a potted palm, a flowered carpet are these evening dresses for your holiday party from the December Pictorial Review. You sweep your hair up in an innocent cascade of curls and catch it coyly with a ribbon, a plume, a flower. You wear spangly bracelets, long gloves—and hoors! Your dress is midge at the waist, giant at the hem—graceful, feminine, demure.
