CHINESE ART EXHIBIT AT PALOS VERDES

The Palos Verdes Community Arts association has been most fortunate in securing a real "score" for its members and friends. A most comprehensive historic collection of early Chinese art is to be shown from Dec. 4 to Dec. 9 inclusive, at the Palos Verdes Library and Art Gallery. These paintings range from the 15th through the 18th centuries, and are representative examples of Ancestral portraits, landscapes, birds, and flowers.

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 4, the opening day, at 3 o'clock, in addition to the exhibition, Dr. Han Yu Shan, owner of this remarkable collection, will give a lecture on Chinese art in general and will explain these paintings in particular. Tickets for the lecture may be had through the association, or may be purchased at the door on Sunday afternoon. Tea will be served, and an opportunity will be given to meet and talk with Dr. Han.

During the week, Monday thru Friday, the gallery will be open from 2 to 6 in the afternoon. A member of the Art association will be there to greet visitors and explain some of the intricacies of the paintings. There will be no charge.

LOCAL WOMEN ATTEND P.T.A. DISTRICT MEET

"A Christmas Message to Parents and Teachers" was the subject of the outstanding talk given by Dr. James K. Fife Jr., pastor of First Congregational church of Los Angeles at the Tenth District P.T.A. meeting held in Foshay Junior high school, Los Angeles this morning.

Mrs. B. T. Sheppard, district music chairman, presented the combined chorus of Mother Singers of Tenth District in a Christmas anthem "Bethlehem" which was composed by Mrs. Dan Bowker, a past president of Tenth District.

A religious pageant "Shadows of the Manger," presented by boys and girls of Foshay Junior high school, closed the meeting and left a definite Christmas spiritual message with all present. The glee clubs and orchestra of Foshay Junior high provided the musical background for the play.

Attending from local Parent Teacher Associations were Mrs. Chas. Woodcock and Mrs. A. M. Dowell of the high school. Mrs. Harold Smith, W. H. Tolson and Marcus Edwards of Elementary, Mrs. W. J. Bowers, A. C. Turner, L. W. Andrews, John Garner, Irene Davis and Wm. Jolley of Fern Avenue.

VOYS TAKEN BY LOMITA COUPLE

As a surprise conclusion to the evening service at the Calvary Evangelistic church in Lomita Sunday night, marriage vows were taken by Zana Fern Hayes and Everett Brooks of Lomita. Rev. Harold L. Adams, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hayes of 24704 Oak street, was dressed in teal blue sports costume and was attended by Rosa Hobbs, Brook, son of Mrs. Cora Cavens of Missouri, had Billy Bucher as his best man. Following a honeymoon trip to San Diego, the couple expect to make their home in Lomita where Brooks is employed with an oil company.

Sallie West Becomes Matron, Ray Hoover, Patron of Order

Sallie West assumed the duties of the worthy matron of Torrance chapter Order of Eastern Star and Ray Hoover took over the duties as worthy patron at the open installation meeting held in the Masonic temple Saturday evening before an assembly of 200 persons.

Mrs. Lillian Dye, past matron of the Torrance chapter, assisted by Wallace W. West, past patron, installed the officers in impressive ceremony using as the installation theme: "The Garden of Life." As each officer was seated she was likened to some tree or flower in the garden, when all were seated a tree was formed. Lorene Ulrich and Edna Babcock, accompanied by Kathryn Buffington, sang "In the Garden."

Other officers installed at this session included Theresa Hill, associate matron; Frank Brown, associate patron; Rose Arnold, Winters, secretary; Jennie Moore, treasurer; Lola Hoover, conductress; Helen Miller, associate conductress; Alice Ruppel, chaplain; Lois Babcock, marshal; May McKinley, organist; Mary Krekow, warder; Anna Schriver, sentinel; Rose Lee Morgan, Adah; Bertha Ainsworth, Ruth; Naomi Brown, Esther; Nettie Babcock, Martha; Elizabeth Brod, Electa, and Allie Bush, flag-bearer.

Glen Babcock, past patron of the chapter, acted as master of ceremonies, Frances Buckley as installing marshal, Carrie Parks, honorary marshal; Estelle Graham, installing chaplain, and Alvine Ulman was installing organist. The Holy Bible was presented by Janet Woodington. Wallace West Jr. presented the American flag and led in the pledge of allegiance, Rev. Frank T. Porter offered the opening prayer and Lorene Ulrich was soloist.

A reception for new officers was held in the banquet hall.

NOTED SPEAKER ON CLUB PROGRAM

Dr. William Ashe-Everest, noted Egyptologist will be presented as speaker at the meeting of Torrance Woman's club Wednesday, Dec. 7. Dr. Everest promises to be the outstanding club speaker of the year. He has made an exhaustive study of Egyptian hieroglyphics, has degrees from three universities, has lived in 16 countries and speaks nine languages, among them the original Hebrew. Dr. Everest will lecture on "The Great Pyramid of Gizeh."

As this is the annual pre-Christmas luncheon turkey and all the fixin's will be served according to chairman, Mrs. C. M. Johnson. Each member is requested to bring a 25-cent gift. These will be exchanged as a part of the after-luncheon program. For reservations, phone 284-W.
