Noted Beauty Advisor to Tell Charm Secrets for Housewives

An unusual treat is in store for members of the Torrance Woman's club when they gather for their first meeting of the New Year. Mrs. Charles Schultz, first vice-president and program chairman, will present Miss Sheila Shenley and her "Glamour Council" at the meeting in the clubhouse 1422 Engracia avenue, Wednesday, Jan. 4.

Miss Shenley brings advice on her subject direct from motion picture stars who have been transformed from usual to unusual personalities. Miss Shirley assists busy women, who devote 90 percent of their time serving their families.

This advice is such that it may be incorporated into the daily routine of every housewife so that she may attain a beauty comparable to the loveliest women on stage or screen.

Miss Shenley is a magazine and newspaper feature writer, having for some time supplied motion picture fashions to a New York newspaper syndicate. Recently on a nationwide tour Miss Shenley presented her "Glamour in Hollywood" program before a great many leading clubs throughout the United States.

In Chicago she received much acclaim and was requested to appear as a guest artist on radio programs where she was announced as "Hollywood's outstanding authority on the art of beautification, who pauses on her way thru Chicago to describe the motion picture technique of transforming ugly ducklings into stars."

Irene Wilkes Bride of Albert Dumont Christmas Eve

Miss Irene Wilkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wilkes and Albert M. Dumont of the U. S. S. Arizona were married Saturday evening in the home of Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter, 1211 218th street. Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter read the single ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride wore a dress of teal blue crepe for her wedding gown and corsage of purple orchids. Miss Marjorie Warthan served as her only attendant. Paul Drury served as best man for the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 2717 Carson street.

Mrs. Dumont graduated from the local high school with the Summer class of '38 and is at present employed in the Torrance Paint Store.

Dumont is the son of Mrs. C. Dumont, 2781 Arlington avenue, was graduated from the local high school with the Summer class of '32 and will be released from service on the U.S.S. Arizona in early May.

MRS. CARLSON GIVEN SURPRISE

A birthday surprise party was given recently for Mrs. Anna Carlson, at the home of Mrs. C. Ericson, at 1920 Andros.

Coming as a complete surprise, ladies of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid wished Mrs. Carlson many years of health and happiness as they showered her with many beautiful gifts. Asked to blow out the candles on the birthday cake which one of the ladies had made, Mrs. Carlson extinguished them all, her wish being for the continued success of the society.

Among those present were, Mesdames Letts, Conner, Fritz, Benzell, Bay, Gensler, Dobrick, Kerber, Meehling, Smith, Hoskings, Miller, Anderson, Quigley, Norman, Hedlund, Schwartz, Murray, Watson, Milburn, Wilson and Lovelady.

N.B.P.W. TO MEET

Mrs. Bettina Miller will open her home, 1217 Cota avenue, to members of the National Business and Professional Women for their first meeting of the year Tuesday evening, January 3. Important business to be taken up at this session includes selection of a meeting place for the year.

ROGERS HOSTS AT HOLIDAY DINNER

All fireflies are beetles.

THREE HOMES WIN PRIZES

Instead of two winners in the 1938 outdoor Christmas decoration and illumination contest sponsored by the National Business and Professional Women of this city there were three, each receiving $5 in cash.

The judges—Mesdames Margaret Gutfenfelder, Gertrude Ralston and Lillian Barrington—decided that Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bartlett of 1618 Anapola and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Styles of Cota and Sonoma were tied for first place and so divided the $10 award. Second place and $5 went to Mrs. Helen Miller of 1317 Beach street.

Only a very few entrants participated in the contest, thus making the judges work over-tired in arriving at their decisions. The Bartletts won the 1937 contest.

Townsend Club Activities

By Mrs. Beth Paige

Our Christmas party last week proved most enjoyable. Although many other club activities drew on our attendance, we had a very full audience. The hall decorations and tree and holly-decorated tables gratified the eye; the solos, choruses and quartets of Christmas music gratified the ear and many and mysterious packages were passed out which gratified a lot of curiosity. Refreshments were

Our thanks go to Mrs. Joyce, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Rose King for their kindness and help on the music. Fred Wagner made a lengthy talk about the changes we are to look forward to. He also invited our club to "761 South Vermont for the 'Watch Party' Saturday night.

There is to be a surprise party on the Wagners tonight at 761 South Vermont whose wedding anniversary is this date.
