

Club Group Wants Representation for Women on City Planning Commission

Glamour Tips Given Clubwomen by Movie Stylist

Perfect posture and correct breathing are nature's keys to eternal youth, according to Sheila Shelnley, Hollywood glamour girl, who spoke at Torrance Woman's club Wednesday. She gave Torrance women enough tips on how to be beautiful to fill several books and doubtless many of those attending the session will practice the wiles ere long.

To husbands let me say: Should you find your wife requires an extra hour or so to get dressed for a party, be patient—she is only following advice gleaned from a glamour expert who has conversed with many of the screen's most noted women.

Women who heard the lecture will practice walking the straight line, will exercise at every house hold task, will cultivate a pleasing voice and so study their personalities that they will become compelling influences — if they practice what they absorbed in the Woman's clubhouse.

On the art of makeup, Mrs. Shelnley advised women to study themselves. Lips and eyes are most important for the tell-tale of advancing age. Her advice is "do not pluck your eyebrows" and "if you have no pencil them on; use false eyelashes if necessary and do not paint luscious lips.

"Study your hairline and display it whenever possible. If the new hair styles are not flattering — forget them. Don't pattern after anyone else but be yourself, make the most of what Nature has given you. Then you will be glamorous and what you wish is yours to take."

Mrs. Charles Schultz, first vice president of the club introduced the speaker.

MRS. WILKES HOSTESS AT DINNER PARTY

One of the week's loveliest parties was that given Tuesday evening at the J. R. Wilkes home, 2019 Gramercy avenue, when Mrs. Wilkes entertained at dinner for 14.

Covers were placed for Misses. Hallie Doan, Daisy Watson, Alice Thompson, Gertrude Talston, Lucille Lewellen, Marie Martellier, Alma Smith, Agnes Babbitt, Roxie Sleeth, Ella Robinson, Bess Myers, Elida Barkdull, Maxine Smith and the hostess.

Writes Mayor That One-Third of New Body Should be Women

National Business and Professional Women of Torrance will start their campaign for equal rights for women at home according to Bettina Miller, president of the local club.

At a meeting of the club held Tuesday evening in the Miller home at 1217 Cota avenue, the club instructed the corresponding secretary to write a letter to Mayor William H. Tolson expressing the opinion of the group that one-third of the members of the new planning commission should be women.

The commission, appointed by the mayor several weeks ago, is composed of nine local men. National Business and Professional Women throughout the country are strongly organized in an effort to have the rights amendment to the United States constitution passed at this session of Congress. The California delegation is headed by Sue hold task, state legislature chairman, and is backed by Anne Leidendecker, state president.

Plans for the International Relations dinner meeting to be held Tuesday, Jan. 17, were completed. Ada Chase as general chairman will have as her co-workers Flora McDonald and Lloy Maupin.

Mrs. Margaret O'Toole was elected as a member of the club at Tuesday's meeting.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE ACTIVITIES REPORTED
The first meeting of 1939 in the new quarters at the Moose hall, 1501 Carson street, will be held by Torrance chapter, No. 44, Women of the Moose, Friday night, Jan. 6, at 8 o'clock. Members have been requested by Opal Williams, senior regent, to remember their "Moose Pals."

At a recent meeting of the Homemaking and Mooseheart committees it was decided to hold joint sessions on the third Thursday of each month, the next meeting to be at 1442 21st street, Thursday, Jan. 19, at 10 a. m. Annie Woodhouse and Anna Wilkens, committee chairmen, will be in charge.

Mrs. Nellie Sutton, who was chosen chairman of the new Library committee, reports new books have been sent Mooseheart and magazines and used books have been given several local institutions. Articles of clothing and baskets of food were given several needy families at Christmas time by the Social Service committee, Katherine Gossiaux, chairman.

Plans are being completed for a card party to be held in the Moose hall Friday night, Jan. 27. Bridge, pinocle, 500 and baby will be played.

Senior Regent Opal Williams and the entire chapter express their sincere appreciation of the cooperation shown by Torrance business people and the public in general in making all the chapter's undertakings in 1938 so successful.
