

OPTOMETRIST SAYS AVERAGE MAN HATES TO GROW OLD!

To prove his point that a man of today hates to grow old and clings tenaciously to youth, Alden W. Smith, optometrist, compares the present styles in beards and hair grooming to those of past days.

"It is not so many years ago that men leaving their teens zealously put behind them the beardless faces of youth. If they could command a strong growth of beard, they coaxed the hairs into handle-bars. If sparse, the beard was waxed into a sea-lion mustache. The more pompous souls, seeking the dignity of age, would ape the billy-goat with a goatee," says Mr. Smith. "But the average man today wants his face as smooth and clean as that of a new-born babe."

"Optical men, sensing this attempted escape from obsolescence by the sterner sex, have streamlined spectacles so cleverly that they actually add a note of dash to the male beardless faces. Of course, glasses are fine to hide crowsfeet and circles about the eyes—signs of approaching age. But by skilful shaping of the lenses, the youthful elements in a face can often be emphasized."

'SUB PATROL' HERE TONITE

Mention the term "Navy picture" and most movie-goers immediately think of super-dreaded, naughts peaving in the ocean swells to the strains of "Anchors Aweigh." They think of gold braided and allowed tradition and the splendid young men of the Naval Academy.

All this is very fine; it is good dramatic material. But it is probably neither as fine nor as dramatic as the great story out of which 20th Century-Fox has fashioned "Submarine Patrol" which opens tonight at the Torrance theatre.

According to Director John Ford, "Submarine Patrol" tells the incredible story, for some strange reason overlooked until now, that has lain neglected in the Navy's archives for some twenty-odd years. It is the story of America's wartime "Splinter Fleet"—those tiny, odd-looking wooden patrol boats, designed to clear the U-boat infested lanes of the Atlantic, and some of them manned by the sorriest crews of civilian odds and ends ever to board a fighting ship.

SENIORS BUSY . . . Miss Eva Jones, Senior class advisor, is having the members of the Senior A class at a party at her Palos Verdes home tomorrow evening. Refreshments and games will be the schedule for the evening. The class has been quite busy lately making plans for graduation in February and has decided on the style of announcements and the color of caps and gowns.

AT LAST . . . The Senior B class broke out in bright colors this week to wear the Senior sweaters that members have been talking about for so long. The sweaters are donubnet with white buttons and emblems. The girls have jackets, while the boys have both the jacket and slip-on types.

NAME CANDIDATES . . . The nominating committee met this week and chose the following students to run for office next term: For president: Bill Stewart, Arthur Woodcock and John Schwartz; for vice-president: Muriel Alverson, Jean Bordeaux, and John Hall; for secretary: Thelma Hogberg, Norrine Schroeder and Virginia Traller; for Commissioner of Finance: Marvin Lee and Lee Stecker; for Commissioner of Athletics: Harold Treasie, Marvin Goettsch and Bob Figueroa; for Commissioner of Entertainment: Helen Weir, Rose McLendon and Edgar McDonald; for Commissioner of Group Control: Dick Beecher and Lee Stecker; for girls' self government president: Elizabeth Anthony, Lucille Acree and Phyllis Schultz; for boys' self government president: Harold Massie, Eugene Hatter and Bob Figueroa; for advertising manager: David Figueroa and Kenneth Perkins.

WIN 'PLAY-DAY' . . . Torrance high girls went to the Narbonne field in Lomita Tuesday afternoon and defeated Narbonne, Hamilton and Venice high school girls to win the first "play-day" event held by the four schools. The local lassies won basketball, speedball and tennis events. The theme of the "play day" was "The Rodeo" and refreshments of beans and cider were served. They ended a pleasant afternoon with dancing.

If You're
Worried
About What
1939
Will Bring . . .

Just remember that the year 1938 didn't bring much that you didn't go out and get yourself!

If no effort is made to get business there will not be any business . . . this is true no matter what year it is. We know of a lot of Torrance firms that made money during 1938, and these same firms will make money during 1939. Every one of them has "invited" business and proved to their customers that they deserved it. This newspaper offers the best medium of "inviting" business . . . it is . . .
