Woman's Club Has 23 Representatives at Conference

The 39th anniversary of the California Federated Women's Clubs was celebrated by some 1,200 women of the Los Angeles District at a conference held in the Fox California theatre in Huntington Park Tuesday.

Gifts from the various groups of the district were presented from the pages of a mammoth album whose pages were opened by Joan, daughter of Charles in the "One Man's Family," radio program. Each anniversary cash gifts from the various groups of the district are contributed and used for the maintenance of the club headquarters in Los Angeles.

Local members of the session included Mrs. E. A. Miles, Raymond Rogers Sr., B. Lingenfelter, Fred Braddock, A. H. Sillgo, R. H. Shultz, J. C. Sana, Harriet Bingham, Frank Kneisler, H. C. Barrington, Jack Keefe, Emma Evans, C. D. Lowen, May Sidebotham, Hugh Herring, Marie Morgan, John Young, Jr., Harry Massey, Robert Lesing, Albert Isen, F. C. Winkler, Edwin Moran, James H. Crumrine and Fred Knudsen.

ERNST-BROWN WEDDING WEDNESDAY

The First Methodist church, Redondo Beach, furnished the setting for the wedding of Miss Henrietta Brown and Fred W. Ernst last Wednesday evening.

Rev. Claude W. Young, pastor, performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

For her wedding gown the bride chose rose crepe with a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Irene Rucker, sister of the bride, served as her only attendant. Charles Ernst, brother of the groom, served as best man. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, 18800 Prairie avenue. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ernst, 1023 Madrid avenue, and is a city employee.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents was attended by families and friends.

PERRY MOTHERS CLUB HONORS MEMBER

The Perry School Mothers' club of North Torrance met at the home of Mrs. Aile Shipman last week to tender her a farewell party. Mrs. Shipman and her family are leaving for Denver, their former home, where they are expected to return in the near future.

In an attractively decorated cake inscribed "Aile Dear Friend, Aloha Oe Until We Meet Again" was cut at the end of a delightful luncheon. Those present were Madeline Flinn, Fred Flinn, Col. Carrie Burnhard, Alice Ray, Lorraine Mann, Georgia Elliott, Mary Burke, Laurence Burchette, Florence Barnett, Fern Crawford, Josephine Burchette, Lela Goner and the honoree.

WOMEN OF MOSSE PLAN PARTIES

Anna Wilken, Mosseheart committee chairman, was hostess when the homemaking group met for all day sewing and potluck luncheon at 1432 216th street, today.

Olive Javens, chairman for the card party tournament which opens with the party in McDonald hall, 1951 Carson street, Friday evening, January 27, reports ticket sales far in advance of expectations. Valuable prizes will be given away at all parties with a grand prize at the close of five parties. The public is invited and may secure tickets from members of Loyal Order of Moose No. 785, from Women of the Moose No. 44 or at the entrance on night of party.

CARD PARTY PLANNED FOR FEBRUARY 10

February 10 has been reserved by ladies of St. Andrew's Episcopal church for card parties, which will be held in the various homes of members.

At the close of this card play all will gather at the guild hall on Engracia avenue, where prizes will be awarded and refreshments served. Mrs. Jack Snow is chairman for the affair.

Physicians Sponsoring Affair To be Held in Civic Aud.

Mark this date down on your social calendar in BIG LETTERS... SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18.

And don't let anyone or anything keep you from attending the festive event, which traditionally is the social highlight of the year in Torrance.

Judging from the preliminary plans now being made, this year's benefit ball, the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital promises to eclipse former successes.

It will be held in the Civic Auditorium under the sponsorship of the hospital staff of attending physicians with the following committee in charge: Dr. Ernest Bult, Redondo Beach, general chairman; Dr. F. G. Behrson, Gardena, and Dr. William I. Laughon, Torrance.

Sale of tickets will be conducted by the Torrance club, of the National Business and Professional Women with Mrs. Roxie Sleeth and Mrs. Bettina Miller acting as co-chairmen. However, all other organizations throughout the Southbay district will be asked to assist in supporting this worthy cause as the Torrance Memorial hospital serves this entire area.

Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the Torrance Christian church, will be the speaker.

The ladies of the Lomita Elementary P.T.A. will serve sandwiches and coffee with the birthday cake. There will be no charge.

Swedish Cooperatives Are Extolled at Club Meeting

Naming Sweden as the world's Republic, Robert M. Fox, professor of engineering at the University of Southern California, in addressing the National Business and Professional Women at their meeting in Daniels cafe Tuesday evening cited the manner in which Swedish people have established co-operatives. These people, he said, have little, yet they all manage because they think of each other. Their tastes are simple and they have few luxuries. Professor Fox also spoke of the monetary system in various countries of Europe.

Mrs. Susan Fox, who accompanied her husband on his recent tour of Europe, spoke of the art in various countries and displayed tapestries, pottery and
