

Two Couples Celebrate Eighteenth Wedding Anniversary

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Swanson honored them at the Watteria recreation center late last week in honor of their 18th wedding anniversaries. Following a delicious rabbit dinner, served at tables decorated with red gladioli, buncos was played. The party was arranged by members of the Pot Luck Club, in which Mrs. Murray and Mrs. Swanson are active.

Mrs. Eva Kelly, Mrs. Jess Reddington and Mrs. W. K. Adolph won the ladies' prizes while most prize winners were Henry Conze, Dick Lassen and Jack Carrigan. Covers were laid for Messrs. and Mesdames Dick Lassen, Henry Conze and W. K. Adolph and Mesdames Lenore Young, Eva Kelly and Mary Davidson of Watteria; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Reddington of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richey of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parks of Redondo Beach and Jack Carrigan of Hermosa Beach.

NEWS OF TORRANCE CHAPTER W.O.T.M.

Mrs. Irene Vincent and Mrs. Bertha Isbell were welcomed into the Torrance chapter Women of the Moose No. 44 at their meeting held in their hall, 1951 Carson street, last Friday evening.

Plans for initiating a large class of candidates the evening of February 17 are in progress. The initiation will be in honor of Margaret Sterling, second grand dean of the Academy of Friendship. Mrs. Bessie Lovitt of Long Beach will officiate. Mrs. Ruth Kidd will attend the Friendship meeting to be held in Maywood, Sunday, February 5.

Women of the Moose will hold a food sale Saturday, Jan. 28, in the 1300 block on Sartori avenue.

First of the series of card parties sponsored by Women of the Moose and Local Order of Moose will be held in the hall, 1951 Carson street, Friday, January 27, at 8:00 p. m.

V.E.W. AUXILIARY ACTIVE IN LOMITA
One of the most active organizations in Lomita, the V. E. W. Auxiliary, will hold three events last night when the auditing committee met at the home of Mrs. Emma Forsythe for the annual inspection of the books.

Last night the Auxiliary as a unit went to Hermosa Beach for inspection of ritualistic and other organization work by Dorothy Nicholls, department president. The Hermosa Beach and Gardena units also participated in the work and enjoyed the reception for Mrs. Nicholls which followed.

Next Monday evening the Auxiliary membership will participate in a dinner and theatre party in Los Angeles. Mrs. Anna Dannenhauer, president, expects most of the 36 members to attend.

ST. CECILIA GUILD HONORS PAST PRESIDENT
Honoring their past president, Helen Mitchell, members of St. Cecilia Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church gave a luncheon at the Monterey in Los Angeles, last Friday.

JUNIORS AND PARENTS IN PANEL DISCUSSION

Junior high school students had many interesting points to their credit in the panel discussion at Elementary Parent Teachers meeting held in the school auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

The girls led by Ruth Kerber had very definite ideas as to what parents had a right to expect of their daughters. Boys led by Eldon DeLong believed boys should earn their weekly allowance and share the home responsibilities.

Parents in the panel were Mrs. Marcus Edwards and Mrs. D. W. Quigley. Students were Ruth Kerber, Beverly Kelly, Annadell Clouche, Doris Armitage, Virginia Ligg, Eldon DeLong, Billy Meyers, Earl Barnett, and Frank Clark.

Pupils of B-4 gave several readings and mothers interested in a Girls Scout Troop were urged to phone 993-W. Announcement of the school opera for which tickets are now on sale was made by Mrs. Harold Smith, presiding officer at the session.

Following the meeting tea was served with Mmes. Rufus Page, W. H. Tolson and Marcus Edwards as hostesses.

NELL SMITH IS CLUB SPEAKER
District and state officers and presidents of neighbor clubs have been invited to the annual reciprocity and creative day luncheon in Torrance Woman's club, 1422 Engracia avenue, Wednesday, Feb. 1, at 12:30 p. m.

Mrs. Nell Smith, who recently returned from Roumania, will talk on that particular country and display a number of interesting articles made by the Roumanian people.

The high school Junior capella choir directed by Mrs. Marjorie Cooke will give a short musical program. Members of the club will exhibit interesting articles made by themselves. For reservations phone Mrs. Raymond Rogers at 264-W.

The Nelson Eddys at Home

Nelson Eddy, the screen star and concert singer, and his bride, the former Mrs. Ann Franklin, receive the press in their Hollywood home, following their surprise elopement to Las Vegas, Nev.

LIBRARIAN SPEAKER AT A.L.A. MEETING

Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, city librarian, was the speaker at the legislative meeting of Bert S. Crossland Unit 170 American Legion Auxiliary held in the Legion hall Tuesday evening. Her talk centered on legislation regarding veterans and was a challenge to women to keep their eyes open and urge their Congressmen to support the Universal Service bill to be presented at this session of Congress. This bill known as the Shepherd-May Bill is supported by the National American Legion and Auxiliary and if passed will take all profit out of war.

Mrs. Caroline Collins and Mrs. Cleora Stanger social committee for the evening served a chili supper at the close. Some 40 members were present.

Olivia Lee, rehabilitation chairman for the Bert S. Crossland Unit 170 makes her monthly visit to Savette today. She will present the hospital with three bed jackets sewed by the local members at an all day sewing held in the Lee home Tuesday.

GUILD PARTY AT FLETCHER HOME

Six tables were in play at the dessert bridge given in the A. E. Fletcher home, 1327 Acacia avenue, Wednesday afternoon for members of St. Cecilia Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church.
