Flagg Takes Celebrities For a Ride in Verse

VALENTINES I'D LIKE TO SEND!

Verse and Sketches

By James Montgomery Flagg

JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG needs no introduction as an artist, but the public may not be aware he also writes poetry. In the March issue of Cosmopolitan, Mr. Flagg goes on a spree with both pen and brush and takes four little figures ever so neatly over the hurdles.

Three dictators in a row, We'll be glad to see you get! It's just too bad if this is rude— We do not like your attitude! The white dove of appeasement falls, Chamberlain and his trick umbrella! We do not envy you your job— Don't let the dove become a squab! —Let the dove become a squab! —And such a grand musician too! Your epileptic jitter tunes Will make our children blue h-bunnies!

May blue skies, Shirley, be above you. Those with hearts will always love you! In "Gone with the Wind" as naughty Scarlett They'll cast you yet, my favorite starlet!

MOOSE TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE
Sunday, February 12, the Local Order of Moose No. 785 will initiate a class of candidates. They extend a cordial invitation to all their friends and to Women of the Moose to attend this special program. They plan to hold open house after 3:30 p. m.

WOMAN'S CLUB POTLUCK LUNCHEON
Torrance Woman's club will hold their monthly potluck luncheon in their clubhouse, 1423 Engracia avenue, Wednesday, Feb. 15. Reports of chairman will be given after luncheon. All members are welcome to attend.
