

TREASURE ISLAND GETS FORD No. 27,000,000

Celebratory ceremonies marked the production of Ford No. 27,000,000 at the Richmond Branch plant of the Ford Motor Company during Golden Gate International Exposition premier week. Top—welcoming crowd in Court of Pacifica, including a 1933 Ford driven by Billy Hughson; lower left—Leland Cutler, exposition president drives car off the assembly line; lower right—J. R. Davis, Ford general sales manager, personally representing Henry and Edsel Ford, turns over car keys to Miss Ford Exhibit (Marilyn Hutton). The car will be a part of the elaborate Ford Building exhibit on Treasure Island.

"Early Bird" by Proxy
PHILADELPHIA (U. P.) — When a Philadelphia theatre offered special prices of $4 a seat — "first come, first seated" — J.

H. Vernon hired eight telegraph messenger boys to go to the theatre early and obtain good orchestra seats for himself and his seven guests.

The official game of Germany is Deutsches Reich.
