Hortense Dies In Dog Version of Age-old Drama

As it must to all dogs, death came early this week to Hortense, wire-haired terrier who was an integral member of the Hugh and Mary Barnes household on El Dorado avenue.

Hortense gave birth to two puppies, her first offspring who survive her, but expired following a Caesarian operation made necessary when complications developed.

The Barneses, who were greatly attracted to their friendly, shaggy little dog, are now raising the pups with the aid of a pair of doll-sized nursing bottles.

EIGHT DIE IN BUS-AUTO CRASH . . . Eight persons were killed in the sedan shown in the crash scene above. The sedan skidded into the path of the bus on crowded East Valley boulevard, main traffic artery to San Bernardino county. Ten passengers in the bus were injured, none seriously. Victims were piled in and about the car when this picture was taken.

Want to Serve New Dish? . . . Then Try This:

Sauerkraut Chop-Suey is delicious and it makes a grand Sunday night supper dish or one for buffet service. Along with it serve a mixed green salad and some spiced fruit like the peaches or pears that come in cans.

Sauerkraut is one of the common everyday foods that has become especially popular in very "polite" society the last few years, and no wonder when it is combined in such recipes as this one for Chop Suey. Here is the recipe—try it for your next group. You will note that it makes enough for ten or twelve servings, and if there is any left over it warms up with added flavor, if that is possible.

Sauerkraut Chop-Suey
1/2 cup rice
3 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup tomato soup
1 cup meat stock, or canned chicken soup
2 1/2 cups canned sauerkraut
1 cup cooked chicken, veal or pork
salt
paprika

Cook the rice in boiling salted water and drain. Combine butter and rice and cook for three minutes; add tomato soup, meat stock, sauerkraut and meat which has been cut into cubes. Cook for five minutes; season with salt and paprika to suit taste. It makes ten to twelve servings.

A dessert made of frozen fruits would be good after this supper. Place a can of fruit cocktail in the freezing compartment of the refrigerator and freeze. Remove from the can and cut into slices. Remove both ends from the can and then the fruit can be pushed out easily.

MOLASSES TAFFY

Temperature: boiling
Time: about 20 minutes
1 cup molasses
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1 teaspoon vinegar
2 tablespoons butter

METHOD:

Mix molasses, sugar, water and vinegar in a saucepan and heat slowly over gas flame until sugar is dissolved, stirring constantly. Boil mixture to 35 degrees above the temperature of boiling water; add butter and cook slowly to 48 degrees above the temperature of boiling water or to the very hard ball stage. Pour hot mixture into buttered shallow pan and allow mixture to cool undisturbed until it may be handled comfortably. Pull until it has a satiny finish and is quite elastic. Pull into cylinders about 1/4 inch in diameter; mark into 1-inch lengths with heavy scissors. When candy becomes hard, break into pieces and wrap in waxed paper.

SEA FOAM

Yield: 1 pound molasses taffy.
Temperature: boiling
Time: about 20 minutes
2 cups brown sugar, sifted and packed (12 ounces)
1/2 cup water
1 egg white
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/2 cup chopped nut meats

METHOD:

Mix sugar and water in a saucepan and heat until sugar is dissolved, stirring constantly. Boil syrup to 42 degrees above the temperature of boiling water or to the hard ball stage. It should be hard enough to click against the glass.

Pour syrup slowly over stiffly beaten egg white to which salt has been added. Beat well, add extract and continue beating about 8 minutes or until candy is thick and creamy.

Add chopped nut meats to mixture during beating as the candy begins to stiffen. If desired, top pieces with halves of nut meats.

Yield: 1/2 pound sea foam.
