Laurella Lancaster Is Pledged By U. S. C. Amazons

Miss Laurella Lancaster, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Lancaster, 1503 Post avenue, was announced as a pledge to the honorary service organization of Trojan Amazons of the University of Southern California.

Pledging ceremonies were held Monday, March 27, with initiation scheduled for May.

With membership restricted to 40, the number of new pledges is governed by the number of Amazons in the graduating class. This year 24 sophomores and juniors were honored for their outstanding participation in campus activities.

Inaugurated in 1921, the organization has become the goal of all coeds on the Trojan campus. Among its many services are included assistance at registration, governing of freshmen students, ushering at football games and other student activities.

Miss Lancaster, a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, has been active in the cabinet of the Y.W.C.A.

Book Reviewer Also Discusses World Affairs

Commenting on world affairs, Gladys Hay Scoles addressed her audience of some 75 members and guests of the Torrance Woman's club in rapid attention yesterday as she related the progress made by Germany since 1933 and compared the six-year conquest by Adolf Hitler to that of Napoleon's 14-year attempt to dominate Europe.

Mrs. Scoles then spoke on the situation in this country and her impression of the effect present day politics will have on the years just ahead. She gave a brief review of "Union Now," written by a foreign news correspondent, Clarence K. Streit. In this book the author advocates a union for all democratic countries in which all countries shall be represented according to their population. Streit believes this to be the way out of the world's present dilemma.

Other books reviewed briefly by Mrs. Scoles were "Albert Einstein" by H. Gordon Garbedian, "Reaching For The Stars" by Nora Wain, "The Patriot" by Pearl S. Buck and "Mama's Daughter" by Dorothy and DuBois Hayward.

Mrs. Jean Patterson, friend of Mrs. Scoles presented her to the club.

Primary elections were held during the afternoon session with general election to be held at the May meeting.

CHOW MEIN DINNER AT DOAN HOME

The L. C. Doan home on Torrance boulevard, furnished the setting for a chow mein dinner party Tuesday evening. Covers were placed for 17 with contract bridge and Michigan furnishing diversion later in the evening.

Prizes in contract bridge were awarded Mmes. Alma Smith and Roxie Stiehl. Michigan prizes were captured by Mmes. Gertrude Ralston and Bee Shawger.

DENNY-SCHUMACHER MARRIAGE REVEALED
Announcement was made this week of the recent marriage of Miss Alice Schumacher to A. J. (Bill) Denney in Santa Ana recently. Mrs. Denney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Schumacher of 1313 Cota and has been employed as a page at the public library. The Denneys are making their home in the Mayfair Apartments.

WEEK'S VACATION
All school students were enjoying Easter vacation this week. Classes will be resumed Monday morning, April 10.

SPORTS APPAREL PARADE... Latest modes in play and outing apparel will be displayed by these charming U.S.C. coeds, Quinette Coting, in gabardine slacks, and Betty Jane Bartholomew, in figured tennis suit, along with other models as a feature of the free sixth annual Outing and Sports Show on Los Angeles headquarters grounds of the Automobile Club of Southern California, April 11-16, inclusive.

Choral Class Is Added to Night School

With the close of the Easter vacation, classes in Adult Education will resume work at Torrance Evening High Monday evening, April 10. Music lovers will be interested to know that a Community Choral class has been added to the curriculum.

Monthly programs are planned covering negro spirituals, folk music, songs of other centuries and music of the old masters with the accompanying work in stage department. Should the enrollment warrant, the production of an opera will be undertaken. Training will be arranged for a mixed chorus, men's voices, women's voices, solo and quartet work.

Voice training and assistance in individual problems will be included. The class will meet on Mondays from 7 to 9 p. m. All persons interested are cordially invited to attend. There is no charge for instruction.

Mrs. Waite Arrives to Pass Her 93rd Birthday in Lomita

She is going to pass her 93rd milestone in life Saturday but she's no nonagenarian in her outlook on life.

Mrs. Lucille Waite is as spry and interested in world affairs—and neighborhood doings as well as the most modern of young matrons in the country.

She arrived Tuesday at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ethel P. Waite at 26235 Edinboro for her annual visit and birthday celebration.

Her friends—and she has scores, made as result of her regular stays in Lomita over a period of many years—will feel Mrs. Waite on her birthday Saturday and Sunday at an informal open house. She makes her home in San Bernardino with a son.

WALTERIA DANCE DRAWS BIG CROWD

A large number of Walterians and many others from out of the district attended the community dance held at the Recreation hall in that area last Friday under the direction of the Walteria Promotional and Entertainment Guild.

This group, headed by John Minor as president, now has programs arranged for all of the remaining Friday evenings this month. However, the head of the program committee, Joel Hagberg, is always glad to contact additional talent and would appreciate hearing from those who are willing to participate in the Walteria festivities. He can be reached by writing Box 14, Walteria, or by calling John Minor at Redondo 7276.

The orchestra, providing the music for the Walteria dances is composed of William H. Davis, Lomita, and Joe Balingier, Harbor City; banjos: Blondie Petzold, San Pedro, and John Smith, Harbor City; violins: Wilbur Chatman, Wilmington, and Oliver Bryan, Walteria; guitars: Nick Chase, Walteria; Harry Robinson, Wilmington, and R. Scott, San Pedro; drums: George Hansen, Manhattan Beach; Mrs. Tessie Crowthers, Walteria, alternating at the piano; Rusty Becksted, San Pedro, trombone; Ralph Martinez, Walteria; cornet, and Howard Pritchard, Walteria, saxophone.

Townsend Club Activities

By Mrs. Beth Paige

From the placing of lovely flowers donated for the occasion by Mrs. Bowen, to the last bite of cakes and ice cream by tired but happy youngsters served by Townsend members, our big program last Thursday night was a complete success. Pupils and managers of the Torrance Conservatory of Music went praise from all who attended.

Those participating were: Carole Jacobs, Marlene Butler, Donna Hatfield, Helen Stitt, Janet Lewellen, Joyce Martinez, Beverly Bidwell, Shirley Cary, Patty Jo Moore, Cecilia Bidwell, Bobby Young, Bobby Crandell, Helen Trafter, Barbara Whitaker, Leonard Young, Marlene Butler, Beverly Wernett, Bobby Young and others.

The birthday table was well surrounded by Mrs. Collier, Mr. Collier, Mrs. Davis, Mr. Colburn, Mrs. Bouldin, Mr. Morford, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Taylor.

There will be several entertainers tonight.
