

Helen Hannebrink and Jayne Traller Become Brides-of-the-Week Here

Bridge Club Cites 45-Year Record of Weekly Play

Torrance has many bridge clubs . . . but none of them can approach the record of a group of Green Bay, Wisconsin women.

Mrs. Joseph Rollin of that city challenges anyone to tie the record of her bridge club. She and six other women have played bridge together weekly for 45 years without a break. They all came to the United States as immigrants from Brussels, Belgium, in 1893.

N. B. P. W. Fleets Delegates to District Convention

National Business and Professional Women of Torrance were entertained at their regular business meeting in the home of Marjorie Huber, 1444 Post avenue, Monday evening.

Delegates to the district convention to be held at the Hotel Huntington in Pasadena, April 15, were elected as follows: Bettina Miller, Lola Hoover and Addie Parks. Alternates elected were Dorothy Kenyon and Esther Maxwell.

Bettina Miller, club president appointed Addie Parks, Edna Mullin and Margaret Wright as the nominating committee. Election of officers for the ensuing year will be the main order of business at the May business meeting.

The club voted to dispense with the April dinner meeting since it will be hostess to the Bay Section at the dinner meeting to be held in the American Legion, hall Monday, April 24.

Following the business session the club honored Flora McDonald Wright, whose wedding was an event of recent date by presenting her with a lovely pyrex set.

HONOR ACCORDED R. N. A. LADIES

Torrance camp Royal Neighbors of America were honored at the convention of Southern California District Royal Neighbors held in Los Angeles Thursday, when they were chosen from all camps assembled to exemplify their work.

Newly-weds Honeymooning at Carmel; to Live in Shafter

Honeymooning at Carmel this week are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert V. Migley, new Jayne Traller, who were married Saturday evening in the Traller home, 1304 Beech avenue.

Vows were exchanged before an improvised altar of palms, white blossoms and fernery over which tall white tapers cast a soft glow. Rev. Al Chandler, pastor of the Congregational church of Shafter, California, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of immediate families.

Miss Traller was lovely in ensemble of chartreuse with accessories of navy and carried an arm bouquet of briarcliff roses. Mrs. Nita McVain of Shafter, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and she was gowned in pale blue and wore a corsage of gardenias. Francis McVain, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Traller, has resided in this city for the past six years, is a graduate of Compton Junior College and past president of the Alpha Tau Sorority.

The groom is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles and is in the electrical business in Shafter, where the couple will reside.

Helen Hannebrink Becomes Bride of Joe Tavan at First Lutheran Church

Tall white tapers cast a soft shadow over the flower banked altar of the First Lutheran church Tuesday evening as Helen Hannebrink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Hannebrink became the bride of Joe Tavan, 1913 Cabrillo avenue.

Rev. F. T. Meehling pastor of the church performed the ceremony in the presence of 75 persons.

Miss Hannebrink, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in bolero suit of dusty rose wool with aqua blue accessories and Japanese iris corsage. Miss Jean Smith, as maid of honor was gowned in bolero suit of aqua blue wool with toast accessories and corsage of pink rose buds.

Earl Tavan, brother of the groom, served as best man. Miss Jean Hoskins played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. L. C. Miller, soloist. Ushers were Ben Hannebrink Jr. and Mason Beatty.

A reception for the couple was held at the Hannebrink home, 1819 Andree avenue. The lovely wedding cake, which was cut by the bride was made and decorated by Mrs. L. C. Miller.

Both young people have a host of friends in this city where they have resided for many years. Both are graduates from the local high school.

For the past few years the groom has been employed in the National Supply Company. Following a southern honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Tavan will reside at 1819 1/2 Andree avenue.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS BUSY GROUP

Understudies filled chairs of officers at the regular meeting of Job's Daughters Torrance bethel held in the Masonic temple Tuesday evening.

Bethel honors were conferred on past honored queens, Doris Kresse, Mary Ann Taylor Bradford and Joy Fossom and on Patty Post, past junior princess.

A report on the annual doughnut sale showed 475 dozen sold with prize for selling the most going to Vivian Wentala, who dispensed 101 dozen.

A progressive dinner is planned for April 10. Make reservations with Marion Spehner, honored queen of the bethel by phoning 254-R.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. ELECT OFFICERS

High School Parent Teachers Association will hold their regular meeting in the school auditorium Monday, April 10, at 2:15 p. m. A symposium composed of high school alumni will discuss "If I were to return to high school today what program of education would I want the school to offer?"

Eighth grade chorus will present a short musical program. A report of the nominating committee will be read and officers for the ensuing year elected.
