Flood Control Tax Rate Due for Increase

The tax rate for the Los Angeles county flood control district for next year will of necessity have to include a sufficient levy to pay interest and retire bonds of the dozen odd drainage districts taken into the district 18 months ago, as well as to maintain them, it was explained today by the Hall of Records.

Some misunderstanding exists as to the maximum fixed by law on one of the flood control district levies. This maximum is for maintenance purposes only, and the maximum is 10 cents.

The supervisors must levy, in addition to this a sufficient sum to pay interest on some $32,000,000 in outstanding bonds, as well as to retire some of them annually.

Since the drainage districts have been shifted to flood control, the burden in outstanding bonds was increased by more than $3,000,000. Interest must be paid on these outstanding bonds, and some of them must be retired annually. In addition to this is the maintenance of the drainage district improvements taken over by the district. Last year's total levy was 21 cents.

Mechanical "Masher" Routed

ALAMEDA, (U.P.)—The latest streamlined masher technique for picking up girls is—or, rather, was—a loud speaker installed by two 18-year-old youths in their automobile and which greeted all passing girls with a blaring of "Hey, tools! Want a ride?"

The police changed the tense of the verb from "is" to "was."

WESTERN STARS... Florence Rice and Robert Taylor are co-starred in the new western drama, "Stand Up and Fight," which is showing at the Lomita theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday.

Doctor Warns

"Swing" Is Bad For Children

CLEVELAND, O. (U.P.)—Children's cars should not be exposed to "the constant blare of jazz," believes Dr. C. W. Wyckoff, advising parents of "swing age" children.

Dr. Wyckoff, former chairman of the pediatric section of the Academy of Medicine, said that children should not be allowed to go to the movies before they are 11.

"Child life is full of mimicry—doing as the child sees others doing," he said. "We must be sure they have good things to imitate."

Wyckoff said that one of the most important influences in a child's life is the attitude of the parents, the language they use.

"Children have more right to demand good parentage than parents to demand good children," the doctor said.

Dr. Wyckoff added that:

No child should have alcoholic beverages before he is 18.

No child should smoke before he is 18.

No child should see either of his parents under the influence of alcohol.

Mammy's Tastes Make Maxine Swing Classics

"Everything I am today I owe to my mother!"

No one is better qualified to use this fulsome statement than Maxine Sullivan, the dusky Harlem songstress who originated the craze of swinging the classics and who swings onto the screen with Dorothy Lamour, Lloyd Nolan and Tito Guizar in "St. Louis Blues," the Paramount picture opening Friday at the Gardena theatre. For if it hadn't been for Maxine's mother's insistence that she stick to classic, or at least semi-classic, songs the famous Sullivan technique would never have been invented!

Mrs. Sullivan abominated the jazz school in all its forms. "But personally," says Maxine, "I never could stand the classic kind of music. Leastways, not like folks usually play it. I wanted to get out and swing!"

"But I had to pay mind to my mother, so I practiced good music like she said. Only when she wasn't around I used to step it up a little—I used to swing it out!"

Buttes of Arizona Form Film Scene

Centuries, geology, and the elements, the three directors of the earth's physical destiny, combined their artistry in Monument Valley, Arizona, to create sets for Walter Wanger's "Stagecoach," the frontier drama which opens at the Plaza theatre tonight. This vastly picturesque section was chosen for the major location site because of its sheer beauty and complete isolation.

In the last half of the story, the coach is seen winding across the plateau before the tremendous backdrop of gravelly-eroded sentinels of unusual immensity and solitude. There are 10 people in the coach; two are women; one is a day-old baby. The six horses are at a gallop because an Indian attack is feared.

Will Test for Chemical Content of Industrial Waste

Tests of the chemical content of industrial waste discharged into Dominguez channel by two oil companies will be made by engineers of the county flood control district and action will be taken to eliminate objectionable discharges, Chief Engineer H. E. Hedger reported to the board of supervisors this week. S. C. Saul, secretary of the Key Stone Chamber of Commerce, had filed a protest with the board and the matter had been referred to Hedger.
