Woman's Club Elects Mrs. A. H. Silligo President

Clubhouse Scene of Pretty Wedding
Sunday Afternoon

Hollywood Riviera clubhouse was the scene of a beautiful marriage ceremony Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Lucille Thompson was united in holy matrimony with George Brenestahl of Gardena. Rev. Harry G. Banks of the First Methodist church read the service which was witnessed by a large number of friends.

Miss Thompson was lovely in ivory white gown, cut en train, with a beautiful sweeping veil held in place by a pearl coronet. Her bouquet was of white roses and sweet peas. Her maid of honor, Miss Maxine Davidson of Long Beach, wore pastel chiffon and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Bridesmaids, beautiful in pastel chiffon with bouquets of sweet peas, were Miss Leona Clouch, of Torrance, Miss Audrey Dunn, of Long Beach, Miss Edna Weaver and Miss Audrey Foden, of Los Angeles.

Brenestahl was attended by his bride's brother, Leroy Thompson, and ushers—were Benson Clouch, of Torrance, and William Nittler, of Long Beach. After a reception in the clubhouse Mr. and Mrs. Brenestahl returned to Torrance where they are residing at 802-F Sartori avenue.

Mrs. Brenestahl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson, 1205 Border avenue, and Brenestahl is the son of Mrs. Margaret Shafer, 15019 Denker avenue, Gardena. He is employed at the Columbia Steel plant.

GATEWAY COUNCIL MET ON MONDAY

The Gateway Council, Parent Teachers Association, met Monday, May 1, at the Torrance high school for their regular business session. Mrs. Jack Lowry, president, occupied the chair. A musical program was given by the Mother Singers of the high school P. T. A. The entire board of this group including Miss Elizabeth Parks, vice-principal at Torrance high school, attended. Tenth district meeting held today at San Pedro.

BON VOYAGE FOR MRS. SLEETH

Mrs. Eloda Barkdull, 1521 Beech avenue, entertained at luncheon Saturday with a bon voyage shower honoring Mrs. Roxie E. Sleeth, who left Monday night for Brackneridge, Pennsylvania, where she will visit her mother, Mrs. Paul Rehner, and her brother, S. E. Flenner. After the excitement of opening many interesting parcels, the guests settled down to contract bridge, with prizes going to Lillian Snow, Hallie Doan, and Alma Smith. Other guests were Bessie Myers, Fan Wilkes, Ella Robinson, Maxine Smith, Evelyn Fernley, Cleora Stanger, Julia Cuoci and the honoree, Mrs. Sleeth.

Organization Celebrates 19th Birthday With 100 at Luncheon

As announced last week, in anticipation of the election held yesterday at a meeting of the Torrance Woman's Club, Mrs. A. H. Silligo was chosen, unopposed, for the presidency for the ensuing term. She succeeds Mrs. H. C. Barrington who has headed the organization for the past two years.

Other members of the board, elected yesterday, are Mrs. W. B. Neelands, first vice-president; Mrs. Barrington, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Lessing, recording secretary; Mrs. Mildred Lancaster, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold P. Smith, treasurer; Mrs. E. A. Miles, auditor; Mrs. Howard G. Locke, parliamentarian; and Mrs. John B. Young, director of ways and means.

The club celebrated its 19th birthday with a luncheon served to more than 100 guests. Members contributed pennies corresponding to their ages, this fund to be used to replenish kitchen equipment.

Musical Tea May 31
Mrs. Velma Schultz, program chairman, presented Carl Fisel in vibraphone solos of favorite numbers and Lucille Vance, author of "Pet Peeves" and numerous other writings, spoke on "How to Take Your Humor Seriously."

Her skill in poking polite fun at a number of familiar customs delighted the audience, especially when she gave her version of club reports.

One of the future events on the club program is a musical tea, to be held May 31, with Kathryn Buffington, music chairman, in charge.

PUPILS SURPRISED WITH MAY DAY FETE

While 31 boys and girls of the A4 class at Torrance Elementary school were out playing ball last Monday morning, their new "room mother," Mrs. Ruth Dunham, her daughter, Marjorie Ruth, and teacher, Miss Dorothy Kenyon, arranged a colorful May Day party in the schoolroom.

Refreshments of cup-cakes, candy and festive decorations of paper caps and bonbon poppers delighted the youngsters. On each desk was a small pottery vase with flowers for every pupil. Mrs. Dunham became the class's room mother when Mrs. Mac Scott was forced to give up the duties to take care of her daughter Jane who is recovering from a broken leg.

W. R. C. PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Mable Webb, president of the Stephen A. Phillips Woman's Relief Corps, entertained the officers and members at a luncheon last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Elva Kelton, 720 Border avenue. Cards furnished diversion during the afternoon. The next regular meeting of the Relief Corps will be held Thursday May 11 at the Social hall.

Business-Professional Women Elect Mrs. Hoover President

Mrs. Lola Hoover, who has served as vice-president for the past year, was elected president of the Torrance National Business and Professional Women's club at the meeting held Monday night at the home of Mrs. Bettina Miller, outgoing president.

Those who were named to serve with Mrs. Lola Hoover are Mrs. Julia McManus, vice-president; Miss Dorothy Jensen, recording secretary; Mrs. Cora Ellwood, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mae Leake, treasurer; and Miss Birda Paddock, auditor.

Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. McManus were named as delegates to the state convention, which will be held at Del Monte this month. Alternates chosen were Mrs. Addie Parks and Miss Lutz Fraser.

On suggestion of Miss Dorothy Kenyon, who had been appointed to investigate, the club voted to sponsor a Torrance Girl Scout troop.

Refreshments of strawberry pie and coffee were served by the hostess Mrs. Arvilla Owen, assisted by Mrs. Lloy Maupin.

The Herald—3 months, 50 cents.

WEEKLY CARD PARTIES BY ALTAR SOCIETY

Weekly card parties will be held for an indefinite time under the auspices of the Altar Society of the Catholic Church of the Nativity. The first will be tonight in the parish hall on Cota avenue, admission 25 cents. In future, however, the parties will be held on Friday night when the tallies will be 35 cents. The public is invited.

NEW EMPIRE LINES... Molyneux's tea gown of flesh-colored cotton crepe, cut in the high-waisted Empire line, is one of the season's outstanding new creations, as pictured in a recent issue of Harper's Bazaar. Molyneux has designed many of his new summer evening dresses along this line. The coat falls to the bottom of the dress.

MURPHY'S HOSTS AT 'COMBINATION PARTY'

The D. A. Murphy—"Spud," his wife Velora and their young sons — gave a "combination party" at their home, 2567 Sonoma avenue, last Friday night. It was a four-combine affair attended by 22 guests. Starting out as a "premier" for some 16mm. motion pictures shot by Murphy on their recent trip to Florida, the screen show was augmented by some reels of one of Charlie Chaplin's earliest pie-tossing comedies.

Combine No. 2 was two amusing group games based on identification and deduction and the third dual feature of the festivities was the housewarming for the hosts and a birthday salutation for Ott Modglin, who was surprised with a large candle-illuminated cake. The fourth "tie-in" with the enjoyable function resulted in a series of train messages written to Mrs. Roxie Sleeth, who left Monday for Pennsylvania, to be opened en route.

A midnight supper was served to Messrs. and Mesdames Dean Sears, J. B. Scott, Robert S. Sleeth, William O. Mogdlin, Harry H. Dolley, Pat Boyle and daughter, Marcella May, Sidney Smith, Carl Marsteller, Michael Strasser and Mesdames Gertrude Ralston, Helen Mitchell and Irene Hopkins.

HOWARD WEBER WEDS GARDENA GIRL

Howard L. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Weber, of 1903 Andree avenue, was married Sunday, April 30, to Miss Margaret Monnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Monnie, 17203 Dalton avenue, Gardena. The ceremony took place in Yuma, Arizona, where the service was read by Rev. Raymond C. Acheson of the Yuma Presbyterian church.

James Arnett, of Redondo Beach, and Miss Pauline Wynn, of Gardena, witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Weber have returned to Gardena where they are residing at 932 West 195th Place.

C. E. GUILD WILL INSTALL OFFICERS

The Ladies' Guild of the Central Evangelical church will meet in the Guild hall on Arlington avenue next Wednesday, May 10. Installation of new officers will be the principal business. Mrs. E. W. Lock and Mrs. Bert Lindberg are the hostesses.

AMARANTHS MEET UNDER NEW OFFICERS

The Lomita Court, Order of Amaranth, will hold its first meeting under officers who were installed recently next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Fleet Reserve hall. Arminta Kaighin is Royal Matron and Birda Paddock is associate matron of the court. Other new officers are:

Michael Burns, escort; Frances Hathaway, secretary; Bessie West, treasurer; Stella May Culough, conductress; Mary Culpepper, associate; Adella McCann, trustee; Lillian Neely, marshal; Hazel Colwell, standard bearer; Bertha Martin, historian; Lulu Doane, prelate; Alwina Ullman, musician; Helen Wilson, warder; Ethel Waite, sentinel; Martha Gasser, Faith, and Edna Clark, wisdom.

TO GIVE SERIES BRIDGE PARTIES

First in a series of evening bridge parties was given last Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte at their home on Post avenue. Following five tables of play, guests were served a two-course midnight supper in the dining room.

High score bridge awards were won by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scott and Mrs. J. W. Post. Others present were: Mrs. Post, Messrs. and Mesdames Dean Sears, Henry Ullbright, J. R. Klink and L. B. Kelsey. The Whytes invited another group of friends for this Saturday evening.

LUNCHEON PLANNED AT LONG BEACH CLUB

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Robert Burns and Mrs. J. B. Scott for a bridge luncheon next Tuesday, May 9, at the Pacific Crest Club, Long Beach.
