Grapevine Telegraph Too Slow Nowadays

In other years, the new bride might wait 'til the news got around via grapevine telegraph. Not the 1939 bride tho; old-fashioned methods of letting the world find out, are too slow for this clever young lady; she saves time and trouble by mailing out Art Point Marriage Announcements. Like so many other ultra-things nowadays, they're surprisingly inexpensive. Virginia Courtney's "Bride's Book" for newly-weds and soon-to-be's is crammed with interesting facts and is yours for the asking. Just call at this office.

Take a tip from... a Smart young man

* Cupid is a sly little imp, but he knows from long experience that folks will find out in time. So he says why not be smart and break the news while it is new... officially, by mailing clever streamlined Art Point Announcements to friends and relatives. But, be sure that your cards are genuine "Art Point" if you want to be really smart.

After dancing for awhile, the group was served refreshments. Those present were Carolyn Wilkes, Annie Failla, Isabella Russell, Doris Martin, Joan Blackhall, Ann Goslin, Marion Spehger, Leslie Hedricks, Doyle and Roger Hornback, Charles and Gerald Grubb, Kenneth Vaughn, Paul Smith, John Rogers, Joe Basil, Jack Hornell, Dean Barkdull, Harry Slover, Percy Thompson and Bob Yancey, reporter for the club.

DAUGHTER'S BETHROTHAL ANNOUNCED BY LEVYS

Choosing the 22nd anniversary of their own marriage as an appropriate time, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy, 1503 El Prado, Saturday evening announced the engagement of their daughter, Ella Lorraine, to Mr. Irwin H. Harris of Los Angeles. The betrothal was disclosed as Miss Levy and Mr. Harris joined a bridge party attended by Mr. and Mrs. Levy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, 1620 Post avenue.

Friday evening, Miss Levy and Mr. Harris were honor guests at a formal dinner dance in the Blossom Room of the Roosevelt Hotel given by Mr. Harris' fraternity, Phi Beta Delta. During the evening, the betrothal of the honored couple was announced.

Mr. Harris is a graduate of U.C.L.A. and Miss Levy is attending the same university. She is a member of Phi Sigma Sigma.

CENTRAL GUILD STARTS NEW YEAR

Wednesday, May 10, marked the close of another year of successful work for the Ladies' Guild of Central Evangelical church. The regular business session included installation of new officers, Rev. E. W. Matz acting as installing officer. Mrs. Paul Jones will lead the group as president with Mrs. E. Merle Johnston, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert J. Deininger, second vice-president; Mrs. Howard MacDonald, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. R. Winters, secretary, and Mrs. H. Archer Lewis, treasurer.

Business was followed by a social hour with Mrs. Ernest Lock and Mrs. Bert Lindberg as hostesses. The Guild presented their retiring president, Mrs. Daniel McCormack, with several pieces of beautiful pottery.

ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. J. O. Bishop, 2021 Carson street, entertained at luncheon last Thursday with Mrs. Charles Woodcock and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Inman, as her guests.

FRIDAY MORNING CLUB MEETS

The Friday morning club met last week at the home of Mrs. Edwin Morang for a business session. Plans were discussed for the next out-of-town trip, a visit to Knott's berry farm, May 26.

Phyllis Haefeli Becomes Bride of James Carey Friday Night

STORK SHOWER HONORING MRS. MADDY

Mrs. Forrest Maddy, 1621 218th street, was the surprise honoree at a stork shower given at her home last Friday afternoon when friends and neighbors gathered to bring gifts for the expected heir. A bassinet, blue silk lined, held a large number of dainty packages, and during the afternoon another unexpected parcel of gifts arrived from eastern relatives. Guessing games were played with prizes going to Mrs. J. H. McCutchen, Mrs. Florence Hall and Mrs. C. G. Hornell.

Refreshments were served and party favors were tiny perambulators filled with candies. Those present were Mrs. Helen Maddy, Mrs. M. H. Butler, Miss Bea Riley, Mrs. Frances Smith, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Margaret Brown, Mrs. Hornell, Mrs. P. E. Mendenhall, Mrs. Charles B. Dunham, Mrs. W. E. Hohlbauch of Wilmington, Mrs. Earl Miles, and Mrs. McCutchen.

HUSBAND AND WIFE HEAD VETERANS' GROUPS

Husband and wife took office Sunday, May 14, at a joint installation at Banning Manor, Wilmington, when James J. O'Toole of this city, was seated as commander of Harbor Chapter No. 43, Disabled Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Mrs. Margaret O'Toole took up the gavel as head of the women's auxiliary of that organization.

Frank Irwin, past national commander of the veterans, installed O'Toole and his corps; Nora Baker, past department commander of the auxiliary, performed the same service for Mrs. O'Toole and her staff. O'Toole was elected at a meeting held May 10, his wife a week previous—on May 3.

GARDENA PRINCIPAL TO ADDRESS P.T.A.

Raymond E. Pollich, principal of Gardena high school and Tenth District manager of the Fathers' Forums, will be the principal speaker next Tuesday, May 23, at the regular meeting of the Torrance Elementary P.T.A. in the school auditorium starting at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Hillman R. Lee will report highlights of the state P.T.A. convention which was held at Santa Barbara this week.

Mrs. William H. Tolson and Mrs. H. P. Smith attended the state gathering. The Elementary P.T.A. unit will be host to the second "Parents' Conference," held under direction of Mr. Lane, district supervisor, Monday, May 22, at 2 o'clock.

The Baptist church will be the setting for the wedding tomorrow (Friday) night at 8 o'clock of Phyllis O. Haefeli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Haefeli of 815 Amapola, and James Carey, son of James Carey, Sr. of Sand Point, Idaho. Rev. C. Miles Northrup will read the ceremony and afterwards there will be a reception for invited guests in the church hall.

Miss Haefeli, who graduated from Torrance high school with the Summer class of 1937, plans to continue her work as beauty operator here after the honeymoon the young couple will enjoy the following weekend. Carey is a seaman in the U. S. Navy attached to the air carrier Lexington. They will make their home in Torrance.

The bride's sisters, Marjorie and Rhea Mae Haefeli, will serve as bridesmaids and will wear turquoise blue and peach chiffon and carry contrasting bouquets. The bride plans to wear a gown of white lace and net, with a fingertip veil, and carry a bouquet of white gardenias and sweetpeas.

A grey business suit will be worn by the groom and his attendant will be Carl Andrews, formerly of this city who now lives in Compton. The ushers will be John Schmidt, Bert Scott, Al Chandler and John Kluchka. Little Lee Mortenson, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Mortenson of Sartori avenue, is to be ring-bearer and Patty Portlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Portlock of Lomita, will be flower-girl.

Music for the ceremony is to be played by Margaret Compton at the piano, Leland Pisel at the vibraphone, and Ray White will be soloist.

EASTERN STAR MEETING TONIGHT

A regular meeting of Torrance Chapter, O.E.S., will be held at the Masonic temple tonight. Contrary to the prevailing impression, this meeting will not be in short form. Refreshments and entertainment will follow the business session.

MISS BELL WILL WED JAMES CARRIEL

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton B. Bell, 1544 Marcelina avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mariel Virginia, to Mr. James T. Carriel. The wedding will take place in the Bell garden Thursday, June 1.

A treaty of friendship and non-aggression exists among the western Asiatic powers of Turkey, Persia, Irak and Afghanistan.
