

Business, Professional Women Install New Officers at Colorful Dinner-Meeting

Marjorie Page New Honored Queen of Job's Daughters

Final meeting of Job's Daughters for the term was held Tuesday evening, May 16, at the Masonic temple with a large attendance. Miss Marion Spehger, honored queen, who retires from office at this time, made her farewell address, thanking the Mothers' club for its assistance, and members for cooperation in making her term a success.

Following their usual custom, the Bethel presented Mary Ann Bradford, past honored queen, with a baby spoon for her infant daughter.

Election of officers by unanimous vote resulted in the elevation of the following to important posts: Miss Marjorie Page, honored queen; Virginia Traller, senior princess; Norma Patterson, junior princess; Vivian Wertzall, guide and Shirley Guttenfelder, marshal. Appointive officers will be filled at a meeting of the council, and installation at an open meeting to which the public will be invited will be held June 3.

In closing, members sang their farewell song to the retiring honored queen and a social hour followed.

WALTERHANS HONOR SAN PEDRO WOMAN

Elsie Minor and Lella Hansen were co-hostesses at Mrs. Minor's home, 23842 Park street, Waltera, for a stork shower in honor of Mrs. Betty Williams of San Pedro this week. Twenty guests enjoyed games and prizes were won by Anna Bretfield and Zelma Wagner.

The guests from Waltera, San Pedro and Lomita included Eva Kelley, Mattie Carter, Dessie Crowther, Margaret Swanson, Florence Hagberg, Anna Bretfield, Zelma Wagner, Luella Lassen, Lenora Young, Helen Conze, Vera Murray, Flora Smith, Ann Corbett, Mamie Logan, Frances Taylor, Betty Williams and Kae Czerwinski.

PIANO STUDENTS IN THREE RECITALS

Madame Teala Bellini, concert pianist and teacher of piano, will present Miss Dorothy Woodruff of San Pedro in recital at 8:15 Friday evening, May 19, at the San Pedro Woman's club, 11th and Gaffey streets. Marilyn Woodruff, violinist, will be the assisting artist.

Miss Woodruff, who has just passed her 14th birthday, appeared recently at Madame Bellini's studio tea and received favorable attention from the musicians present.

On May 23, at the Methodist church in Monrovia, Madame Bellini will present Miss Phoebe Propst in a piano recital. Miss Propst was also heard in a recital at the Los Angeles studio last week and her work was highly praised.

On June 4 Madame Bellini will give her annual pupils recital at the Central Evangelical church in Torrance. The public is cordially invited to attend all three events.

FAMILY BREAKFAST AT FAULKNER HOME

Mrs. Lillian Faulkner, 2367 Sonoma avenue, was honored guest at a family breakfast on Mother's Day at the home of her son, Dick Faulkner, 1859 247th street, Lomita. Others present were Mrs. Bessie Myrick, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vaughn, Mrs. Kate Vaughn, and members of the Faulkner families.

CHANEL'S cluster of curls, tied with a velvet bow and fastened to a small comb, as shown in May Harper's Bazaar, may be worn at the nape of the neck for a softening effect or above the brow as a top-knot.

ANDREWS TOLE WEDDING SATURDAY

Miss Geneva Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Andrews, became the bride of William E. Tole, of Compton, at a pretty ceremony at the home of her mother, 2616 El Dorado avenue, at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. Rev. C. M. Northrup, of the First Baptist church, read the service.

Miss Andrews was attended by her sister, Mrs. Leland Pisel, and Richard Van Nostrand of El Centro served the groom as best man.

The bride was attired in a becoming gown of orchid and white coat, corsage of pink and white sweet peas and tall-sman roses. Mrs. Pisel wore teal blue with corsage of gardenias. Leland Pisel played on the vibraphone "I Love You Truly," the wedding march, and soft music during the ceremony.

After a short honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Tole will return to a home at 205 Magnolia avenue, Compton.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Van Nostrand of Compton, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Nostrand, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Van Nostrand, of El Centro; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Portlock, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. George Preston and sons, Miss Jean Willis and James Carey, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wilson and son of Inglewood, Torrance.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Portlock and sons; Mr. and Mrs. O. Haeffel and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Mitts, Mrs. C. M. Northrup and Miss Ruth Specht.

WOODEN WEDDING DATE IS OBSERVED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, 219 South Helberta street, Redondo Beach, entertained Saturday evening at a surprise party for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bremner of 1309 Manuel avenue, in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. They received many handsome and useful gifts.

The evening was spent at bridge, with prize for high score going to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nester, consolation to Mrs. Paul Ames. A bountiful buffet supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Ames, of Hermosa Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Nester, of Redondo Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Young, of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weiss, Mr. and Mrs. Al Stegelmeyer, and the honorees.

SAN PEDRANS TAKE FLEET CLUB PRIZES

San Pedro women carried away the bulk of prizes awarded recently by Mrs. I. E. Burton at a party for the Ladies' Social club of the Lomita Fleet Reserve association, given at her home, 2455 West 25th street. Mrs. Frances King was the lone Lomita winner.

65 Attend Affair Held in L. A. Restaurant Monday Evening

At a colorful gathering, bright with a profusion of flowers and the charming costumes of the ladies, the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance inducted new officers last Monday night. The program was held in a private banquet room at Scully's popular to 65 guests.

Floral decorations arranged by Harriett Leech were large centerpieces on each table of tinted sweet peas and oxalis in a bed of greenery, carrying out the club colors of green and gold.

The guests joined in community singing, with a group of songs chosen and adapted in tribute to the retiring president, Bettina Miller, and the new leader, Lola Hoover.

Greet Nine New Members
Madame Teala Bellini, concert pianist, delighted all with two solos. Lloyd Jones, Mayfair Hotel soloist, sang two groups of songs.

An innovation in installation work was given by Mitti Wilmer, district membership chairman, of Hollywood, who, in a delightful original way gave her official blessing to the nine new members who have joined the Torrance club this year.

Ruth Spencer, vice president of the district, they installed the recently-elected officers, charging each individual with the duties of her office, and asking from the entire membership whole-hearted cooperation with the new leaders.

Many Guests Attend
Lola Hoover, vice-president last year, received the gavel from Bettina Miller as the new president; Julia McManus is vice-president; Dorothy Jensen, recording secretary; Cora Ellwood, corresponding secretary; Mae Lenke treasurer, and Binda Paddock, auditor.

Mrs. Miller in her farewell talk thanked each of her chairmen who assisted in important club projects and presented them with a remembrance.

Club membership, which reached 45 this year, was augmented at the dinner by the presence of husbands and other guests. Among those invited were Mrs. Janet Woodington, president of the Torrance Relief Society; Mrs. J. H. Crumrine, president Friday Morning club; Mrs. Edwin Morang, Mrs. Rolve Bever, Mrs. Sam Raus, Mrs. Fern Shafstall and Mrs. Rosella Strachan.

Out of town guests in addition to the installing officers were Mrs. Wilmer, Miss Elsie Waterman, district treasurer, of Hollywood; Florence Spencer, of Huntington Park; Nina Faust, Edith Barker, of Redondo Beach; Jeannette Learned of Hermosa Beach; the three last named being associates of the new president, Mrs. Hoover, in Eastern Star work.

WHITES CONTINUE BRIDGE PARTIES

Continuing a series of evening bridge parties, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, 1620 Post avenue, had as their guests last Saturday: Messrs. and Mesdames James E. Hitchcock, H. E. Appenzeller, George Peckham, Sam Levy, of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Jones of Long Beach; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Casey of Leimert Park. Honors at bridge were won by Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock. A midnight supper was served in the dining room.

MOOSE WOMEN REMEMBER "ADOPTED" LITTLE GIRL

Anna Wilken, chairman of the Mooseheart committee, for the Women of the Moose, held a "dark horse" sale prior to the card party given last Friday night and sponsored by the child care and training committee. A nice sum was realized from the sale, and the proceeds will be used to buy a camera and other birthday gifts for the chapter's adopted little girl, Carrie White, who is being cared for at Mooseheart.

Opal Williams, senior agent, asks all members to be present tomorrow evening, May 19, for nomination of officers. Following the meeting the birthday of Zoe Dethiers, Ella Quigley, and Martha Cooper will be remembered. At a recent meeting a special Mother's Day program honored Martha Cooper, the chapter's "adopted" mother.

LOMITA NEWLYWEDS TO VISIT IN EAST

Ralph J. Knox of 1925 West 25th street, Lomita, and his bride, the former Ella Beck of Redlands, are enroute for a honeymoon and visit with relatives in the east. They were married Sunday in a garden ceremony at the home of Mrs. J. E. Knox, mother of the groom, at Yucaipa and will make their home either in Lomita or San Pedro on their return.

Mrs. Knox is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Beck of Rattan, Okla. The ceremony was read by Rev. Frank W. Griffin with Mrs. Cleo M. Statter of Bloomington, sister of the bride, as matron of honor. Jesse Knox was the best man for his brother. An informal reception was held after the wedding.
