T-L Club Breaks Even

Manager Walt Morris' Torrance-Lomita Merchants broke even in a double header played Sunday afternoon at the city park diamond, winning from El Segundo 14 to 5 in the opener and dropping the nightcap to the San Pedro Jadrans 8 to 1.

Davenport and Paul Angelich divided hurling in the opening game with Ward and Hamilton sharing the second. Ferrell, newly acquired catcher, worked in both tilts.

As a result of the showing in the second game, Walt Morris announced that he would probably have several new faces in his lineup for Friday night's tilt against the Shell A. C.

Dick Rowin, former Lomita hurler, now with the Jadrans, hurled for the San Pedrans.

With 190. Gold, silver and bronze medals were presented by Police Chief John Stroth.
