

Bette Elliott Weds Melvin Howard Sunday in Long Beach Chapel

Half-Century in Eastern Star to Be Recognized

MRS. PHOEBE MILBURN

Who will be honored at the regular meeting of Torrance chapter, Order of Eastern Star tonight when she will be presented with a 50-year service pin. Mrs. Milburn, who lives on Andreo avenue, has long been active in the chapter here and her many friends are delighted that she is to receive this splendid recognition.

Because the session tonight is the annual court-zy affair, officers of neighboring chapters will fill the chairs. Mrs. Lillian Dye will be in charge of the program.

Miss Bette Louise Elliott, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Hyde, 1609 Post Avenue, will become bride of Melvin H. Howard at a ceremony to be performed in Lakewood Wedding chapel in Long Beach, Sunday morning, June 4, at 9 o'clock.

The couple will be unattended. For her wedding gown, Miss Elliott has chosen a modish afternoon frock of French blue tulle with cyclamen jacket lined in the blue, and cyclamen accessories. Her corsage will be purple orchids.

Only immediate families will witness the nuptials. Mr. and Mrs. Howard will leave shortly after the ceremony for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and later will visit the World's Fair at San Francisco.

Both young couple are graduates of Torrance high school. Miss Elliott later attended Woodbury College and for the past two years has been employed in the offices of the Columbia Steel company. Howard has been employed at the steel company for the past five years. The couple will reside at 815 Arlington avenue.

NECKLINE NEWS

(From May Good Housekeeping Magazine)

If you have a round face and a good hairline, you owe it to yourself to try the high-on-the-head fashion. It is the most patrician of them all, and there are dozens of pretty variations. Once you get the hang of it, it is easy to arrange, and it gives you an air of dignity which the more casual coiffures never quite achieve.
