Installations Featuring Club Gatherings at Present Time

Installation of officers for the ensuing year seems to be the most important factor on the club calendar for the week. Nearly every woman's organization in the city will change officers or has done so within the past few days.

Mrs. Charles Woodcock was installed for a second term as president of the high school Parent Teachers Association at their meeting held Monday, Mrs. Helen Silligo accepted the gavel of authority from Mrs. Lillian Barrington at the meeting of Torrance Woman's Club held yesterday in their club-house.

Mrs. H. L. Lee will replace Mrs. Harold Smith as president of Elementary Parent Teachers Association at their meeting Tuesday, June 13. Mrs. J. J. Millard will become leader of the Fern Avenue P.T.A. replacing Mrs. W. J. Bowers, who has served for the past two years.

Women of the Moose Torrance chapter 44 elected Mrs. Katherine Gossiaux to succeed Mrs. Opal Williams, who has been senior regent for the past year. Installation will be held in their hall, 1951 Carson street, June 26.

DINNER PRECEDES H. S. P.T.A. MEETING

Members of the high school faculty with the Parent Teacher executive board held their annual party in the school cafeteria Monday evening. Din-ner was served by girls of the home economics class and pre-pared by the class under the direction of Mrs. Madeline B. Urquhart teacher of home economics. Centerpieces on the tables, which were placed as a horse shoe were miniature rock gardens designed by art stu-dents under direction of Ada Chace. Place cards were in silver and black.

Mrs. James P. Zeigler, president of Gateway Council Parents and Teachers was an honored guest at the dinner. The final meeting of the Parent Teacher group was held in the school auditorium im-mediately following the dinner and officers for the year 1939 and '40 were seated. Mrs.

Charles Woodcock continues as president of the association for a second year, Mrs. J. O. Bishop, vice president; Miss Elizabeth Parks, vice presi-dent and program chairman; Mrs. R. Yoder, recording secre-tary; Mrs. J. W. Post, cor-responding secretary; Mrs. Ed Schwartz, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Keefe, auditor and Mrs. E. E. Banks, historian. Mrs. R. S. Sleeth was the installing of-ficer.

The outstanding program of the year was presented by students of the art division under the able direction of Miss Ada Chace, art super-visor. Living models were pre-sented as figures of Greek gods and goddesses. Music between tableaux was pre-sented by the school orchestra. The Mother Singers were presented in two numbers. State conven-tion reports were given by the president, Mrs. Charles Woodcock and by Mrs. James Zeigler, Gateway Council president.

Mme. Bellini Presents 22 Pupils In Sunday Recital

An interested and enthusi-astic audience filled the Cen-tral Evangelical church on Sun-day evening, June 4, when Mme. Teala Bellini, concert pianist and teacher of piano, presented twenty-two of her students in recital. The plat-form was beautifully decorated with baskets of flowers and on each side of the pianos were tall candelabra, with sev-en lighted candles in each one.

Mme. Bellini's students played with unusual attention to interpretation, pedaling, mu-sicianship and clearness of technique. Mme. Bellini also trains her students in stage presence and many in the au-dience commented upon the ex-celent poise of even the small-est performer. The last num-ber on the program was a con-certo played by Mrs. Dorothy Searcy of San Pedro with Mme. Bellini at the second pi-ano. The pianos used were Baldwins furnished by the Birkel-Richardson Music com-pany of Los Angeles.

This recital was the finale of a busy season of recitals by students of the Bellini Stud-ios. Beginning last January, Mme. Bellini had a "Practice Hour" every fourth Friday at her Los Angeles studio. She also presented Arthur Kelley in recital Jan. 18, in Los An-geles, Dorothy Woodruff in recital May 19 in San Pedro and Phon Propst in recital May 23 in Monrovia. Mme. Bellini's summer season opens June 24.

Mrs. Arthur Husen of Tor-rance and Miss Phyllis Blanchard of San Pedro, also stu-dents of Mme. Bellini, acted as ushers.

Those who took part in the Sunday evening recital includ-ed: Andree Grafton, Terry Grafton, Marjorie Ann Roos, Nancy Ann Whyte, Teala Rose-mary Bellini, Marilyn Stannard, Rosemarie Disario, Joseph Marek, Barbara Jane Locke, Winifred Philp, Barbara Lee Watson, Norma Levy, Thelma Ness, Ethel Hall, Hellen Alice Trafer, Kiyoko Hasegawa, Dorothy Matz, Phon Propst, Arthur Kelley, Dorothy Wood-ruff, Jenoyne Barkdull and Dorothy Searcy.
