SHOP TALK

Enterprising Ed Thompson, Chevrolet dealer, got out a hammer & saw early this week, pounded, nailed, sawed until he put up a swank set of offices in his front sales room. One office will be used for the book-keeper, who, by the by, is new to Torrance. He is good looking, quiet speaking Boyd Wilson, former Keeper of the Books for the Los Angeles concern of Brokaw-Bauer. He replaces Ho ward Tucker who took a job with a Long Beach auto dealer.

Getting back to the remodeling . . . Ed will have a private office, and his present quarters will be used as a sales room. On the other side of the room Ed is enlarging the parts dept. with modern new display counters for parts and accessories.

Lincoln Lore

Reading the life of Abe Lincoln the other eve, was amused at a story "Honest Abe" told on him one other eve, was amused at a story "Honest Abe" told on himself while campaigning against the Injuns in the Black Hawk war around 1830. Chosen as captain of an Illinois volunteer company, Lincoln, who knew absolutely nothing of military terms or tacties, was leading his company across a field, all marching a breast. Approaching a fence with a gate in the middle, Abraham racked his brains for the soldier's terms for getting his group "endwise" thru the gate. Stumped, Lincoln finally called, "Company dismissed for two minutes, when it will fall-in again on the other side of the fence!"

SIDEWALK SANDWICHES
With the only business of its kind in the entire metropolitan area of Torrance, Bill Whitney, old time local baker, plans to make a few extra dollars selling hot dogs, candy, cigarettes, etc. direct from his remodeled front window down on Sartori. Bill got a glass cutter, whacked the big night class window in twain. hot dogs, candy, eigarettes, etc. direct from his remodeled front window down on Sartori. Bill got a glass cutter, whacked the big plate glass window in twain, installed a neat little counter flush up to the sidewalk. In addition Bill prides himself on having the only downtown free water fountain, with ice cold agua pura available to all.

An automobile leasing service of for railroad passengers operating in nearly 400 cities of 10,000 population or over is to be established January 1, 1940, by a Lincoln, Neb., Ford Dealer and his associates. Eight major railroad lines, mostly in the middle-west, have signed up to use the service, seeing in it an opportunity to recapture a silice, of the traffic they have lost in recent years to the highways, the article points out. The Union Pacific is the only far-western road on the list.

Mexican Bandit Slugs Clerk, Robs Store of $140

women rest the prime obligation of the U. S. Postal Service a pock-marked Mexican to Virgil Rogers, clerk at Roberts' Liquor store, 1281 Sartori avenue, at 8:15 last Friday morning as Rogers was making change for the Mexican's dollar bill tendered in payment for some whiskey. Before the bandit left the premises, he had stuffed, about $140 in a paper sack and struck Rogers in the face.

Keeping his left hand in his pocket, the Mexican forced Rogers to scoop out all cash in the register, put it in the sack and open the floor safe. He took all money in an upper tier but when he ordered the clerk to open the lower compartment, Rogers said he did not have the keys.

"How much money you got?" the bandit demanded and when Rogers showed him $2, told the lower compartment, Rogers said he did not have the keys.

"How much money you got?" the bandit demanded and when Rogers showed him $2, told the lower compartment, Rogers furnished Police Chief John Stroh and Officer George Dalton with an excellent description of his assailant. He said he did not see a gun at any time but believed the Mexican had one in his left coat pocket.

Women Handle Walteria Mail

Walteria Mail

Upon the shoulders of two women rest the prime obligation of the U. S. Postal Service — "the mail must go thru"—so far as Walteria is concerned.

The new assistant to Mrs. Loy Knight, postmaster at Walteria, is Anne Wood, who now carries the messenger route between Redondo Beach, Palos Verdes and Walteria for the two deliveries of local mail. Shé holds a sub-contract on the run from her brother, Thomas Hodyer, and makes deliveries in Walteria twice daily, at 8:20 a. m., and 2:30 p. m. Outgoing mails close at 9:20 a. m., and 4:20 p. m. Mrs. Knight said this week that she soon will have her husband as an assistant in the Walteria office. Don Knight is retiking from the U. S. Navy.

Among the new patients entering Torrance Memorial hospital during the past week were: Benson Byers, Hermosa Beach, last Thursday for treatment of an infected jaw. He returned home Tuesday. Mrs. Pearl Bunge, 1006 Sartori, was received for an appendectomy.
