Damage Light In Blaze at Barn

At 1 a. m. yesterday morning the Torrance fire-department was called to 2001 174th street, North Torrance, where they extinguished a fire in a wood and metal barn on premises owned by J. T. Fitzgerald, 4300 Victoria Park Drive, Los Angeles. The premises were unoccupied but workmen who had been cleaning up trash about the place during the day had left a small bonfire from which sparks are assumed to have started the blaze in the barn. Damage to the amount of about $50 resulted.

Walteria firemen were called to aid crews of the county forestry department in quelling a grass fire on Palos Verdes hill south of Hawthorne boulevard yesterday. The blaze burned over about 30 acres.

Car Stolen In Ten Minutes

While G. C. Ward, 18316 Kingsdale street, El Nido, was refreshing himself with a soda at the Alcorn Drug store, 2203 Torrance boulevard, Tuesday night, someone drove off with his Ford V-8 sedan. Ward was on his way home from work and stopped at 10:55 at the pharmacy for a cooling drink. When he stepped outside again at 11:05 his car was gone.

Excited Motorist Sends False Alarm

Firemen from the central station in Torrance rolled Saturday to put out a small grass fire at Torrance boulevard and Cota avenue. The blaze is said to have started from sparks from an incinerator. On Sunday the central crew was called to the riding academy on Highway 101 near Walteria where a passing motorist reported a fire. The call proved to be a false alarm.

Mexican Held In Car Crash

Carlos Alvarado, Mexican, will have a hearing in the municipal court tomorrow on charges of driving while under the influence of liquor. Alvarado is said to have been responsible for a collision on 106th street when he drove in front of a small truck operated by Yasushi Yasutaki of Gardena. Neither driver was hurt. Alvarado was taken into custody and released on bail to appear tomorrow.

SOCIETY and Club

TWO HONORED AT BADMINTON PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quaggin of 1309 Amapola avenue, entertained at a surprise handkerchief shower in honor of the birthdays of Mary Lou Kelley and William Rojo at a progressive badminton party last Monday night.

Badminton was played at the homes of the Messrs. and Mmes. Quaggin, Perkin and Rojo with the winners moving each time.

The party finally reached the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour where, highlighting the evening, home-made peach ice cream and a beautiful birthday cake was served. The cake was baked by Mrs. Emma Quaggin and decorated in yellow and green, being lettered "Happy Birthday Mary Lou and Bill."

Among the guests were, Messrs. and Mmes. Tom Perkin, Charles Rippey, Harvel Guttenfelder, Carl Marsteller, William Rojo, Guy Kelley, Frank Paour and Fred Quaggin. Each honoree was given handkerchiefs by the guests.

ST. LOUIS GIRL LEAVES FOR HOME

A grand time was had last Sunday night when a farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dubbs, 1750 Andree avenue, in honor of their attractive niece, Miss Elaine Newman who has been visiting her aunt and uncle for the summer. Elaine left Tuesday for her home.

The party numbered thirteen, among them being, Roy Holman, Charles Dye, David Blackburn, Walter Smith, Thelma Buffalo, Bobby Golden, Bill Parten, Newton Sleeth, Ruth Kerber, Harold Shell, Glen Clark and Elaine Newman.

The young people spent a riotous time playing games during the evening. Refreshments were served later on in the evening.

BILL WALKER FED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. W. T. Walker, 2003 Andree avenue, entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of her son William, who had just reached his 19th birthday. The affair was kept secret from Bill until the time when he walked in to find the house full of guests and a beautiful dinner spread on a beautifully decorated table. A handsome auto robe was presented him. Guests invited were Marjorie and Norma Warthan, Phyllis Schultz, Marcella Crook, Margaret Walker, Virginia Sorenson, Irene Watkins of Long Beach, Reggie Treloar, Bert Lamb, Paul Smith, Blondie Myers of Redondo Beach, Frank Frohnholser of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Maupis.
