HAVE A GOOD TIME AND JOIN IN FESTIVITIES

There is only one requirement expected of those who participate in the Factory Frolic.

You must have fun! No "sour-pusses" are to be allowed on the streets starting today, Chairman Fay L. Parks announced, and you must let your smiles be broad and your laughs be loud!

"We don't want anyone to go home Saturday night, at the close of the Frolic, saying: 'Huh, I coulda had more fun someplace else,'" he declared.

Wear Blues, Aprons

"But to really enjoy the spirit of the Frolic you've got to let your hair down and rub elbows with your neighbors. Don't stand off to one side and expect the other fellow to beg you to have fun—get in the crowds and see everything!"

One of the best means to overcome barriers to good times this weekend will be the wearing of the official Factory Frolic costume—overalls, workshirt and cap for men, aprons and headbands for women.

Rowdyism Banned

In urging everyone to have fun during the Frolic, Chairman Parks points out that there's a difference between "wholesome enjoyment" and "plain rowdyism." The latter will not be permitted at any time. Those who let their good spirits get the better of them will be promptly asked to vacate the fun zone on El Prado.

Local police will be on the watch to curb any malicious mischief and stop any attempt to turn the Frolic into a "wild party."

DON'T MISS FROLIC'S BIG ATTRACTIONS

There are two "must see" attractions at this week's Factory Frolic. Mark them down right now for as many visits as you can make—they are free—in order to enjoy their splendid exhibits.

One is the combined Arts, Crafts, Hobby and Needlework show at 1222 El Prado (below Sartori) and the other is the Civic Auditorium displays.

At the Arts, Crafts etc. show there are hundreds of examples of artistry, invention and collection of Torrance residents. Each exhibit is neatly labeled, showing who made it and, in many cases the merit awards won by participants will be shown after Friday morning.

SPREADS SMILES . . . Last year when he was in charge of the event, John E. "Jack" Miller urged everyone to "smile, laugh and have a good time." This week, he's still spreading that command as he goes about preparing the displays in the Civic Auditorium. This exhibit and nightly entertainment is free to all.

Latest Fashions Will Be Shown

"Around the Clock" is the title of the Fashion Show to be staged by members of the Spinners Club in the Civic Auditorium Saturday night from 8 to 9 o'clock. Various local stores are cooperating by loaning their fall and winter stocks to the show. There will be no charge for admission.

Shoe-Tossers to Try for Title

Barn-yard golfers—those who follow the ancient and honorable pastime of chucking horse's foot-club in the Civic Auditorium Saturday night from 8 to 9 o'clock. Various local stores are cooperating by loaning their fall and winter stocks to the show. There will be no charge for admission. Prospective champs should see either Fay Parks or Dale Riley to enter.
